VENI CREATOR.

Come holy Ghost, eternall God,
proceeding from aboue:
Both from the Father & the Son,
the God of peace and lone.
Write our minds, and into vs
thy heavenly grace inspire:
That in all truth and godlinesse,
we may haue true desire.

Thou art the very comforter,
in all woe and distresse:
The heavenly gift of God most high,
which no tongue can expresse:
The fountaine and the luely spring
of ioy celestially:
The fire so bright, the loue so cleare,
and vntion spirituall.

Thou in thy gifts art manifold,
whereby Christs Church doth stand, Faithfull hearts writing thy law,
the finger of Gods hand.
According to thy promise made,
thou givest speech of grace:
That through thy helpe the praise of God
may stand in euery place.

Holy Ghost into our wits
send downe thy heavenly light:
Write in our hearts with seruent loue,
to serue God day and night.
Strengthen and stablish all our weakenesse,
so feeble and so fraile:
That neither flesh, the world nor duell,
against vs do preuaile.

Put backe our enemies farre from vs,
and grant vs to obtaine
peace in our hearts with God and man,
without grudge or disdaine.
And grant (O Lord) that thou being
our leader and our guide,
We may eschue the snares of sinne,
and frow thee neuer slide.

Give vs such plenty of thy grace,
good Lord grant, we thee pray:
That thou mayst be our comforter
at the last dreadfull day.

Of all strife and dissention,
O Lord dissolve the bands,
And make the knots of peace and lone,
throughout all Christian lands.

Grant vs O Lord, through thee to know
the Father most of might:

That of his deare beloved Sonne
we may attaine the sight.
And that with perfect faith also
we may acknowledge thee
The Spirit of them both alway,
one God in persons three.

Laud and praise be to the Father,
and to the Sonne equall,
And to the holy Spirit also,
one God coeternall.
And pray we that the onely Sonne vouchsafe his Spirit to send
To all that do professe his Name,
vnto the worldes end.

The humble suite of a sinner. M.

O Lord of whom I do depend,
behold my carefull heart,
And when thy will and pleasure is,
release me of my smart.
Thou seest my sorrowes what they are,
my griefe is knowne to thee,
And there is none that can remoue,
or take the same from me.

But onely thou whose aide I craue,
whose mercie still is prest,
To ease all those that come to thee
for succour and for rest.
And sith thou seest my restless eyes,
my reares and grievous grone,
Attend vnto my suite O Lord,
marke well my plaint and moene.

For sinne hath so inclosed me,
and compassed me about,
That I am now remediless,
if mercie helpe not out.
For mortall man cannot release,
or mitigate this paine:
But euen thy Christ, my Lord and God,
who for my finnes was slaine.

Whose bloudie wounds are yet to see,
though not with mortall eye:
Yet do thy Saints behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.
Though sinne doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good,
I shall enjoy the sight of him,
and see his wounds and blood.

And as thine Angels and thy Saints
do now behold the same:

Veni exultemus.

So trust I to possesse that place,
with them to praifethy Name.
But whilst I lye here in this vale,
where sinners do frequent:
Assist me euer with thy grace,
my sinnes still to lament.

Lest that I tread the sinners trace,
and giue them my consent:
To dwell with them in wickednesse,
whereto nature is bent.
Onely thy grace mult be my stay,
lest that I fall downe flat,
And being downe, then of my selfe cannot recouer that.

Wherefore this is yet once againe
my suite and my request,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
that I in thee may rest.
Then shal my heart, my tongue and voice,
be instruments of praise:
And in thy Church and house of Saints,
sing Psalmes to thee alwaies.

Venite exultemus.

O Come and let vs now reioyce,
And sing vnto the Lord,
And to our onely Sauour,
Also with one accord.

O let vs come before his face,
With inward reuerence:
Confessing all our former sinnes,
And that with diligence.

To thanke him for his benefites, Alway distributing,
Wherefore to him right ioyfully,
In Psalmes now let vs sing.

And that because that God alone,
Is Lord magnificent:
And eke aboue all other gods,
A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forsake
At any time or tide:
And in his hands are all the coasts
Of all the world so wide.

And with his louing countenance,
He looketh euery where:
And doth behold the tops of all
The mountaines farre and neare.

The sea and all that is therein,
Are his, for he them made:
And eke his hand hath fashioned
The earth which doth not fade.

O come therefore and worship him,
And downe before him fall:
And let vs weepe before the Lord,
The which hath made vs all.

He is our God, our Lord and King,
And we his people are:

Te Deum.

His flocke and sheepe of his pasture,
Of whom he taketh care.

This day if ye will heare his voice,
Then harden not your heart:
As in the bitter murmuring,
When ye were in desert.

Which thing was of their negligence
Committed in the time
Of trouble in the wilderness,
A great and grievous crime.

Whereas your fathers tempted me,
And tride me euery way:
They proued me and saw my workes,
What I could do or say.

These forty yeares I haue bene grieved
With this generation:
And euermore I said they err'd
In their imagination. (combred)

Wherewith their hearts were sore
Long time and many daies:
Wherefore I know assuredly,
They haue not knowne my waies.

To whom I in mine anger swore,
That they should not be blest:
Nor see my ioy celestiall,
Nor enter in my reit.

Gloria Patri.

All laud and praise be to the Lord,
O that of might art most:
To God the Father and the Sonne,
and to the holy Ghost,
As it in the beginning was,
for euer heretofore:
And is now at this present time,
and shall be euermore.

The Song of Saint Ambrose called Te Deum.

WE praise thee God, we knowledge
the onely Lord to be: (thee)
And as eternall Father, all the earth doth worship thee.
To thee all Angels crie,
the heauens & all the power therein
To thee Cherub and Seraphin, to crie they do not lin.

O holy, holy, holy Lord,
of Saboth Lord the God:
Through heauen and earth thy praise
and glory all abroad. (spread)
The Apostles glorious company,
yeeld praises vnto thee:
The Prophets goodly fellowship
praise thee continually.

The noble and victorious host of Martyrs sound thy praise:

The song of the three children. Benedictus.

The holy Church throughout the world,
doth knowledge thee alwaies.
Father of endless maiestie,
they do acknowledge thee:
Thy Christ, thine honourable, true,
and onely Sonne to be.

The holy Ghost the comforter
of glorie thou art King,
O Christ, and of the Father art
the Sonne everlasting.
When sinfull mans decay in hand
thou tookest to restore,
To be inclosed in Virgins wombe,
thou diddest not abhorre.

When thou hadst overcome of death,
the sharpe and cruell might,
Thou heauens kingdome didst set ope,
to each beleeuing wight.
In glorie of the Father thou
doest sit on Gods right hand:
We trust that thou shalt come our Iudge,
our cause to understand.

Lord helpe thy seruants, whom thou hast bought with thy precious bloud:
And in eternall glorie let them with thy Saints be good.
O Lord do thou thy people save,
bless them with thy grace,
Lord be mercie to them, and Lord do thou
for euer their seruance.

We magnifie thee day by day,
and world without end.
Adore thy holy name, O Lord,
vouchsafe vs to defend.
From sinne this day. Haue mercy Lord,
haue mercie on vs all.
And on vs as we trust in thee,
Lord let thy mercie fall.

O Lord I haue reposed all
my confidence in thee,
Put to confounding shame therefore Lord let me neuer be.

The song of the three children.

The song of Zacharias, called Benedictus.

THE onely Lord of Israel,
be praysed euermore:
For through his visitation,
and mercie kept in store,

Benedictus. Magnificat. Nunc dimittis.

His people now he hath redeemed,
that long haue bene in thrall.
And spread abroad his sauing health,
vpon his seruants all.

In Dauids house, his seruant true,
According to his mind,
And also his annointed King,
As we in Scripture find.

As by his holy Prophets all,
Of times he did declare:
The which were since the world began,
His wayes for to prepare.

That we might be deliuered
From those that make debate,
Our enemies, and from the hands
Of all that do vs hate.

The mercie which he promised
Our fathers to fulfill,
And thinke vpon his couenant made,
According to his will.

And also to performe the oath,
Which he before had sworne
To Abraham our father deare,
For vs that were forlorne.

That he would giue himselfe for vs,
And vs from bondage bring,
Out of the hands of all our foes,
To serue our heavenly King.

And that without all manner feare,
And eke in righteousness:
And also for to leade our life,
In stedfast holinesse.

And thou (O child) which now art
And of the Lord elect, (horne, Shalt be the Prophet of the Highest,
His wayes for to direct.

For thou shalt go before his face,
For to prepare his wayes:
And also for to teach his will
And pleasure all the dayes.

To giue the knowledge, how that their Saluation is neare,
And that remission of their sins
Is through his mercie meere.

Whereby the day spring from on high,
Is come vs for to visite,
And those for to illuminate,
Which do in darknesse sit.

To lighten those that shadowed be
With death, and eke opprest:
And also for to guide our feete
The way to peace and rest.

The Song of blessed Marie, called Magnificat.

MY soule doth magnifie the Lord,
my spirit eke euermore,

Reioyceth in the Lord my God,
Which is my Sauour.

And why, because he did regard,
And gaue respect vnto
So base estate of his handmaide,
And let the mighty go.

For now behold, all nations,
And generations all,
From this time forth for euermore,
Shall me right blessed call.

Because he hath me magnified,
Which is the Lord of might:
Whose name be euer sanctified,
And praised day and night.

For with his mercie and his grace,
All men he doth inflame,
Throughout all generations,
To such as feare his Name.

He shewed strength with his great arme,
And made the proud to start,
With all imaginations
That they beare in their heart.

He hath put downe the mightie ones,
From their supernall seate,
And did exalt the meeke in heart,
As he hath thought it meete.

The hungry he replenished
With all things that were good:
And through his power he made the rich,
Of times to want their food.

And calling to remembrance
His mercie euery deale,
Hath holpen vs assiduously
His seruant Israel.

According to his promise made
To Abraham before,
And to his seed incessantly
To stand for euermore.

The song of Simeon, called Nunc dimittis.

O Lord because my hearts desire,
Hath wished long to see,
My onely Lord and Sauiour,
Thy Sonne before I die:

The ioy and heale of all mankind,
Desired long before,
Which now is come into the world,
Of mercie bringing store:

Thou sufferest thy seruant now
In peace for to depart,
According to thy holy word,
Which lighteth my heart.

Because mine eyes which thou hast made
To giue my body light,
Have now beheld thy sauing health,
Which is the Lord of might.

Whom

Quicumque vult.

Whom thou mercifully hast set,
Of thine abundant grace,
In open sight and visible,
Before all peoples face:
The Gentiles to illuminate,
And Sathan ouerquell:
And eke to be the glorie of Thy people Israel.

The Symbole or Creed of Athanasius, called Nunc dimittis.

WHat man soeuer he be,
that saluation will attaine:
The Catholicke beliefe
he must before all things retaine.
Which faith vntiesse he holy keepe,
and vndefiledly,
Without all doubt, eternally
he shall be sure to die.

The Catholicke beliefe is this,
that God we worship one In Vnitie, and Trinitie
in Vnitie alone.
So that we neither do confound
the persons of the three,
Nor yet the substance whole of one,
in funder parted be.

One person of the Father is,
another of the Sonne, Another person proper of the holy Ghost alone.
Of Father, Sonne, and holy Ghost,
but one the Godhead is,
Like glorie, coeternall eke,
the maiestie likewise.

Such as the Father is, such is the Sonne in each degree,
And such also we do beleue
the holy Ghost to be.
Vncreate is the Father, and
vncreate is the Sonne:
The holy Ghost vncreate, so vncreate is each one.

Incomprehensible Father is, incomprehensible Sonne,
And comprehensible also is the holy Ghost of none.
The Father is eternall, and the Sonne eternall so,
And in like sort eternall is
the holy Ghost also.

And yet though we beleue that each of these eternall be,
Yet there but one eternall is,
and not eternall three.
As ne incomprehensible we,
ne yet vncreate three,

But one incomprehensible, one vncreate hold to be.

Almightie so the Father is,
the Sonne almightie so,
And in like sort almightie is
the holy Ghost also.
And albeie that euery one
of these almighty bee,
Yet there but one Almightie is,
and not almighties three.

The Father God is, God the Sonne, God holy Ghost also:
Yet are there not three Gods in all,
but one God, and no mo.
So likewise Lord the Father is,
and Lord also the Sonne,
And Lord the holy Ghost, yet are there not three Lords, but one.

For as we are compeld to grant,
by Christian veritie,
Each of the persons by himselfe,
both God and Lord to be:
So Catholicke religion
forbiddeth vs alway,
That either Gods be three, or that there Lords be three to say.

Of none the Father is, ne made
ne create, nor begot:
The Sonne is of the Father, not create, ne made, but got.
The holy Ghost is of them both,
the Father and the Sonne:
Ne made, ne create nor begot,
but doth proceed alone.

So we one Father hold, not three,
one Sonne also, not three:
One holy Ghost alone, and not three holy Ghosts to be.
None in this Trinitie before nor after other is,
Ne greater any then the rest,
ne lesser be likewise.

But euery one among themselves,
of all the persons three,
Together coeternall all,
and all coequall be,
So Vnitie in Trinitie,
as said it is before,
And Trinitie in Vnitie,
in all things we adore.

Therefore what man soeuer that
saluation will attaine,
This faith touching the Trinitie,
of force he must retaine.
And needfull to eternall life,
it is that euery wight,

The Lamentation of a sinner. The Lords Prayer.

Of the incarnating of Christ
our Lord belecue aright,

As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be euermore.

For this the right faith is, that we
beleue and eke do know,
That Christ our Lord the Sonne of God,
is God and man also.
God, of his Fathers substance got
before the world began:
And of his mothers substance borne,
in world a very man.

Both perfect God and perfect man,
in one, one Iesus Christ:
That doth of reasonable soule
and humane flesh subsist.
Touching his Godhead, equall with his Father, God is he:
Touching his manhood, lower then
his Father in degree.

Who though he be both very God,
and very man also:
Yet is he but one Christ alone,
and is not persons two.
One, not by turning of Godhead
into the flesh of man:
But by taking manhood to God,
this being one began.

All one, not by confounding of
the substance into one,
But onely by the vnitie
that is of one person.
For as the reasonable soule
and flesh, but one man is:
So in one person God and man,
is but one Christ likewise.

Who suffered for to saue vs all,
to hell he did descend:
The third day rose againe from death,
to heauen he did ascend.
He sits on the right hand of God,
the almightie Father there:
From thence to iudge the quicke & dead,
again he shall retire.

At whose returne all men shall rise,
with bodies new restor'd:
And of their owne workes they shall giue
account vnto the Lord.
And they into eternall life
shall go that haue done well:
Who haue done ill, shall go into eternall fire to dwell.

This is the Catholicke beleefe:
who doth not faithfully
Beleue the same, without all doubt he saued cannot be.
To Father, Sonne and holy Ghost,
all glorie be therefore,

The Lamentation of a sinner.

O Lord turne not away thy face,
From him that lies prostrate,
Lamenting sore his sinfull life,
Before thy mercie gate
Which gate thou openest wide to those
That do lament their sinne:
Shut not that gate against me Lord,
But let me enter in.

And call me not to mine account,
How I haue liued here:
For then I know right well, O Lord,
How vile I shall appeare.

I need not to confesse my life,
I am sure thou canst tell,
What I haue bene, and what I am,
I know thou knowest it well.

O Lord thou knowest what things be
And eke the things that be: (past)
Thou knowest also what is to come,
Nothing is hid from thee.

Before the heauens & earth were made
Thou knowest what things were then,
As all things else that haue bene since
Among the sonnes of men.

And can the things that I haue done,
Be hidden from thee thou?
Nay, nay, thou knowest them all, O Lord,
Where they were done and when.

Wherefore with teares I come to thee
To beg and to intreate,
Euen as the child that hath done ill,
And feareth to be beate.

So come I to thy mercie gate,
Where mercie doth abound,
Requiring mercie for my sinne,
To heale my deadly wound.

O Lord I need not to repeate,
What I do beg or craue:
Thou knowest (O Lord) before I aske,
The thing that I would haue.

Mercie good Lord, mercie I aske,
This is the totall summe:
For mercie Lord is all my suite,
Lord let thy mercie come.

The Lords Prayer, or Pater noster.

O Vr Father which in heauen art,
Lord hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdome cometh, thy will be done
in earth, as the same in heauen is. Giue vs O Lord
our daily bread this day.

The x. Commandements.

As we forgiue our debtors, so
forgiue our debts we pray.
Into temptation leade vs not:
from euill make vs free.
For kingdome power and glory thine,
both now and euer be.

The x. Commandements.

Audi Israel. Exod. xx.

Hearke Israel, and what I say,
giue heed to vnderstand:
I am the Lord thy God, that brought thee out of Egypt land:
Euen from the house wherein thou didst
in thraldome liue a slaue.
None other Gods at all, before my presence shalt thou haue.

No manner graven image shalt thou make at all to thee:
Nor any figure like by thee
shall counterfeited be,
Of any thing in heauen above,
nor in the earth below,
Nor in the waters beneath the earth:
to them thou shalt not bow,

Nor shalt thou serue. The Lord thy God,
a jealous God am I:
That punish parents faults vnto
the third and fourth degree,
Vpon their children that me hate:
and mercie do display
To thousands of such as me loue,
and my precepts obey.

The Name thou of the Lord thy God,
in vaine shalt neuer vse:
For him that takes his Name in vaine,
the Lord will not excuse.
Remember that thou holy keepe
the sacred Sabbath day:
Sixe dayes thou labour shalt, and do thy needfull workes alway.

The seuenth day is set by the Lord
thy God to rest vpon:
No worke then shalt thou do in it,
ne thou, nor yet thy sonne,
Thy daughter, seruant, and thy maid,
thine Oxe, nor yet thine Ass,
Nor stranger that within thy gate
hath his abiding place.

For in sixe dayes God heauen and earth,
and all therein did make:
And after those, his rest he did
vpon the seuenth day take.
Wherefore he blest the day that he
for resting did ordaine:
And sacred to himselfe alone,
appointed to remaine.

Yeeld honour to thy parents, that prolongd thy dayes may be Vpon the land, the which the Lord
thy God hath giuen thee.
Thou shalt not murder: Thou shalt not commit adulterie.
Thou shalt not steale. Nor witnesse false against thy neighbour be.

Thou shalt not couet house, that to thy neighbour doth belong:
Ne couet shalt in hauing of his wife to do him wrong:
Nor his manservant, nor his maid,
nor oxe, nor ass of his:
Nor any other thing that to thy neighbour proper is.

The Complaint of a sinner.

Where righteousness doth say,
Lord for my sinfull part,
In wrath thou shouldst me pay,
Vengeance for my desert:
I can it not denie,
But needs I must confesse,
How that continually,
Thy lawes I do transgresse,
Thy lawes I do transgresse.

But if it bethy will,
With sinners to contend:
Then all thy stocke shall spill,
And be lost without end.
For who liues hereso right,
That rightly he can say,
He sinnes not in thy sight,
Full oft and euery day?

The Scripture plaine tels me,
The righteous man offendeth
Seuen times a day to thee,
Whereon thy wrath dependeth,
So that the righteous man
Doth walke in no such path,
But he falles now and than,
In danger of thy wrath.

Then sith the case so stands,
That euen the man rightwise,
Falles oft in sinfull bands,
Whereby thy wrath may rise:
Lord I that am vniust,
And righteousness none haue,
Whereto then shall I trust,
My sinfull soule to saue?

But truly to that post,
Whereto I cleaue and shall,
Which is thy mercy most,
Lord let thy mercie fall.
And mitigate thy mood,
Or else we perish all,
The price of this thy blood,
Wherein mercie I call.

Psalme j. ij.

The Scripture doth declare,
No drop of bloud in thee:
But that thou didst not spare,
To shed each drop for me.
Now let those drops most sweet,
So moist my heart so drie:
That I with sinne repleate,
May line, and sinne may die.

That being mortified,
This sinne of mine in me:
I may be sanctified,
By grace of thine in thee.

So that I neuer fall
Into such mortall sinne,
That my foes infernall,
Reioyce my death therein.

But vouchsafe me to keepe,
From those infernall foes:
And from that lake so deepe,
Whereas no mercie grows.
And I shall sing the songs,
Confirmed with the iust,
That vnto thee belongs,
Which art my onely trust.

THE PSALMES OF DAVID IN MEETER.

PSAL. I. T. S.

TH E man is blest that hath not to wicked rede his care: (bent,
Nor led his life as sinners do,
nor sate in scornes chaire:

2 But in the law of God the Lord,
doth set his whole delight:
And in that law doth exercise
himselfe both day and night.

3 He shall be like the tree that groweth
fast by the riuers side:
Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit,
in her due time and tide.
Whose lease shall neuer fade nor fall,
but flourish still and stand:
Euen so shall all things prosper well,
that this man takes in hand.

4 So shall not the vngodly men,
they shall be nothing so:
But as the dust which from the earth
the winde driues to and fro.

5 Therefore shall not the wicked men
in iudgement stand vpright:
Nor yet the sinners with the iust,
shall come in place or sight.

6 For why, the way of godly men,
vnto the Lord is knowne:
And eke the way of wicked men,
shall quite be ouerthrowne.

PSAL. II. T. S.

Why did the Gentiles tumults raise,
what rage was in their braine?
Why did the Iewish people muse,
seeing all is but vaine?

2 The kings and rulers of the earth
conspire and are all bent Against the Lord and Christ his Sonne, which he among vs sent.

3 Shall we be bound to them, say they,
let all their bonds be broke:
And of their doctrine and their law,
let vs reiect the yoke.

4 But he that in the heauen dwels,
their doings will deride:
And make them all as mocking stockes,
throughout the world so wide.

5 For in his wrath the Lord will say
to them vpon a day:
And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say:

6 I haue annointed him my King
vpon my holy hill:
I will therefore Lord preach thy lawes,
and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wise the Lord himselfe,
did say to me I wor:
Thou art my deare and onely Sonne,
to day I thee begot.

8 All people I will giue to thee,
as heires at thy request:
The ends and coasts of all the earth,
by thee shall be possesst.

9 Thou shalt the bruise euen with a mace,
as men vnder foote trod:
And as the potters sheards shalt breake
them with an iron rod.

10 Now ye O kings and rulers all,
be wise therefore and learnd:
By whom the matters of the world,
be iudged and discerned.

- 11 See that ye serue the Lord aboue,
in trembling and in feare:
See that with reuerence ye reioyce
to him in like manner.
- 11 See that ye kisse and eke embrace
his blessed Sonne I say:
Left in his wrath ye suddenly perish in the mid way.
- 13 If once his wrath neuer so small
shall kindle in his brest:
O then all they that trust in Christ,
shall happie be and blest.

PSAL. III. T.S.

- O Lord how are my foes increast,
which vex me more and more?
- 2 They kill my heart when as they say,
God can him not restore.
But thou (O Lord) art my defence,
when I am hard bestead:
- 3 My worship and mine honour both,
and thou holdst vp my head.
- 4 Then with my voice vpon the Lord,
I did both call and crie:
And he out of his holy hill,
did heare me by and by.
- 5 I laid me downe, and quietly
I slept, and rose againe:
For why, I know assuredly,
the Lord will me sustaine.
- 6 If ten thousand had hemd me in,
I could not be afraid:
For thou art still my Lord my God,
my Saviour and my aide.
- Rise vp therefore, saue me my God,
for now to thee I call:
- 7 For thou hast broke the cheekes and
of these wicked men all. (teeth,
- 8 Saluation onely doth belong
to thee O Lord aboue:
Thou doest bestow vpon thy folke,
thy blessing and thy loue.

PSAL. IIIII. T.S.

- O God that art my righteousness,
Lord heare me when I call:
Thou hast set me at libertie,
when I was bond and thrall.
- 2 Haue mercie Lord therefore on me,
and grant me my request:
For vnto thee vncessantely,
to crie I will not rest.
- 3 O mortall men how long will ye
my glorie thus despise?
Why wandere ye in vanitie,
and follow after lies?
- 4 Know ye that good and godly men,

the Lord doth take and chuse
And when to him I make my plaint,
he doth me not refuse.

- 5 Sinne not, but stand in awe therefore,
examine well your heart:
And in your chamber quietly,
see you your selues conuert.
- 6 Offer to God the sacrifice
of righteousness I say:
And looke that in the liuing Lord,
you put your trust alway.
- 7 The greater sort craue worldly goods,
and riches do embrace:
But Lord grant vs thy countenance,
thy fauour and thy grace.
- 8 For thou thereby shalt make my heart,
more ioyfull and more glad,
Then they that of their corne and wine,
full great increase haue had.
- 9 In peace therefore lie downe will I,
taking my rest and sleepe:
For thou onely wilt me O Lord,
alone in safetie keepe.

PSAL. V. T.S.

- Incline thine eares vnto my words,
O Lord my plaint consider:
- 2 And heare my voice, my King, my God,
to thee I make my prayer.
- 3 Heare me betime, Lord tarrie not,
for I will haue respect.
My prayer early in the morne
to thee for to direct.
- 4 And I will trust through patience,
in thee my God alone:
Thou art not pleased with wickednesse,
and ill with thee dwels none.
- 5 And in thy sight shall neuer stand,
these furious fooles O Lord:
Vaine workers of iniquitie,
thou hast alwaies abhord.
- 6 The liers and the flatterers,
thou shalt destroy them than:
And God will hate the bloudthirstie,
and the deceitfull man.
- 7 Therefore will I come to thine house,
trusting vpon thy grace:
And reuerently will worship thee,
towards thy holy place.
- 8 Lord leade me in thy righteousness,
for to confound my foes:
And oke the way that I shall walke,
before my face disclose.
- 9 For in their mouthes there is no truth,
their heart is foule and vaine:
- 10 Their throate an open sepulcher,
their tongues do glose and faine.
- 11 Destroy

- 11 Destroy their false conspiracies,
that they may come to nought:
Subuert them in their heapes of sinne,
which haue rebellion wrought.
- 12 But those that put their trust in thee,
let them be glad alwaies:
And render thanks for thy defence,
and giue thy Name the praise.
- 13 For thou with fauour wilt increase,
the iust and righteous still:
And with thy grace as with a shield,
defend him from all ill.

PSAL. VI. T.S.

- Lord, in thy wrath reprove me not,
though I deserue thine ire:
Ne yet correct me in thy rage,
O Lord I thee desire.
- 2 For I am weake, therefore O Lord,
of mercie me forbear:
And heale me Lord, for why, thou knowest
my bones do quake for feare.
- 3 My soule is troubled very sore,
and vexed vehemently:
But Lord how long wilt thou delay,
to cure my miserie?
- 4 Lord turne thee to thy wonted grace,
my silly soule vp take:
Oh saue me, not for my deserts,
but for thy mercies sake.
- 5 For why, no man among the dead
remembreth thee on whit:
Or who shall worship thee O Lord,
in the infernall pit?
- 6 So grieuous is my plaint and mone,
that I waxe wondrous faint:
All the night long I wash my bed,
with teares of my complaint.
- 7 My sight is dim and waxeth old,
with anguish of my heart:
For feare of those that be my foes,
and would my soule subuert.
- 8 But now away from me, all ye
that worke iniquitie:
For why, the Lord hath heard the voice
of my complaint and crie.

- 9 He heard not onely the request,
and prayer of my heart:
But it receiued at my hands,
and tooke it in good part.
- 10 And now my foes that vexed me,
the Lord will soone defame:
And suddenly confound them all,
to their rebuke and shame.

PSAL. VII. T.S.

- O Lord my God, I put my trust
and confidence in thee:

- Saue me from them that me pursue,
and eke deliuer me.
- 2 Lest like a Lion he me teare,
and rend in peeces small:
While there is none to succour me,
and rid me out of thrall.

- 3 O Lord my God, if I haue done
the thing that is not right:
Or eke if I be found in fault,
or guiltie in thy sight:
- 4 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in distresse,
Which me persude most cruelly,
and hated me causelesse:

- 5 Then let my foes pursue my soule,
and eke my life downe thrust Vnto the earth, and also lay mine honour in the dust.
- 6 Start vp O Lord, now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to paine:
Performe the kingdome promised to me which wrong sustaine.

- 7 Then shall great nations come to thee,
and know thee by this thing:
If thou declare for loue of them,
thy selfe as Lord and king.
- 8 And as thou art of all men iudge,
O Lord now iudge thou me,
According to my righteousnesse,
and mine integritie.

- 9 Lord ceasse the hate of wicked men,
and be the iust mans guide:
- 10 By whom the secrets of all hearts
are searched and descride.
- 11 I take my helpe to come of God,
in all my paine and smart:
That doth preserue all those that be
of pure and perfect heart.

- 12 The iust man and the wicked both,
God iudgeth by his power:
So that he feesles his mighty hand,
euen euery day and houre.
- 13 Except he change his mind, I die,
for euen as he should smite,
He whets his sword, his bow he bends,
aiming where he may hit.

- 14 And doth prepare his mortall darts,
his arrowes keene and sharpe,
For them that do me persecute,
whilst he doth mischief warpe.
- 15 But loe, though he in trauell be
of his diuellish fore-cast,
And of his mischief once conceiu'd,
yet brings forth nought at last.

- 16 He digs a ditch, and delues it deepe,
in hope to hurt his brother:
But he shall fall into the pit,

that he digd vp for other.
 27 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt
 of him in whom it bred:
 And all the mischief that he wrought,
 shall fall vpon his head.

28 I will giue thanks to God therefore,
 that iudgeth righteously:
 And with my song will praise the Name
 of him that is most hie.

PSAL. VIII. T. S.

O God our Lord, how wonderfull
 are thy workes euery where:
 Whose fame surmounts in dignitie,
 about the heauens cleare!
 1 Euen by the mouthes of sucking babes
 thou wilt confound thy foes:
 For in those babes thy might is scene,
 thy graces they disclose.

2 And when I see the heauens high,
 the workes of thine owne hand:
 The Sunne, the Moone, and all the Starres,
 in order as they stand:

3 What thing is man (Lord) thinke I the,
 that thou doest him remember?
 Or what is mans posteritie,
 that thou doest him consider?

4 For thou hast made him little lesse,
 then Angels in degree:
 And thou hast crowned him also,
 with glorie and dignitie.
 5 Thou hast preferd him to be Lord
 of all thy workes of wonder:
 And at his feete halt set all things,
 that he should keepe them vnder.

6 As sheepe and neate, and all beasts else,
 that in the fields do feed:
 7 Fowles of the ayre, fish in the sea,
 with all that therein breed.
 8 Therefore must I say once againe,
 O God that art our Lord:
 How famous and how wonderfull
 are thy workes through the world?

PSAL. IX. T. S.

W ith heart and mouth vnto the Lord,
 will I sing laud and praise:
 And speake of all his wondrous workes,
 and them declare alwaies.
 2 I will be glad and much reioyce,
 in thee O Lord most hie:
 And make my songs extoll thy Name,
 about the starrie skie.

3 For that my foes are drinen backe,
 and turned vnto flight:
 They fall downe flat, and are destroyed,
 by thy great force and might.

4 Thou hast reuenged all my wrong,
 my griefe and all my grudge:
 Thou doest with iustice heare my cause,
 most like a righteous iudge.

5 Thou doest rebuke the heathen folke,
 and wicked so confound,
 That afterward the memory
 of them cannot be found.
 6 My foes thou hast made good dispatch,
 and all their townes destroyed:
 Thou hast their fame with them defac'd
 throughout the world so wide:

7 Know thou that he which is aboute,
 for euermore shall raigne:
 And in the seate of equitie,
 true iudgement will maintaine.
 8 With iustice he will keepe and guide,
 the world and euery wight:
 And so will yeeld with equitie,
 to euery man his right.

9 He is protector of the poore,
 what time they be opprest:
 He is in all aduersitie,
 their refuge and their rest.
 10 All they that know thy holy Name,
 therefore shall trust in thee:
 For thou forsakest not their suite
 in their necessitie.

The second part.

11 Sing Psalmes therefore vnto the Lord,
 that dwells in Sion hill:
 Publish among all nations
 his noble acts and will.

12 For he is mindfull of the bloud
 of those that be opprest:
 Forgetting not th'afflicted heart,
 that seeketh to him for rest.

13 Haue mercy Lord on me poore wretch,
 whose enemies still remaine:
 Which from the gates of death art wont
 to raise me vp againe.

14 In Sion that I might set forth
 thy praise with heart and voice:
 And that in thy saluation Lord,
 my soule might still reioyce.

15 The heathen sticke fast in the pit,
 that they themselues prepar'd:
 And in the net which they did set,
 their owne feete fast are snar'd.

16 God shewes his iudgments, which were for euery man to marke: (good When as ye see the wicked man lie trapt in his owne warke.

17 The wicked and deceitfull men,
 go downe to hell for euer:
 And all the people of the world,
 that will not God remember.

18 But sure the Lord will not forget:
the poore mans griefe and paine:
The patient people neuer looke
for helpe of God in vaine.

19 O Lord arise, lest men preuaile,
that be of worldly might:
And let the heathen folke receiue
their iudgement in thy sight.
20 Lord strike such terror, feare & dread
into the hearts of them,
That they may know assuredly,
they be but mortall men.

PSAL. X. T.S.

What is the cause that thou O Lord,
art now so farre from thine:
And keepest close thy countenance
from vs this troublous time?

2 The poore do perish by the proud,
and wicked mens desire:
Let them be taken in the craft,
that they themselves conspire.

3 For in the lust of his owne heart,
the vngodly doth delight:
So doth the wicked praise himselfe,
and doth the Lord despight.

4 He is so proud, that right and wrong
he setteth all apart:
Nay, nay, there is no God, saith he,
for thus he thinkes in heart.

5 Because his waies do prosper still,
he doth thy lawes neglect
And with a blast doth puffe against such as would him correct.

6 Tush, tush, saith he, I haue no dread,
lest mine estate should change:
And why, for all aduersitie
to him is very strange.

7 His mouth is full of cursednesse,
offrand, deeceit and guile:
Vnder his tongue doth mischief sit,
and tranell all the while.

8 He lieth hid in waies and holes,
to slay the innocent:
Against the poore that passe him by his cruell eyes are bent.

9 And like a Lion princely,
lies lurking in his den:
If he may snare them in his net,
to spoile poore simple men.

10 And for the nonce full craftily,
he croucheth downe I say:

11 So are great heapes of poore men made by his strong power his pray.

The second part.

12 Tush, God forgetteth this, saith he,
therefore may I be bold:

His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.

13 Arise O Lord, O God, in whom the poore mans hope doth rest:
Lift vp thy hand, forget not Lord,
the poore that be opprest.

14 What blasphemie is it to thee,
Lord doest thou not abhorre it?
To heare the wicked in their hearts,
say, tush, thou canst not for it.

15 But thou seest all this wickednesse,
and well doest vnderstand,

16 That friendlesse and poore fatherlesse
are left into thy hand.

17 Of wicked and malicious men
then breake the power for euer:
That they with their iniquitie
may perish altogether.

18 The Lord shall reigne for euermore,
as King and God alone:
And he will chase the heathen folke,
out of the land each one.

19 Thou hear'st O Lord, the poore mens their prayer and request: (plaint,

Their hearts thou wilt confirme vntill
thine eares to heare be prest,

20 To iudge the poore and fatherlesse,
and helpe them to their right:
That they may be no more opprest
by men of worldly might.

PSAL. XI. T.S.

I Trust in God, how dare ye then
say thus my soule vntill:
Flie hence as fast as any fowle,
and hide you in your hill?

2 Behold the wicked bend their bowes,
and make their arrowes profit,
To shoote in secret, and to hurt
the sound and harmlesse brest.

3 Of worldly hope all stays were shrunk,
and clearly brought to nought:

Alas the iust and righteous man,
what euill hath he wrought?

4 But he that in his Temple is most holy and most hie:
And in the heauens hath his seate
of royall maiestie:

The poore and simple mans estate,
considereth in his minde:
And searcheth out full narrowly,
the manners of mankind.

5 And with a chearefull countenance,
the righteous man will vse:
But in his heart he doth abhorre,
all such as mischief use.

6 And on the sinners casteth snares,

as thicke as any raine:
Fire and brimstone, & whirlwinds thicke,
appointed for their paine.
Ye see then how a righteous God
doth righteousness embrace:
And to the iust and vpright men,
shewes forth his pleasant face.

PSAL. XII. T.S.

HElpe Lord, for good and godly men
do perish and decay:
And faith and truth from worldly men,
is parted cleane away.
Who so doth with his neighbour talke
his talke is all but vaine:
For euery man bethinketh how to flatter, lie, and faine.

But flattering and deceitfull lips,
and tongues that be so stout,
To speake proud words and make great
the Lord soone cut them out. (brags,
For they say still, we will preuaile,
our tongues shall vs extoll:
Our tongues are ours, we ought to speake,
what Lord shall vs controll?

But for the great complaint and crie
of poore and men opprest:
Arise will I now, saith the Lord,
and then restore to rest.
Gods word is like to siluer pure,
that from the earth is tride:
And hath no lesse then seven times,
in fire bene purified.

Now sith thy promise is to helpe,
Lord keepe thy promise then:
And saue vs now and hereafter,
from this ill kinde of men:
For now the wicked world is full
of mischiefs manifold:
When vanitie with mortall men,
so highly is extold.

PSAL. XIII. T.S.

How long wilt thou forget me Lord,
shall I neuer be remembred?
How long wilt thou thy visage hide,
as though thou were offended?
In heart and mind how long shall I with care tormented be?
How long eke shall my deadly foe,
thus triumph ouer me?

Behold me now my Lord my God,
and heare me sore opprest:
Lighten mine eyes, lest that I sleepe
as one by death posselt.
Lest that mine enemy say to me,
behold I do preuaile:
Lest they also that hate my soule,
reioyce to see me quail.

But from thy mercie and goodnesse,
my hope shall neuer start:
In thy reliefe and sauing health,
right glad shall be my heart.
I will giue thanks vnto the Lord,
and praises to him sing:
Because he hath heard my request,
and granted my wishing.

PSAL. XIII. T.S.

There is no God, as foolish men
asirme in their mad mood:
Their drifts are all corrupt and vaine,
not one of them doth good.
The Lord beheld from heauen hie,
the whole race of mankind:
And saw not one that sought indeed,
the liuing God to find.

They went all wide and were corrupt,
and truly there was none,
That in the world did any good,
I say there was not one.
Is all their iudgement so farre lost,
that all worke mischief still?
Eating my people euen as bread,
not one to seeke Gods will?

When they thus rage, then suddenly great feare on them shall fall:
For God doth lone the righteous men,
and will maintaine them all.
Ye mocke the doings of the poore,
to their reproch and shame:
Because they put their trust in God,
and call vpon his Name.

But who shall giue thy people health?
and when wilt thou fulfill Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Si-on hill:
Euen when thou shalt restore againe,
such as were captiue lad:
Then Iacob shall therein reioyce,
and Israel shall be glad.

PSAL. XV. T.S.

O Lord within thy tabernacle,
who shall inhabite still?
Or whom wilt thou receiue to dwell
in thy most holy hill?
The man whose life is vncorrupt,
whose workes are iust and straight:
Whose heart doth thinke the very truth,
whose tongue speakes no deceit.
Nor to his neighbour doth none ill,
in body, goods or name:
Nor willingly doth moue false tales
which might impair the same.
That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men:

But

But those that loue and feare the Lord,
he maketh much of them.

5 His oath and all his promises,
that keepeth faithfully:
Although he make his couenant so,
that he doth lose thereby.

6 That putteth not to vsurie,
his money and his coine:
Ne for to hurt the innocent,
doth bribe or else purloine.

7 Who so doth all things as you see,
that here is to be done:
Shall neuer perith in this world,
nor in the world to come.

PSAL. XVI. T. S.

Lord keepe me, for I trust in thee,
and do confesse indeed,
Thou art my God, and of my goods,
O Lord, thou hast no need.

2 I giue my goods vnto the Saints,
that in the world do dwell:
And namely to the faithfull flocke,
in vertue that excell.

3 They shall heape sorrowes on their ^{(heads,}
which runne as they were mad,
To offer to the idoll gods,
alas it is too bad.

4 As for their bloudie sacrifice,
and offrings of that sort,
I will not touch, nor yet thereof
my lips shall make report.

5 For why, the Lord the portion is of mine inheritance:
And thou art he that dost maintaine
my rent, my lot, my chance.

6 The place wherein my lot did fall,
in beautie did excell:
Mine heritage assign'd to me,
doth please me wondrous well.

7 I thanke the Lord that caused me
to vnderstand the right:
For by his meanes my secret thoughts,
do teach me euery night.

8 I set the Lord still in my sight,
and trust him ouer all:
For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fall.

9 Wherefore my heart and tongue also,
do both reioyce together:
My flesh and body rest in hope,
when I this thing consider.

10 Thou wilt not leaue my soule in graue,
for Lord thou louest me:
Nor yet wilt giue thy holy one,
corruption for to see.

11 But wilt me teach the way to life,
for all treasure and store
Of perfect ioy are in thy face,
and power for euermore.

PSAL. XVII. T. S.

O Lord giue eare to my iust cause,
attend when I complaine:
And here the prayer that I put forth,
with lips that do not faine.
2 And let the iudgement of my cause,
proceed alwayes from thee:
And let thine eyes behold, and cleare
this my simplicity.

3 Thou hast well tride me in the night,
and yet couldst nothing find,
That I haue spoken with my tongue,
that was not in my minde.

4 As for the workes of wicked men,
and paths peruerse and ill:
For lone of thy most holy Name,
I haue refrained still.

5 Then in thy paths that be most pure,
stay me Lord and preferue:
That from the way wherein I walke,
my steps may neuer swerue.

6 For I do call to thee O Lord,
truly thou wilt me aide:
Then heare my prayer & weigh right wel
the words that I haue said.

7 O thou the Sauour of all them,
that put their trust in thee:
Declare thy strength on them that spurne
against thy Maiesty.

8 O keepe me as thou wouldst keepe
the apple of thine eye:
And vnder couert of thy wings,
defend me secretly.

The second part.

9 From wicked men that trouble me,
and daily me annoy:
And from my foes that go about my soule for to destroy.

10 Which wallow in their worldly so full and eke so fat: ^{(wealth,}
That in their pride they do not spare
to speake they care not what.

11 They lie in waite where I should passe,
with craft me to confound:
And shewing mischief in their mindes
to cast me to the ground.

12 Much like a Lion greedily,
that would his prey embrace:
Or lurking like a Lions whelp,
within some secret place.

13 Vp Lord in haste, preuent my foe,
and cast him at thy feet:

Save thou my soule from the ill man,
and with thy sword him smite.
14 Deliver me Lord by thy power,
out of these tyrants hands:
Which now so long time reigned haue,
and kept vs in their bands.

15 I meane from worldlie men, to whom
all worldly goods are rise:
That haue no hope nor part of ioy,
but in this present life.
16 Thou of thy store their bellies fillst,
with pleasures to their mind.
Their children haue enough, and leaue
to theirs the rest behind.

17 But I shall with pure conscience,
behold thy gracious face:
So when I wake, I shall be full of thine image and grace.

PSAL. XVIIII. T.S.

O God my strength and fortitude,
of force I must lone thee:
Thou art my castle and defence,
in my necessitie.

1 My God, my rocke, in whom I trust,
the worker of my wealth:
My refuge, buckler, and my shield,
the home of all my health.

2 When I sing laud vnto the Lord,
most worthy to be praised:
Then from my foes I am right sure,
that I shall be preferred.

3 The pangs of death did compasse me,
and bound me tuerie where:
The flowing wanes of wickednesse
did put me in great feare.

4 The flie and subtile snares of hell,
were round about me set:
And for my death there was prepar'd
a deadly trapping net.

5 I thus beset with paine and griefe,
did pray to God for grace:
And he forthwith did heare my plaint,
out of his holy place.

6 Such is his power, that in his wrath
he made the earth to quake:
Yea the foundations of the mount
of Basan for to shake.

7 And from his nostrils came a smoake,
when kindled was his ire:
And from his mouth came kindled coales,
of hote consuming fire.

8 The Lord descended, from aboue,
and bowed the heauens hie:
And vnderneath his teete he cast
the darknesse of the flie.

9 On Cherubs and on Cherubins, full royally he rode:

And on the wings of all the winds,
came flying all abroad.

The second part.

11 And like a den most darke he made his hid and secret place:
With waters blacke and airy clouds,
ennironed he was.

12 But when the presence of his face,
in brightnesse shall appear:
Then clouds consume, and in their stead
come haile and coales of fire.

13 The fiery darts and thunderbolts,
disperse them here and there:
And with his often lightnings,
he puts them in great feare.

14 Lord at thy wrath and threatenings,
and at thy chiding cheare,
The springs and the foundations
of all the world appeare.

15 And from aboue, the Lord sent downe,
to fetch me from below:

And pluckt me out of waters great,
that would me ouerflow.

16 And me deliuered from my foes,
that would haue made me thrall:
Yea from such foes as were too strong
for me to deale withall.

17 They did preuent me to oppresse,
in time of my great griefe:
But yet the Lord was my defence,
my succour and reliefe.

18 He brought me forth in open place,
whereas I might be free:
And set me safe, because he had a fauour vnto me.

19 And as I was an innocent,
so did he me regard:

And to the cleanness of my hands,
he gaue me my reward.

20 For that I walked in his wayes,
and in his paths haue trod:
And haue not wauered wickedly
against my Lord my God.

The third part.

21 But euermore I haue respect
to his law and decree:
His statutes and commandments,
I cast not out from me.

22 But pure, and cleane, and vncorrupt,
appear'd before his face:
And did refraine from wickednesse
and sinne in any case.

23 Therefore: the Lord will me reward,
as I haue done aright:

And

And to the cleanness of my hands,
appearing in his sight.

24 For Lord, with him that holy is thou wilt be holy too:

And with the good and vertuous men,
right vertuously wilt do.

25 And to the louing and elect,
thy loue thou wilt reserve:

And thou wilt vse the wicked men,
as wicked men deserve.

26 For thou doest saue the simple folke,
in trouble when they lie:

And doest bring downe the countenance
of them that looke full hie.

27 The Lord will light my candle so.
that it shall shine full bright:

The Lord my God will make also
my darkness to be light.

28 For by thy helpe, an host of men,
discomfite, Lord I shall:

By thee I scale and overleape
the strength of any wall.

29 Vnsported are the waves of God,
his word is purely true:

He is a sure defence to such,
as in his faith abide.

30 For who is God except the Lord,
for other there is none:

Or else who is omnipotent,
sauius our God alone.

The fourth part.

31 The God that girdeth me with
is he that I do meane: (strength,

That all the wayes wherein I walke,
did euermore keepe cleane.

32 That made my feete like to the Harts,
in swiftnesse of my pace:

And for my suretie brought me forth
into an open place.

33 He did in order put my hands
to battell and to fight:

To breake in sunder barres of brasle,
he gaue mine armes the might.

34 Thou teachest me thy sauius health,
thy right hand is my tower:

Thy loue and familiaritie,
doth still increase my power.

35 And vnder me thou makest plaine
the way where I should walke:

So that my feete shall neuer slip,
nor stumble at a balke.

36 And fiercely I pursue and take
my foes that me annoyd:

And from the field do not returne,
till they be all destroyed.

37 So I suppress and wound my foes,
that they can rise no more:

For at my feete they fall downe flat,
I strike them all so fore.

38 For thou doest gird me with thy to warre in such a wise, (strength,

That they be all scattered abroad,
that vp against me rise.

39 Lord thou hast put into my hands,
my mortall enemies yoke:

And all my foes thou doest deuide
in sunder with thy stroke. (care,

40 They talke for helpe, but none gaue
nor holpe them with reliefe:

Yea to the Lord they cald for helpe,
yet heard he not their grieve.

The fift part.

41 And still like dust before the wind,
I driue them vnder feete:

And sweep them out like filthy clay,
that sticketh in the streete.

42 Thou keptst me from seditious folke,
that still in strife are led:

And thou doest of the bracher folke,
appoint me to be head.

43 A people strange to me vnkowne,
and yet they shall me serue:

And at the first obey my word,
whereas mine owne will swerue.

44 I shall be irksome to mine owne,
they will not see my light:

But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of sight.

45 But blessed be the liuing Lord,
most worthy of all praise:

That is my rocke and sauius health,
praised be he alwaies.

46 For God it is that gaue me power,
reuenged for to be:

And with his holy word subduide
the people vnto me.

47 And from my foes deliuered me,
and set me higher then thole,

That cruell and vngodly were,
and vp against me rose.

48 And for this cause O Lord my God,
to thee giue thanks I shall:

And sing out praises to thy Name,
among the Gentiles all.

49 That gauest great prosperity,
vnto the King I say:

To Dauid thine annointed king,
and to his seede for aye.

PSAL. XIX. T. S.

THE heauens and the firmament,
downdraughtly declare
The glory of God omnipotent,
his workes and what they are.

1 The wondrous workes of God appeare
by euery dayes successe:
The nights likewise that their race run,
the selfe same thing expresse.

2 There is no language, tongue or speech,
where their sound is not heard:

3 In all the earth and coasts thereof,
their knowledge is conferrd.

4 In them the Lord made for the Sunne,
a place of great renoune:

Who like a bridegroom ready trimd,
doth from his chamber come.

5 And as a valiant champion
who for to get a prise,

With ioy doth halte to take in hand,
some noble enterprise.

6 And all the skie from end to end, he compasseth about:

Nothing can hide it from his heate,
but he will find it out.

7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his covenant sure:

Conuerting soules, and making wise
the simple and obscure?

8 Iust are the Lords commandements,
and glad both heart and mind:

His precepts pure, and giue light to eyes that be full blind.

9 The feare of God is excellent,
and doth endure for euer:

The iudgements of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether.

10 And more to be embrac'd alway
then fined gold I say:

The hony and the hony combe,
are not so sweete as they.

11 By them thy seruant is forewarnd,
to haue God in regard:

And in performance of the same,
there shall be great reward.

12 But Lord what earthly man doth know
the errors of his life?

Then cleanse my soule from secret finnes
which are in me most rife.

13 And keepe me that presumptuous sins
preuaile not ouer me:

And so shall I be innocent,
and great offences flee.

14 Accept my mouth and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one:

For my redeemer and my strength,
O Lord thou art alone.

PSAL. XX. T. S.

IN trouble and aduersitie,
the Lord God heare thee still:
The maiestie of Iacobs God,

defend thee from all ill.

2 And send thee from his holy place,
his helpe at euery need:
And so in Sion stablish thee,
and make thee strong indeed.

3 Remembring well the sacrifice,
that now to him is done:

And so receiue right thankfully,
thy burnt offerings each one.

4 According to thy hearts desire,
the Lord grant vnto thee:

And all thy counsell and deuise,
full well performe may he.

5 We shall reioyce when thou vs sauest,
and our banners display

Vnto the Lord, which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.

6 The Lord will his annointed saue,
I know well by his grace:

And send him helpe by his right hand,
out of his holy place.

7 In chariots some put confidence,
and some in horses trust:

But we remember God our Lord,
that keepeth promise iust.

8 They fall downe flat, but we do rise,
and stand vp stedfastly:

9 Now saue and helpe vs Lord and King,
on thee when we do crie.

PSAL. XXI. T. S.

O Lord how ioyfull is the king,
in thy strength and thy power:
How vehemently doth he reioyce
in thee his Sauour!

2 For thou hast giuen vnto him,
his godly hearts desire:

To him nothing thou hast denide,
of that he did require.

3 Thou didst preuent him with thy gifts,
and blessings manifold:

And thou hast set vpon his head
a crowne of perfect gold.

4 And when he asked life of thee,
thereof thou mad'st him sure,

To haue long life, yea such a life
as euer should endure.

5 Great is his glorie by thy helpe,
thy benefit and aide:

Great worship and great honour both,
thou hast vpon him laid.

6 Thou wilt giue him felicitie,
that neuer shall decay:

And with thy chearefull countenance,
wilt comfort him alway.

7 For why, the King doth strongly trust
in God for to preuaile:

There-

Therefore his goodnesse and his grace,
will not that he shall quail.
3 But let thine enemies see thy force,
and those that thee withstand:
Find out thy foes, and let them see
the power of thy right hand.

9 And like an ouen burne them Lord,
in fierie flame and fume:
Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.
10 And thou shalt roote out of the earth,
their fruite that should increase:
And from the number of thy folke,
their seed shall end and cease.

21 For why, much mischief did they against thy holy Name: (muse Yet did they faile, and had no power
for to performe the same.
12 But as a mark thou shalt them set
in a most open place:
And charge thy bow strings readily,
against thine enemies face.

13 Be thou exalted Lord therefore,
in thy strength euery houre:
So shall we sing right solemnly,
praising thy might and power.

PSAL. XXII. T.S.

O Lord my God, wherefore dost thou forsake me utterly?
And helpest not when I do make
my great complaint and grie?
2 To thee my God, euen all day long,
I do both crie and call:
I cease not all the night, and yet
thou hearest not at all,

3 Euen thou that in thy sanctuary
and holy place dost dwell:
Thou art the comfort and the ioy,
and glory of Israel.

4 And he in whom our fathers old,
had all their hope for euer:
And when they put their trust in thee,
thou didst them aye deliuer.

5 They were deliuered euer when they called on thy Name:
And for the faith they had in thee,
they were not put to shame.

6 But I am now become a worme,
more like then any man:
An outcast, whom the people scorne,
with all the spite they can.

7 And me despise as they behold
me walking on the way:
They grin, they mow, they nod their
and in this wise they say. (heads, 8 This man did glory in the Lord,

his fauour and his leue
Let him redeeme and helpe him now,
his power if he will proue.

9 But Lord out of my mothers wombe
I came by thy request:
Thou didst preserve me still in hope,
while I did sucke her breast.
10 I was committed from my birth,
with thee to haue abode:
Since I was in my mothers wombe,
thou hast bene euer my God.

The second part.

11 Then Lord depart not now from
in this my present grie:
Since I haue none to be my helpe,
my succour and reliefe.

12 So many buls do compass me,
that be full strong of head:
Yea buls so far, as if they had
in Basan fields bene fed,

13 They gape vpon me greedily,
as though they would me slay:
Much like a Lion roaring out,
and ramping for his pray.

14 But I drop downe like water shed,
my ioynts in sunder break:
My heart doth in my body melt,
like waxe against the heate.

15 And like a portheard drierh my my tongue is cleaueth fast Vnto my iawes, and I am brought to dust of death at last.

16 And many dogs do compass me,
and wicked counsell eke
Conspire against me cursedly,
they pierce my hands and feete.

17 I was tormented so that I might all my bones haue told:
Yet still vpon me they do looke,
and still they me behold.

18 My garments they deuilled eke,
in parts among them all:
And for my coate they did cast lots,
to whom it might befall.

19 Therefore I pray thee be not farr
from me at my great need:
But rather sith thou art my strength,
to helpe me Lord make speed.

20 And fro the sword Lord save my soule
by thy might and thy power:
And keepe my soule thy darling deare,
from dogs that would deuoure.

21 And fro the Lions mouth, that would me all in sunder shuer:
And from the hornes of Vnicornes,
Lord safely me deliuer.

Then shall I to my brethren all,
thy Maiestie record:
in thy Church shall praise the Name
of thee the liuing Lord.

The third part.

All ye that feare him praise the Lord,
thou Iacob honour him:
all ye seede of Israel,
with reuerence worship him.
For he despiseth not the poore,
he turneth not awrie
countenance when they do call,
but granteth to their crye.

Among the flocke that feare the Lord
I will therefore proclame
thy praise, and keepe my promise made,
for setting forth thy Name.
The poore shall eate and be suffiside,
and those that do their deuer
know the Lord, shall praise his Name,
their hearts shall liue for euer.

(Lord,

All coasts of the earth shall praise the
and turne to him for grace:
the heathen folke shall worship him,
before his blessed face.
The kingdome of the heathen folke,
the Lord shall haue therefore:
and he shall be their gouernour,
and King for euermore.

The rich men of his goodly gifts,
shall feede and taste also:
and in his presence worship him,
and bow their knees full low.
And all that shall go downe to dust,
of life by him shall taste:
My seed shall serue and praise the Lord,
while any world shall last.

My seed shall plainly shew to them
that shall be borne hereafter,
his iustice and his righteousnesse,
and all his workes of wonder.

PSAL. XXIIII. W.W.

The Lord is onely my support,
and he that doth me feed:
How can I then lacke any thing,
whereof I stand in need?
He doth me fold in cotes most safe,
the tender grasse fast by:
And after driues me to the streames,
which runne most pleasantly.

And when I feele my selfe neare lost,
then doth he me home take:
Conducting me in his right path,
euen for his owne names sake.
And though I were euen at death,
yet would I feare none ill: I doore,

For with thy rod and shepheards crooke
I am comforted still.

5 Thou hast my table richly deckt,
in despite of my foe:
Thou hast my head with balme refreſhe,
my cup doth ouerflow.
6 And finally while breath doth last,
thy grace doth me defend:
And in the house of Gods will I
my life for euer spend.

Another of the same by I. H.

MY shepheard is the liuing Lord,
nothing therefore I need:
In pastures faire with waters calme,
he feedeth me forth to feed:
2 He did conuert and gladd my soule,
and brought my minde in frame,
To walke in paths of righteousness,
for his most holy Name.

3 Yea though I walke in vale of death,
yet will I feare none ill:
Thy rod, thy staffe doth comfort me,
and thou art with me still.
4 And in the presence of my foes,
my table thou shalt spread:
Thou shalt (O Lord) fill full my cup,
and eke annoint my head.

5 Through all my life thy fauour is so frankly shewed to me,
That in thy house for euermore,
my dwelling place shall be.

PSAL. XXIIII. I.H.

The earth is all the Lords, with all
her store and furniture:
Yea his is all the world, and all that therein doth endure.
2 For he hath fastly founded it,
aboue the sea to stand:
And laid alow the liquid floods,
to flow beneath the land.

3 For who is he O Lord that shall ascend into thy hill:
Or passe into thy holy place,
there to continue still? (heart 4 Whose hands are harmlesse, and whose
no spot there doth defile:
His soule not set on vanity,
who hath not sworne to guile.

5 Him that is such a one, the Lord shall place in blisfull plight:
And God his God and Saviour,
shall yeeld to him his right.
6 This is the broode of travellers,
in seeking of his grace:

As Iacob did the Israelite,
in that time of his race.

7 Ye Princes open your gates, stand open
the euerlasting gate:

For there shall enter in thereby,
the King of glorious state.

8 Who is the King of glorious state?
the strong and mighty Lord:
The mighty Lord in battell stout,
and triall of the sword.

9 Ye Pinces open your gates, stand open
the euerlasting gate:

For there shall enter in thereby,
the King of glorious state.

10 Who is the King of glorious state?
the Lord of hoasts he is:
The kingdome and the royaltie
of glorious state is his.

PSAL. XXV. T.S.

I Lift my heart to thee,
my God and guide most iust,
Now suffer me to take no shame,
for in thee do I trust.

2 Let not my foes reioyce,
nor make a scorne of me:
And let them not be ouerthrowne,
that put their trust in thee.

3 But shame shall them befall,
which harme them wrongfully:
Therefore thy paths and thy right waies,
vnto me Lord descrie.

4 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me, I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Saviour,
on thee I waite alway.

5 Thy mercies manifold,
I pray thee Lord remember:
And eke thy pitie plentiful,
for they haue bene for euer.

6 Remember not the faults,
and frailtie of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant
I haue bene of thy truth.

Nor after my deserts,
let me thy mercie finde:
But of thine owne benignitie,
Lord haue me in thy mind.

7 His mercie is full sweete,
his truth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will sinners teach,
and such as go aside.

8 The humble he will teach,
his precepts for to keepe:
He will direct in all his waies
the lowly and the meeke.

9 For all the waies of God,

are truth and mercie bothe
To them that keepe his Testament,
the witnesse of his troth.

The second part.

10 Now for thy holy Name,
O Lord I thee intreat,
To grant me pardon for my sinne,
for it is wondrous great.

11 Who so doth feare the Lord,
the Lord doth him direct,
To leade his life in such a way,
as he doth best accept.

12 His soule shall euermore
in goodnesse dwell and stand:
His seed and his posteritie,
inherit shall the land.

13 All those that feare the Lord,
know his secret intent:
And vnto them he doth declare his will and Testament.

14 Mine eyes and eke my heart,
to him I will aduance:
That pluckt my feete out of the snare
of sinne and ignorance.

15 With mercie me behold,
to thee I make my mone:
For I am poore and desolate,
and comfortlesse alone.

16 The troubles of my heart,
are multiplide indeed:
Bring me out of this miserie,
necessity and need.

17 Behold my pouerty,
mine anguish and my paine:
Remit my sinne and mine offence,
and make me cleane againe.

18 O Lord behold my foes,
how they do still increase:
Pursuing me with deadlie hate,
that faine would liue in peace.

19 Preferne and keepe my soule,
and eke deliuer me:
And let me not be ouerthrowne,
because I trust in thee.

20 Let my simple purenesse,
me from mine enemies shend:
Because I looke as one of thing,
that thou shouldst me defend.

21 Deliuer Lord thy folke,
and send them some reliefe:
I meane thy chosen Israel,
from all their paine and grieve.

PSAL. XXVI. I.H.

Lord be my iudge, and thou shalt see
my paths be right and plaine:

Truſt in God, and hope that he,
will ſtrength me to ſuſtaine.
Proue me my God, I thee deſire,
my wayes to ſearch and try:
As men do proue their gold with fire,
my reines and heart eſpie.

Thy goodneſſe laid before my face,
I durſt behold alwaies:
For of thy truth I tread the trace,
and will do all my dayes.
I do not luſt to haunte or viſe
with men whoſe deeds are vaine:
To come in houſe I do reſuſe,
with the deceitfull traine.

I much abhorre the wicked ſort,
their deeds I do deſpiſe:
I do not once to them reſort,
that wicked workes deuſe.
My hands I waſh, and do proceede
in wayes to walke vpright:
Then to thine altar I make ſpeed,
to offer there in ſight.

That I may ſpeake & preach thy praiſe,
that doth belong to thee:
And ſo declare how wondrous wayes,
thou haſt bene good to me.
O God, thy houſe I loue moſt deare,
to me it doth excell:
Thine delight, and would be neare,
whereas thy grace doth dwell.

O ſhut not vp my ſoule with them,
in ſinne that take their fill:
For yet my life among thoſe men,
that ſeek much bloud to ſpill, Whoſe hands are heapt with craft and their liues thereof are full: (guile,
and their right hand with wrench & wile
for bribes doth pluck and pull.

But I in righteousneſſe intend,
my time and dayes to ſerne:
Thine mercy Lord, and me defend,
ſo that I do not ſwerne.
My foote is ſtayd for all aſſayes,
it ſtandeth well and right:
Therefore to God I will giue praiſe,
in all the peoples ſight.

PSAL. XXVII. I. H.

The Lord is both my health and light,
ſhall man make me diſmaid?
Thou God doth giue me ſtrength & might,
why ſhould I be afraid? (ſtrength, While that my foes with all their
begin with me to brall:
And thinke to eate me vp, at length,
then ſelues haue caught the fall.

Though they in campe againſt me lie,

my heart is not afraid:
In battell fight if they will trie,
I truſt in God for aide.
4 One thing of God I do require,
that he will not deny:
For which I pray, and will deſire,
till he to me apply.

5 That I within his holy place,
my life throughout may dwell:
To ſee the beauty of his face,
and view his Temple well.
6 In time of dread he ſhall me hide,
within his place moſt pure:
And keepe me ſecret by his ſide,
as on a rocke moſt ſure.

7 At length I know the Lords good grace
ſhall make me ſtrong and ſtout,
My foes to foile and cleane detace,
that compaſſe me about.
8 Therefore within his houſe will I
giue ſacrifice of praiſe:
With Pſalmes and ſongs I will apply,
to laud the Lord alwaies.

The ſecond part.

9 Lord heare the voice of my requeſt,
for which to thee I call:
Haue mercie Lord on me oppreſt,
and ſend me helpe withall.
10 My heart doth knowledge vnto thee,
I ſue to haue thy grace:
Then ſeek my face, ſayſt thou to me,
Lord I will ſeek thy face.

11 In wrath turne not thy face away,
nor ſuffer me to ſlide:
Thou art my helpe ſtill to this day,
be ſtill my God and guide.
12 My parents both their ſonne forſooke,
and caſt me off at large:
And then the Lord himſelfe yet rooke
of me the cure and charge.

13 Teach me O Lord the way to thee,
and leade me on forth right:
For feare of ſuch as watch for me,
to trap me if they might.
14 Do not betake me to the will
of them that be my foes:
For they in wiſe againſt me ſtill,
faſe witneſſe to depoſe.

15 My heart would faint, but that in me
this hope is fixed faſt:
The Lord Gods good grace ſhall I ſee,
in life that aye ſhall laſt. (art, 16 Truſt ſtill in God, whoſe whole thou
his will abide thou muſt:
And he ſhall eaſe and ſtrength thy heart,
if thou in him do truſt.

PSAL. XXVIII. T.S.

THou art a Lord, my strength and stay,
the succour which I craue:
Neglect me not, lest I be like
to them that go to graue.

3 The voice of thy suppliant heare,
that vnto thee doth crie:

When I lift vp my hands vnto
thy holy Arke most hie.

3 Repute me not among the sort of wicked and peruert:

That speake right faire vnto their friends
but thinke full ill in heart.

4 According to their handie worke,
as they deserue indeed,

And after their inuentions,
let them receiue their meed.

5 For they regard nothing Gods works,
his law, ne yet his lore:

Therefore will he them and their seede,
destroy for euer more.

6 To render thanks vnto the Lord
how great a cause haue I:

My voice, my prayer, and my complaint,
that heard so willingly?

7 He is my shield and fortitude,
my buckler in distresse:

My hope, my health, my hearts reliefe,
my song shall him confesse.

8 He is our strength and our defence,
our enemies to resist:

The health and the saluation
of his elect by Christ.

9 Thy people and thine heritage,
Lord blesse, guide and preserue:

Increase them Lord, and rule their hearts,
that they may neuer swerue.

PSAL. XXIX. T.S.

Give to the Lord, ye potentates,
ye rulers of the world:

6 Give ye all praise, honour and strength,
vnto the liuing Lord.

2 Give glory to his holy Name,
and honour him alone:

Worship him in his maiesty,
within his holy throne.

3 His voice doth rule the waters all,
euen as himselfe doth please:

He doth prepare the thunderclaps,
and gouernes all the seas.

4 The voice of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent:

It is most mightie in effect,
and most magnificent.

5 The voice of God doth rend and breake
the Cedar trees so long:

The Cedar trees of Libanus,
which are most high and strong.

6 And makes them leape like as a calfe,
of else the vnicorne:

Not onely trees, but mountaines great,
whereon the trees are borne.

7 His voice deuides the flames of fire,
and shakes the wilderness:

8 It makes the desert quake for feare,
that called is Cades.

9 It makes the bindes for feare to calue,
and makes the couerts plaine:

Then in his Temple eury man,
his glorie doth proclaime.

10 The Lord was set above the flood,
ruling the raging sea:

So shall he reigne as Lord and King,
for euer and for aye.

11 The Lord will giue his people power,
in vertue to increase:

The Lord will blesse his chosen flocke,
with euerlasting peace.

PSAL. XXX. I.H.

All land and praise with heart & voice,
O Lord I giue to thee:

Which didst not make my foes reioyce,
but hast exalted me.

2 O Lord my God to thee I cride,
in all my paine and griefe:

Thou ganest an eare, and didst prouide,
to ease me with reliefe.

3 Of thy good will thou hast cald backe
my soule from hell to saue:

Thou didst reuiue whie strength did lacke,
and keptst me from the graue.

4 Sing praise ye Saints that proue and see
the goodnesse of the Lord:

In memorie of his Maiestie,
reioyce with one accord.

5 For why, his anger but a space
doth last, and slacke againe:

But in his fauour and his grace,
alwaies doth life remaine.

Though gripes of griefe & pangs full sore,
shall lodge with vs all night:

The Lord to ioy shall vs restore,
before the day be light.

6 When I enioyd the world at will,
thus would I boast and say:

Tush, I am sure to feele none ill,
this wealth shall not decay.

7 For thou O Lord of thy good grace,
hadst sent me strength and aide:

But when thou turndst away thy face,
my mind was sore dismayd.

8 Wherefore againe yet did I crie
to thee O Lord of might:

My God with plaints I did apply,
and praid both day and night:

9 What gaine is in my blond, said I,
if death destroy my dayes?

Doth dult declare thy Maiestie,
or yet thy truth doth praise?

10 Wherefore my God some pitietake,
O Lord I thee desire:

Do not this simple soule forsake,
of helpe I thee require. (wo,

11 Then didst thou turne my grieve and
into a chearefull voice:

The mourning weed thou tookst me fro,
and madst me to reioyce.

12 Wherefore my soule vncessantly
shall sing vnto thy praise:

My Lord my God, to thee will I
giue laud and praise alwaies.

PSAL. XXXI. I. H.

O Lord I put my trust in thee,
let nothing worke me shames

As thou art iust, deliuer me,
and set me quite from blame.

2 Heare me O Lord, and that anon,
to helpe me make good speed:

Be thou my rocke and house of stone,
my fence in time of need.

3 For why, as stones thy strength is tride,
thou art my fort and tower:

For thy Names sake be thou my guide,
and leade me in thy power.

4 Plucke thou my feete out of the snare,
which they for me haue laid:

Thou art my strength, and all my care
is for thy might and aid.

5 Into thy hands Lord I commit
my spirit which is thy due:

For why, thou hast redeemed it,
O Lord my God most true:

6 I hate such folke as will not part
from things to be abhord:

When they on trifles set their heart,
my trust is in the Lord.

7 For I will in thy mercie ioy,
I see it doth excell:

Thou seest when ought would me annoy,
and knowest my soule full well:

8 Thou hast not left me in their hand,
that would me overcharge:

But thou hast set me out of band,
to walke abroad at large.

The second part.

9 Great grieve, O Lord doth me assaile,
some pitie on me take:

Mine eyes waxe dim, my sight doth faile,
my wombe for woe doth ake.

10 My life is worne with grieve and pain,
my yeares in woe are past:

My strength is gone, and through disdaine
my bones corrupt and waite.

11 Among my foes I am a scorne,
my friends are all dismaide:

My neighbours and my kinsmen borne,
to see me are afraid.

12 As men once dead are out of mind,
so am I now forgot:

As small effect in me they find,
as in a broken pot.

13 I heard the brags of all the rout,
their threats my mind did fray:

How they conspir'd and went about
to take my life away.

14 But Lord I trust in thee for aid,
not to be ouertrod:

For I confesse, and still haue said,
thou art my Lord and God.

15 The length of all my life and age,
O Lord is in thy hand:

Defend me from the wrath and rage
of them that me withstand.

16 To me thy seruant (Lord) expresse,
and shew thy ioyfull face:

And saue me Lord for thy goodnesse,
thy mercie and thy grace.

The third part.

17 Lord let me not be put to blame,
for that on thee I call:

But let the wicked beare their shame,
and in the grane to fall.

18 O Lord make dunbe their lips out-
which are addist to lies: (right,

And cruelly with pride and spite,
against the iust deuise.

19 O how great good hast thou in store,
laid vp full safe for them:

That feare and trust in thee therefore,
before the sonnes of men.

20 Thy presence doth them fence & guide
from all prond brags and wrongs:

Within thy place thou doest them hide
from all the strife of tongues.

21 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd
to me his grace so farre,

Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a towne of warre.

22 Thus did I say both day and night,
when I was sore oppress:

Lo, I was cleane cast out of sight,
yet heardst thou my request.

23 Ye Saints loue ye the Lord, I say,
the faithfull he doth guide:

And to the prond he will repay
according to their pride.

24 Be strong, and God shall stay your be bold and haue a lust: (heart,
For sure the Lord will take your part,
sith ye on him do trust.

PSAL. XXXII. T.S.

THe man is blest whose wickednesse,
the Lord hath cleane remitted:
And he whose sinne and wretchednesse
is hid and also couered.

2 And blest is he to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sinne:
Which in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.

3 For whilst that I kept close my sinne
in silence and constraint,
My bones did weare and waste away,
with daily mone and plaint.

4 For night and day thy hand on me,
so grievous was and smart,
That all my bloud and humours moist,
to drinnesse did conuert.

5 I did therefore confesse my fault,
and all my sinnes discover:
Then thou O Lord didst me forgive,
and all my sinnes passe ouer.

6 The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seeke thee in due time:
So that the floods of waters great,
shall haue no power on him.

7 When trouble and aduersitie
do compass me about:

Thou art my refuge and my ioy,
and thou dost rid me out.

8 Come hither, and I shall thee teach,
how thou shalt walke aright:

And will thee guide as I my selfe
haue leard by prooffe and sight.

9 Be not so rude and ignorant,
as is the horse and mule:
Whose mouth without a raine or bit,
from harme thou canst not rule.

10 The wicked man shall manifold sorowes and grieve sustaine:
But vnto him that trusts in God,
his goodnesse shall remaine.

11 Be merrie therefore in the Lord,
ye iust lift vp your voices:
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
be glad and eke reioyce.

PSAL. XXXIII. I.H.

YE righteous in the Lord reioyce,
it is a seemely sight,
That vpright men with thankfull voice,
should praise the Lord of might.

2 Praise ye the Lord with harpe and song,

in Psalmes and pleasant things:
With lute and instruments among,
that foundeth with ten strings.

3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage giue him praise:

For why, his word is euer true,
his workes and all his waies.

4 To iudgement, equitie and right,
he hath a great good will:
And with his gifts he doth delight,
the earth throughout to fill.

5 For by the word of God alone,
the heauens all were wrought:
Their hoasts and powers euery one,
his breath to passe hath brought.

6 The waters great gathered hath he,
on heapes within the shore:
And hid them in the depth to be
as in an house of store.

7 All men on earth, both least and most,
feare God and keepe his law:

Ye that inhabite in each coast,
dread him and stand in awe.

8 What he commanded, wrought it was,
at once with present speed:

What he doth will, is brought to passe,
with full effect indeed.

9 The counsels of the nations rude,
the Lord doth bring to nought:
He doth defeat the multitude of their deuice and thought.

10 But his decrees continue still,
they neuer slacke nor swage:

11 The motions of his mind and will,
take place in euery age.

The second part,

12 And blest are they to whom the Lord
as God and guide is knowne:

Whom he doth chuse of meere accord,
to take them as his owne.

13 The Lord from heauen casts his sight,
on men mortall by birth:

Considering from his seate of night,
the dwellers of the earth.

14 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath (wrought
mans heart and doth it frame:
For he alone doth know the thought,
and working of the same.

15 A king that trusteth in his hoast,
shall not preuaile at length:
The man that of his might doth boast,
shall fall for all his strength.

16 The troups of horsemen eke shall faile
their sturdie steeds shall sterue:
The strength of horse shall not preuaile
the rider to preserue.

- 17 But lo the eyes of God intend,
and watch to aide the iust:
With such as feare him to offend,
and on his goodnesse trust.
- 18 That he of death and great distresse,
may set their soules from dreed:
And if that dearth their land oppresse,
in hunger them to feed.
- 19 Wherefore our soule doth still depend on God our strength and stay:
He is our shield, vs to defend,
and driue all darts away.
- 20 Our soule in God hath ioy and game,
reioycing in his might:
For why, in his most holy Name,
we hope and much delight.
- 21 Therefore let thy goodnesse O Lord,
still present with vs be:
As we alwaies with one accord,
do onely trust in thee.

PSAL. XXXIIII. T.S.

- I Will giue laud and honour both,
vnto the Lord alwaies:
And eke my mouth for euermore,
shall speake vnto his praise.
- 1 I do delight to laud the Lord,
in soule and eke in voice:
That humble men and mortifide,
may heare and so reioyce.
- 2 Therefore see that ye magnifie
with me the liuing Lord:
And let vs now exalt his Name
together with one accord.
- 3 For I my selfe besought the Lord,
he answered me againe:
And me deliuered incontinent,
from all my feare and paine.
- 4 Who so they be that him behold,
shall see his light most cleare:
Their countenance shall not be darht,
they need it not to feare.
- 5 This silly wretch for some reliefe,
vnto the Lord did call:
Who did him heare without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.
- 6 The Angell of the Lord doth pitch
his tents in euery place,
To saue all such as feare the Lord,
that nothing them deface.
- 7 Taste and consider well therefore,
that God is good and iust:
O happie man that maketh him
his onely stay and trust.
- 8 Feare ye the Lord ye holy ones,
aboue all earthly thing:
For they that feare the liuing Lord,

- are sure to lacke nothing.
- 10 The Lions shall be hungerbit,
and pin'd with famine much:
But as for such as feare the Lord,
no lacke shall be to such.

The second part.

- (deare,
11 Come neare therefore my children
and to my words giue care:
I shall you teach the perfect way,
how ye the Lord should feare.
- 12 Who is the man that would liue long,
and leade a blessed life?
- 13 See thou refraine thy tongue and lips,
from all deceit and strife.
- 14 Turne backe thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed:
Enquire for peace and quietnesse,
and follow it with speed.
- 15 For why, the eyes of God aboue,
vpon the iust are bent:
His eares likewise do heare the plaint,
of the poore innocent.
- (browes,
16 But he doth frowne and bend the
vpon the wicked traine:
And cuts away the memorie
that should of them remaine.
- 17 But when the iust do call and crie,
the Lord doth heare them so,
That out of paine and miserie,
forthwith he lets them go.
- 18 The Lord is kind and straight at hand,
to such as be contrite:
He saues also the sorrowfull,
the poore and meeke in sprite.
- 19 Full many be the miseries
that righteous men do suffer:
But out of all aduersities,
the Lord doth them deliuer.
- 20 The Lord doth so preserue and keepe
his very bones alway,
That not so much as one of them
doth perish or decay.
- 21 The sinne shall slay the wicked man,
which he himselfe hath wrought:
And such as hate the righteous man,
shall soone be brought to nought.
- 22 But they that feare the liuing Lord,
the Lord doth saue them sound:
And who that put their trust in him,
nothing shall them confound.

PSAL. XXXV. I.H.

- L Ord pleade my cause against my foes,
confound their force and might:
Fight on my part against all those
that seeke with me to fight.

- 2 Lay hold vpon the speare and shield,
thy selfe in armour dresse:
Stand vp for me and fight the field,
to helpe me from distresse.
- 3 Gird on thy sword and stop the way,
mine enemies to withstand:
That thou vnto my soule maist say,
lo I thy helpe at hand.
- 4 Confound them with rebuke and blame
that seeke my soule to spill:
Let them turne backe and flie with shame
that seeke to worke me ill.
- 5 Let them disperse and flie abroad,
as wind doth drive the dust:
And that the Angell of our God,
their might away may thrust.
- 6 Let all their wayes be void of light,
and slipperie like to fall:
And send thine Angell with thy might,
to persecute them all.
- 7 For why, without my fault they haue
in secret set their grin:
And for no cause haue digd a caue,
to take my soule therein.
- 8 When they least thinke and haue no
O Lord destroy them all: (care,
Let them be trapt in their owne snare,
and in their mischiefe fall.
- 9 And let my soule, my heart and voice,
in God haue ioy and wealth:
That in the Lord I may reioyce,
and in his sauing health.
- 10 And then my bones shall speake and my parts shall all agree: (say,
O Lord, though they do seeme full gay,
what man is like to thee?

The second part.

- 11 Thou doest defend the weake from (them
that are both stout and strong:
And rid the poore from wicked men,
that spoile and do them wrong.
- 12 My cruell foes against me rise,
to witnesse things vntreue:
And to accuse me they deuise,
of that I neuer knew.
- 13 Where I to them did owe goodwill,
they quit me with disdain:
That they should pay my good with ill,
my soule doth sore complaine.
- 14 When they were sicke, I mournd ther-
and clad my selfe in sacke: (fore,
With fasting I did faint full sore,
to pray I was not slacke.
- 15 As they had bene my brethren deare,
I did my selfe behaue:
As one that maketh wofull cheare,

about his mothers graue.
16 But they at my disease did ioy,
and gather oz a rout:
Yea abiect slaues at me did toy,
with mockes and checks full stout.

- 17 The belly-gods and flattering traine,
that all good things deride,
At me do grin with great distaine,
and plucke their mouthes aside.
- 18 Lord whe wilt thou amend this geare,
why doest thou stand and pause?
O rid my soule, my onely deare,
out of these Lions clawes.
- 19 And then will I giue thanks to thee,
before thy Church alwaies:
And where as most of people be,
there will I shew thy praise.
- 20 Let not my foes preuaile on me,
which hate me for no fault:
Nor yet to winke or turne their eye,
that causlesse me assault.

The third part.

- 21 Of peace no word they thinke or say,
their talke is all vntrue:
They still consent, and would betray
all those that peace ensue.
- 22 With open mouth they runne at me,
they gape, they laugh, they fleere:
Well, well, say they, our eye doth see the thing that we desire. (take,
- 23 But Lord thou seest what wayes they
ceasse not this geare to mend:
Be not farre off, nor me forsake,
as men that faile their friend.
- 24 Awake, arise, and stirre abroad,
defend me in my right:
Reuenge my cause O Lord my God,
and aide me with thy might.
- 25 According to thy righteousnesse,
my Lord God set me free:
And let them not their pride expresse,
nor triumph ouer me.
- 26 Let not their hearts reioyce and crie,
there, there, this geare goes trim:
Nor giue them cause to say on hie,
we haue our will on him.
- 27 Confound them with rebuke & shame
that ioy when I do mourne:
And pay them home with spite and blame
that brag at me with scorne.
- 28 Let them be glad and eke reioyce,
which lone mine vpright way:
And they all times with heart and voice,
shall praise the Lord, and say:
- 29 Great is the Lord, and doth excell,
for why, he doth delight,

To see his seruants prosper well,
that is his pleasant sight.
30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply,
thy righteousness to praise:
Vnto the Lord my God will I
sing laud and praise alwaies,

PSAL. XXXVI. I.H.

THe wicked with his workes vniust
doth thus perswade his heart,
That of the Lord he hath no trust,
his feare is set apart.

2 Yet doth he ioy in his estate,
to walke as he began,
So long till he deserue the hate
of God, and eke of man.

3 His words are wicked, vile, and naught,
his tongue no truth can tell:
Yea at no hand will he be taught
which way he may do well.

4 When he should sleepe, then doth he his mischief to fulfill: (vnuse,
No wicked waies doth he refuse,
nor nothing that is ill.

5 But Lord thy goodnesse doth ascend
aboue the heauens hie:
So doth thy truth it selfe extend vnto the cloudie skie.

6 Much more then hills so high and steepe,
thy iustice is exprest:
Thy iudgements like to seas most deepe,
thou fauest both man and beast.

7 Thy mercy is aboue all things,
O God it doth excell:
In trust whereof as in thy wings,
the sonnes of men shall dwell.

8 Within thy house they shall be fed with plentie at their will:
Of all delights they shall be sped,
and take thereof their fill.

9 For why, the well of life so pure,
doth euer flow from thee:
And in thy light we are full sure,
the lasting light to see.

10 From such as thee desire to know,
let not thy grace depart:
Thy righteousness declare and shew
to men of ypright heart.

11 Let not the proud on me preuaile,
O Lord of thy good grace:
Nor let the wicked me assaile,
to throw me out of place.

12 But they in their deuce shall fall,
that wicked workes maintaine:
They shall be overthrowne withall,
and neuer rise againe.

PSAL. XXXVII. W.W.

GRudge not to see the wicked men,
in wealth to flourish still:
Nor yet enuie such as to ill
haue bent and set their will.

2 For as greene grasse and flourishing
are cut and wither away: (herbes,
So shall their great prosperitie,
soone passe, fade and decay.

3 Trust thou therefore in God alone,
to do well giue thy mind:

So shalt thou haue the land as thine,
and there sure food shalt find.

4 In God set all thy hearts delight,
and looke what thou wouldst haue,
Or else canst wish in all the world,
thou needst it not to craue.

5 Cast both thy selfe and thine affaires,
on God with perfect trust:
And thou shalt see with patience,
the effect both sure and iust.

6 Thy perfect life and godly name,
he will cleare as the light:
So that the Sunne euen at noone dayes,
shall not shine halfe so bright.

7 Be still therefore, and stedfastly
on God see thou wait then:
Not shrinking for the prosperous state
of leud and wicked men.

8 Shake off despite, enuie and hate,
at least in any wise:
Their wicked steps auoide and flie,
and follow not their guise.

9 For euery wicked man will God
destroy both more and lesse:
But such as trust in him, are sure
the land for to possesse.

10 Watch but a while, and thou shalt see
no more the wicked traine,
No not so much as house or place
where once he did remaine.

The second part.

11 But mercifull and humble men,
enjoy shall sea and land:

In rest and peace they shall reioyce,
for nought shall them withstand,

12 The leud men and malicious,
against the iust conspire:

They gnash their teeth at him, as men
which do his bane desire.

13 But while that leud men thus do thinke
the Lord laughs them to scorne:
For why, he seeth their terme approch,
when they shall sigh and mourne.

14 The wicked haue their swords out drawne,

their bow eke haue they bent,
To ouerthrow and kill the poore,
as they the right way went.

(hearts

25 But the same sword shall pierce their
which was to kill the iust:
Likewise the bow shall breake to shivers,
wherein they put their trust.
26 Doubtlesse the iust mans poore estate,
is better a great deale more,
Then all these great and worldly mens
rich pompe and heaped store.

27 For be their power neuer so strong,
God will it ouerthrow:
When contrary he doth preserue
the humble men and low.
28 He sees by his great prouidence,
the good mens trade and way:
And will giue them inheritance,
which neuer shall decay.

29 They shall not be discouraged,
when some are heard belthead:
When others shall be hungerbit,
they shall be clad and fed.
30 For whosoever wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord:
Shall quaike, yea melt euen as lambs grease
or smoake that flies abroad.

The third part.

31 Behold the wicked borrowes much,
and neuer payes againe:
Whereas the iust by liberrall gifts,
makes many glad and faine.
32 For they whom God doth blesse, shall
the land for heritage: (haue
And they whom he doth curse, likewise shall perish in his rage.

(guide,

23 The Lord the iust mans waies doth
and giues him good successe:
To euery thing he takes in hand,
he sendeth good adresse.
24 Though that he fall, yet is he sure
not viterly to quaike:
Because the Lord stretcheth out his hand
at need, and doth not faile.

25 I haue bene yong, and now am old,
yet did I neuer see
The iust man left, nor yet his seed
to beg for miserie.
26 But giues alwaies most liberrally,
and lends whereas is need:
His children and posteritie
receiue of God their meed.

27 Flie vice therefore and wickednesse,
and vertue do embrace:
So God shall grant thee long to haue
in earth a dwelling place.

28 For God so loneth equitie,
and shewes to his such grace:
That he preferueth them alway,
but stroyes the wicked race.

29 Whereas the good and godly men,
inherit shall the land:

Hauiing as Lords all things therein,
in their owne power and hand.

30 The iust mans mouth doth euer speake
of matters wise and hie:
His tongue doth talke to edifie,
with truth and equitie.

31 For in his heart the law of God
his Lord doth still abide:
So that where euer he goes or walkes,
his foote can neuer slide.

32 The wicked like a rauening wolfe,
the iust man doth beset:

By all meanes seeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth part.

33 Though he should fall into his hands,
yet God would succour send:

Though men against him sentence gine,
God would him yet defend.

34 Waite thou on God, & keepe his way,
he shall preserue thee then,
The earth to rule, and thou shalt see
destroid these wicked men.

35 The wicked haue I seene most strong,
and placed in high degree:

Flourishing in all wealth and store,
as doth the Lawrell tree:

36 But suddenly he past away,
and lo he was quite gone:

Then I him sought, but could not find
the place where dwelt such one.

37 Marke and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increase:

For the iust man shall haue at length,
great ioy with rest and peace.

38 As for transgressors, woe to them,
destroid they shall all be:

God will cut off their budding race,
and rich posteritie.

39 But the saluation of the iust,
doth come from God aboue:

Who in their trouble sends them aide,
of his meere grace and loue.

40 God doth them helpe, saue and deliuer
from leud men and vniust:

And still will saue them, whilst that they
in him do put their trust.

PSAL. XXXVIII. I.H.

PVt me not to rebuke O Lord,
in thy prouoked ire:

Ne in thy heauie wrath O Lord,
correct, me I desire.

2 Thine arrowes do sticke fast in me,
thy hand doth presse me fore:
And in my flesh no health at all,
appeareth any more.

3 And all this is by reason of thy wrath that I am in:
Nor any rest is in my bones,
by reason of my sinne.

4 For lo, my wicked doings Lord,
about my head are gone:
A greater load then I can beare,
they lie me fore vpon.

5 My wounds stinke and are festred so,
as loathsome is to see:
Which all through mine own foolishnesse
betideth vnto me.

6 And I in carefull wise am brought
in trouble and distresse:
That I go wailing all the day
in dolefull heauinesse.

7 My loines are filld with sore disease,
my flesh hath no whole part:

8 I feeble am and broken sore,
I roare for grieue of heart. (groanes

9 Thou know'st Lord my desire, my are open in thy sight: (faile,

10 My heart doth pant, my strength doth
mine eyes haue lost their sight.

11 My louers and my wonted friends,
stand looking on my wo;
And eke my kinsmen farre away,
are me departed fro.

12 They that did seeke my life, laid snares
and they that fought the way To do me hurt, spake lies, and thought on mischief all the day.

The second part.

13 But as a deafe man I became,
that cannot heare at all:

14 And as one dumbe that opens not his mouth to speake withall.

15 For all my confidence O Lord,
is wholly set on thee:
O Lord, thou Lord that art my God,
thou wilt giue care to me.

16 This did I craue, that they my foes
triumph not ouer me:

For when my foote did slip, then they did ioy my fall to see.

17 And truly I poore wretch am set
in place a wefull wight:
And eke my grievous heauinesse,
is euer in my sight.

18 For while that I my wickednesse
in humble wise confesse.

And while I for my sinfull deeds,
my sorrowes do expresse:

19 My foes do still remaine aliue,
and mightie are also:
And they that hate me wrongfully,
in number hugely grow.

20 They stand against me, that my good
with euill do repay:
Because that good and honest things,
I do ensue alway.

21 For sake me not my Lord my God,
be thou not farre away:

22 Hastie me to helpe, my Lord my God,
my safetie and my stay.

PSAL. XXXIX. LH.

I Said I will looke to my waies,
for feare I should go wrong:
I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.

2 As with a bit I will keepe fast,
my mouth with force and might,
Not once to whisper all the while,
the wicked are in sight.

3 I held my tongue, and spake no word,
but kept me close and still:

Yea from good talke I did refraine,
but sore against my will.

4 My heart waxt hote within my brest,
with musing, thought and doubt:
Which did increase and stirre the fire,
at last these words burit out:

5 Lord number out my life and dayes,
which yet I haue not past:

So that I may be certified,
how long my life shall last.

6 Lord thou hast pointed out my life,
in length much like a span:
Mine age is nothing vnto thee,
so yaine is euery man.

7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth
in vaine himselfe annoy,
In getting goods, and cannot tell
who shall the same enioy.

8 Now Lord sith things this wise do what helpe do I desire? (frame,
Of truth my helpe doth hang on thee,
I nothing else require.

The second part.

9 From all the sinnes that I haue done,
Lord quit me out of hand:

And make me not a scorne to fooles
that nothing vnderstand.

10 I was as dumbe, and to complaine,
no trouble might me more:
Because I knew it was thy worke,
my patience for to proue.

- 11 Lord take from me thy scourge and I can them not withstand: (plague,
I faint and pine away for feare
of thy most heauie hand.
12 When thou for sin doest man rebuke,
he waxeth wo and wan:
As doth a clot that moths haue fret,
so vaine a thing is man.

- 13 Lord heare my suit, & giue good heed,
regard my teares that fall:
I sojourne like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.
14 O spare a little, giue me space,
my strength for to restore:
Before I go away from hence,
and shall be seene no more.

PSAL. XL. I.H.

I Waited long and sought the Lord,
and patiently did beare:
At length to me he did accord,
my voice and cry to heare.
2 He pluckt me from the lake so deepe,
out of the mire and clay:
And on a rocke he set my fete,
and he did guide my way.

3 To me he taught a Psalme of praise,
which I must shew abroad:
And sing new songs of thanks alwaies,
vnto the Lord our God.
4 When all the folke these things shal see,
as people much afraid:
Then they vnto the Lord will flee,
and trust vpon his aide.

5 O blest is he, whose hope and heart
doth in the Lord remaine:
That with the proud doth take no part,
nor such as lie and faine.
6 For Lord my God, thy wondrous deeds
in greatnesse farre do passe:
Thy fauour towards vs exceeds all things that euer was.

7 When I intend and do deuise,
thy workes abroad to show:
To such a reckning they do rise,
thereof no end I know.
8 Burnt offerings thou delightst not in,
I know thy whole desire:
With sacrifice to purge his sinne,
thou doest no man require.

9 Meate offerings and sacrifice,
thou wouldest not haue at all:
But thou (O Lord) hast open made mine eares to heare withall.
10 But then said I, behold and looke,
I come a meane to be:
For in the volume of thy booke,
thus is it said of me:

11 That I (O Lord) should do thy mind,
which thing doth like me well:
For in my heart thy law I find,
fast placed there to dwell.
12 Thy iustice and thy righteousnesse,
in great resorts I tell:
Behold my tongue no time doth cease,
O Lord thou knowest full well.

The second part.

13 I haue not hid within my brest,
thy goodnesse as by stealth:
But I declare and haue exprest
thy truth and sauing health.
14 I kept not close thy louing mind,
that no man should it know:
The trust that in thy truth I find,
to all the Church I show.

15 Thy tender mercie (Lord) from me,
withdraw thou not away:
But let thy loue and veritie
preferue me still for aye.
16 For I with mischieses many one,
am sore beset about:
My sinnes increase, and so come on,
I cannot spie them out.

17 For why, in number they exceed
the haies vpon my head:
My heart doth faint for very dread,
that I am almost dead.
18 With speed send help, and set me free,
O Lord, I thee require:
Make haste with aide to succour me,
O Lord at my desire.

19 Let them sustaine rebuke and shame,
that seek me my soule to spill:
Drive backe my foes, and them defame,
that wish and would me ill.
20 For their ill seates do them deserie,
that would deface my name:
Alwaies at me they raile and crie,
sie on him, sie for shame.

21 Let them in thee haue ioy and wealth,
that seek to thee alwaies:
That such as lone thy sauing health,
may say, to God be praise.
22 But as for me, I am but poore,
opprest and brought full low:
Yet thou O Lord, wilt me restore to health, full well I know.

PSAL. XLI. T.S.

THe man is blest that carefull is
the needie to consider:
For in the season perillous,
the Lord will him deliuer.
2 The Lord wil make him safe and sound,
and happie in the land:

And he will not deliuer him
into his eneaues hand.

3 And in his bed when he lies sicke,
the Lord will him restore:
And thou, O Lord, wilt turne to health,
his sicknesse and his fore.

4 Then in my sicknesse thus say I,
haue mercie Lord on me:
And heale my soule which is full wo,
that I offended thee.

5 Mine enemies wisht me ill in heart,
and thus of me did say:
When shall he die, that all his name
may vanish quite away?

6 And when they come to visite me,
they aske if I do well:
But in their hearts mischiese they hatch,
and to their mates it tell.

7 They bite their lips and whisper so,
as though they would me charme:
And cast their fetches how to trap
me with some mortall harme.

8 Some grieuous sin hath brought him to this sicknesse, say they plaine:
He is so low, that without doubt
rise can he not againe.

9 The man also that I did trust,
with me did vse deceit:
Who at my table eat my bread,
the same for me laid wait.

10 Haue mercie Lord on me therefore,
and let me be preserued:
That I may render vnto them
the things they haue deserued.

11 By this I know assuredly
to be beloued of thee:
When that mine enemies haue no cause,
to triumph ouer me.

12 But in my right thou hast me kept,
and maintained alway:
And in thy presence place assign'd,
where I shall dwell for aye.

13 The Lord the God of Israel,
be praised euermore:
Euen so be it Lord, will I say,
euen so be it therefore.

PSAL. XLII. I.H.

Like as the Hart doth breathe and bray
the wel-springs to obtaine:
So doth my soule desire alway,
with thee Lord to remaine.

2 My soule doth thirst, and would draw
the lining God of might: (neare
Oh when shall I come and appeare
in presence of his sight!

3 The teares all times are my repast,
which from mine eies do slide:
When wicked men crie out so fast,
where now is God thy guide?
4 Alas what grieve is it to thinke,
what freedome once I had?
Therefore my soule as at pits brinke,
most heauie is and sad.

When I did march in good array,
furnished with my traine:
Vnto the Temple was our way,
with songs and hearts most faine.
5 My soule, why art thou sad alwaies,
and fretst thus in my brest?
Trust still in God, for him to praise,
I hold it euer best.

By him I haue succour at need,
against all paine and grieve:
He is my God, which with all speed,
will haste to send reliefe.
6 And thus my soule within me, Lord,
doth faint to thinke vpon
The land of Iordan, and record
the little hill Hermon.

7 One grieve another in doth call,
as clouds burst out their voice:
The fouds of euill that do fall,
runne ouer me with noise.
8 Yet I by day felt thy goodnesse,
and helpe at all assaies:
Likewise by night I did not cease,
the liuing God to praise.

9 I am perswaded thus to say,
to him with pure pretence,
O Lord thou art my guide and stay,
my rocke and sure defence.
Why do I then in pensiuenesse,
hanging the head thus walke:
While that mine enemies me oppresse,
and vex me with their talke?

10 For why, they pierce my inward parts
with pangs to be abhord:
Whē they crie out with stubburne hearts,
where is thy God thy Lord?
11 So soone why dost thou faint & quaille
my soule with paine opprest?
With thoughts why dost thy selfe assaile
so sore within my brest?

12 Trust in the Lord thy God alwaies,
and thou the time shalt see,
To giue him thanks with laud and praise,
for health restor'd to thee.

PSAL. XLIII. T.S.

Iudge and reuenge my cause O Lord,
from them that euill be:
From wicked and deceitfull men,

O Lord deliuer me.

2 For of my strength thou art the God,
why putst thou me thee fro?
And why walke I so heauily,
oppressed with my fo?

3 Send out thy light and eke thy truth,
and leade me with thy grace:
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling place.
4 Then shall I to the altar go,
of God my ioy and cheare:
And on my harpe giue thanks to thee,
O God my God most deare.

5 Why art thou then so sad my soule,
and frettst thus in my brest?
Still trust in God: for him to praise,
I hold it alwaies best.
6 By him I haue deliuerance,
against all paine and grieue:
He is my God, which doth alwaies
at need send me reliefe.

PSAL. XLIIII. T.S.

O Vreares haue heard our fathers tell,
and reuerently record,
The wondrous works thar thou hast done
in alder time O Lord.

2 How thou didst cast the Gentiles out,
and stroidst them with strong hands:
Planting our fathers in their place,
and gauest to them their land.

3 They conquered not by sword nor
the land of thy behest: (strength,
But by thy hand, thine arme and grace,
because thou lou'dst them best.

4 Thou art my King, O God, that holpe
Jacob in sundry wise:

5 I led with thy power, we threw downe
as did against vs rise. (such

6 I trusted not in bow nor sword,
they could not saue me sound:

7 Thou keptst vs from our enemies rage,
thou didst our foes confound.

8 And still we boast of thee our God,
and praise thy holy Name:

9 Yet now thou goest not with our hoast,
but leauest vs to shame.

10 Thou mad'st vs flie before our foes,
and so were ouertrod:
Our enemies spoild and robd our goods,
when we were sparst abroad.

11 Thou hast vs giuen to our foes,
as thee; e for to be slaine:
Amongst the heathen enemy where scattered we do remaine.

12 Thy people thou hast sold like slaves,
and as a thing of nought:

For profite none thou hadst thereby,
no gaine at all was fought.

13 And to our neighbors thou hast made
of vs a laughing stocke:
And those that round about vs dwell,
at vs do grin and mocke.

The second part.

14 Thus we serue for none other vse,
but for a common talke:
They mocke, they scorne, they nod their where ere they go or walke. (heads,

15 I am asham'd continually
to heare these wicked men:
Yea so I blush, that all my face
with red is couered then.

(words,

16 For why, we heare such slanderous
such false reports and lies:
That death it is to see their wrongs,
their threatnings and their cries.

17 For all this we forgot not thee,
nor yet thy couenant brake:

18 We turne not backe our hearts from nor yet thy paths forsake. (thee,

19 Yet thou hast trod vs downe to dust,
wher dens of Dragons be:
And couered vs with shade of death,
and great aduersitie.

20 If we had our Gods Name forgot,
and helpe of Idols sought: (out?

21 Would not God then haue tride this for he doth know our thought.

22 Nay, nay, for thy Namesake O Lord, alwaies are we slaine thus:
As sheepe vnto the shambles sent,
right so they deale with vs.

23 Vp Lord, why sleepest thou? awake,
and leaue vs not for all:

24 Why hidest thou thy countenance,
and dost forget our thrall?

(brought,

25 For downe to dust our soule is
and we now at last cast:
Our bellie like as it were glude,
vnto the ground cleanes fast.

26 Rise vp therefore for our defence,
and helpe vs Lord at need:
We thee beseech for thy goodnesse,
to rescue vs with speed.

PSAL. XLV. I. H.

MY heart doth take in hand,
some godly song to sing:
The praise that I shall shew therein,
pertaineth to the King.

2 My tongue shall be as quicke,
his honour to indite,

As is the pen of any scribe,
that vsesh fast to write.

3 O fairest of all men,
thy speech is pleasant pure:
For God hath blessed thee with gifts,
for euer to endure.
4 About thee gird thy sword,
O Prince of might elect:
With honour, glorie and renowne,
thy person pure is deckt.

5 Go forth with godly speed,
with meeknesse, truth and right:
And thy right hand shall thee instruct in workes of dreadfull might.
6 Thine arrowes sharpe and keene,
their heart so fore shall sting:
That folke shall fall and kneele to thee,
yea all thy foes O King.

7 Thy royall seate, O Lord,
for euer shall remaine:
Because the Scepter of thy Realme,
doth righteousnesse maintaine.
8 Because thou louest the right,
and doest the ill detest:
God euen thy God hath noynted thee
with ioy above the rest.

9 With Myrrhe and saouours sweete,
thy clothes are all bespread:
When thou doest from thy pallace passe,
therein to make thee glad.
10 Kings daughters do attend
in fine and rich array:
At thy right hand the Queene doth stand
in gold and garments gay.

The second part.

11 O daughter take good heed,
encline and giue good care:
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
thy fathers house most deare.
12 Then shall the King desire
thy beantie faire and trim:
For why, he is the Lord thy God,
and thou must worship him.

13 The daughters then of Tyre,
with gifts full rich to see:
And all the wealthy of the land,
shall make their suite to thee.
14 The daughter of the King,
is glorious to behold:
Within her closet she doth sit,
all deckt with beaten gold.

15 In robes well wrought with needle,
and many a pleasant thing:
With virgins faire on her to waite,
she cometh to the King.
16 Thus are they brought with ioy,
and mirth on every side,
Into the pallace of the King,
and there they do abide.

17 In stead of parents left,
O Queene, the chance so stands,
Thou shalt haue sonnes, whom thou maist
as Princes in all lands. (let,
18 Wherefore thy holy Name,
all ages shall record:
The people shall giue thanks to thee,
for euermore O Lord.

PSAL. XLVI. I. H.

THe Lord is our defence and aid,
the strength whereby we stand:
When we with woe are much dismayd,
he is our helpe at hand. (fear,
2 Though th'earth remoue, we will not though hills so high and steepe,
Be thrust and hurled here and there,
within the sea so deepe.

3 No though the waues do rage so fore,
that all the banks it spils:
And though it ouerflow the shore,
and beate downe mightie hills.
4 Yet one faire flood doth send abroad
his pleasant streames apace,
To fresh the Citie of our God,
and wash his holy place.

5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
she can no whit decay:
All things against her that rebell,
the Lord will truly slay.
6 The heathen folke, the kingdoms feare,
the people make a noise:
The earth doth melt and not appeare
when God puts forth his voice.

7 The Lord of hostes doth take our part,
to vs he hath an eye:
Our hope of health with all our heart,
on Jacobs God doth lie. (thought, 8 Come heare and see, with mind and the working of our God:
What wonders he himselfe hath wrought
in all the world abroad.

9 By him all warres are hushd and gone,
which countries did conspire:
Their bowes he brake, & speares each one
their chariots burnt with fire.
10 Leau off therefore, saith he, and know
I am a God most stout:
Among the heathen high and low,
and all the earth throughout.

11 The Lord of hostes doth vs defend,
he is our strength and tower:
On Jacobs God we do depend,
and on his mightie power.

PSAL. XLVII. I. H.

Ye people all with one accord
clap hands and eke reioyce:

Be glad and sing vnto the Lord,
with sweete and pleasant voice.
2 For high the Lord and dreadfull is,
with wonders manifold:
A mightie King he is truly,
in all the earth extold.

3 The people he shall make to be
vnto our bondage thrall:
And vnderneath our feete he shall
the nations make to fall.
4 For vs the heritage he chose,
which we possesse alone:
The flourishing worship of Iacob,
his welbeloued one.

5 Our God ascended vp on hie,
with ioy and pleasant noise:
The Lord goes vp about the skie,
with trumpets royall voice.
6 Sing praises to our God, sing praise,
sing praises to our King:
7 For God is King of all the earth,
all skilfull praises sing.

8 God on the heathen reignes, and sits
vpon his holy throne:
The Princes of the people haue
them ioyned euery one 9 To Abrahams people: for our God
which is exalted he,
10 with a buckler doth defend the earth continually.

PSAL. XLVIII. I. H.

Great is the Lord, & with great praise
to be aduanced still:
Within the citie of our God
vpon his holy hill.
2 Mount Sion is a pleasant place,
it gladdeth all the land:
The citie of the mightie King,
on her North side doth stand.

3 Within the pallaces thereof,
God is a refuge knowne:
For lo, the kings are gathered, and
together they are gone.
4 But when they did behold it so,
they wondred, and they were Astonied much, and suddenly
were drinen backe with feare.
5 Great terror there on them did fall,
for very grieve they crie:
As doth a woman when she shall go trauell by and by.
6 As thou with Easterne wind the ships
vpon the sea doest breake,
So were they stroid. And euen as we heard our fathers speake:
7 So in the citie of the Lord,

we saw as it was told:
Yea in the citie which our God,
for euer will vphold.
8 O Lord we waite and do attend
on thy good helpe and grace:
For which we do all times attend
within thy holy place.
9 O Lord according to thy Name,
for euer is thy praise:
And thy right hand O Lord is full of righteousnesse alwaies.
10 Let for thy iudgements Sion mount fulfilled be with ioyes:
And eke of Iuda, grant O Lord,
the daughters to reioyce.
11 Go walke about all Sion hill,
yea round about her go:
And tell the towers that thereupon
are builded on a row.
12 And marke ye well her bulwarkes all,
behold her towers there:
That ye may tell thereof to them
that after shall be here.
13 For this God is our God, our God
for euermore is he:
Yea and vnto the death also,
our guider shall he be.

PSAL. XLIX. I. H.

ALL people hearken and giue care
to that that I shall tell:
2 Both high and low, both rich & poore,
that in the world do dwell.
3 For why, my mouth shall make discourse
of many things right wise:
In vnderstanding shall my heart
his studie exercise.
4 I will incline mine eare to know
the parables so darke.
And open all my doubtfull speech,
in meeter on my Harpe.
5 Why should I feare afflictions,
or any carefull toile:
Or else my foes which at my heeles
are prest my life to spoile?
6 For as for such as riches haue,
wherein their trust is most:
And they which of their treasure great,
themselves do brag and boast:
7 There is not one of them that can
his brothers death redeeme:
Or that can giue a price to God,
sufficient for him.
8 It is too great a price to pay,
none can thereto attaine:
Or that he might his life prolong,
and not in graue remaine.

9 They see wise men as well as fooles,
subiect vnto deaths bands:
And being dead, strangers possesse
their goods, their rents, their lands.

10 Their care is to build houses faire,
and so determine sure,
To make their name right great on earth,
for euer to endure.

11 Yet shall no man alwayes enioy
high honour, wealth and rest:

12 But shall at last taste of deaths cup,
as well as the brute beast.

The second part.

13 And though they trie their foolish thoughts
to be most leud and vaine:
Their children yet approve their talke,
and in like sinne remaine.

14 As sheepe vnto the fold are brought,
so shall they into graue:
Death shall then eate, and in that day
the iust shall Lordship haue.

15 Their image and their royall port,
shall fade and quite decay:
When as from house to pit they passe,
with we and wel-away.

16 But God will surely preferue me
from death and endlesse paine:
Because he will of his good grace,
my soule receiue againe.

17 If any man waxe wondrous rich,
feare not I say therefore:
Although the glorie of his house
increaseth more and more.

18 For when he dies, of all these things,
nothing shall he receiue:
His glorie will not follow him,
his pompe will take her leaue.

19 Yet in this life, he takes himselfe
the happiest vnder Sunne:
And others likewise flatter him,
saying, all is well done.

20 And presuppose he liue as long
as did his fathers old:
Yet must he needs at length giue place,
and be brought to deaths fold.

21 Thus man to honor God hath brought yet doth he not consider:
But like brute beasts so doth he liue,
which turne to dust and powder.

PSAL. L. W.W.

THe mightie God,
th'Eternall hath thus spoke:
And all the world
he will call and prouoke:
They that are his, shall

and so forth to the West:
2 From toward Sion,
which place him liketh best:
God will appeare
in beantie most excellent:
Our God wil come
before long time bespente.

3 Deuouring fire
shall go before his face:
A great tempest
shall round about him trace.

4 Then shall he call
the earth and heauens bright,
To iudge his folke
with equitie and right:

5 Saying, go to,
and now my Saints assembles
My pact they keepe,
their gifts do not dissemble.

6 The heauens shall declare his righteousnesse:
For God is iudge
of all things more and lesse.

7 Heare my people,
for I will now reueale:
Lift Israel,
I will thee nought conceale:

Thy God, thy God
am I, and will not blame thee, 8 For giuing not
all maner offerings to me.

9 I haue no need to take of thee at all,
Goates of thy fold,
or calfe out of thy stall.

10 For all the beasts
are mine within the woods:
On thousand hills,
cattell are mine owne goods:
11 I know for mine,
all birds that are on mountaines:
All beasts are mine,
which haunt the fields & fountaines.

12 Hungry if I were,
I would not thee it tell:
For all is mine,
that in the world doth dwell.

13 Eate I the flesh
of great buls or bullocks:
Or drinke the blood
of goates and of the flocks:
14 Offer to God
praise and heartie thanksgiuings:
And pay thy vows
vnto God euerliuing.

15 Call vpon me
when troubled thou shalt be:
Then will I helpe,
and thou shalt honour me.

- 16 To the wicked,
thus saith the eternall God:
Why doest thou preach
my lawes and hefts abroad:
17 Seeing thou hast
them with thy mouth abused:
And hat'st to be
by discipline reformed?
- My words I say,
thou doest reiect and hate:
18 If that thou see
a theefe, as with thy mate,
Thou runst with him,
and so your prey do seeke:
And art all one
with bawds and ruffians eke.
- 19 Thou giuest thy selfe
to backbite and to slander:
And how thy tongue
deceiues, it is a wonder.
- 20 Thou sittest musing,
thy brother how to blame:
And how to put
thy mothers sonne to shame;
21 These things thou didst,
and whilst I held my tongue:
Thou didst me iudge,
because I staid so long,
Like to thy selfe:
yet though I kept long silence:
Once thou shalt feele
of thy wrongs iust recompence.
- 22 Consider this,
ye that forget the Lord,
And feare not when
he threatneth with his word:
Left without helpe,
I spoile you as a prey.
- 23 But he that thankes
offreth, praiseth me aye,
Saith the Lord God:
and he that walketh this trace,
I will him teach
Gods saving health to embrace.

Another of the same by I. H.

- THe God of Gods, the Lord,
hath cald the earth by name:
From where the Sunne doth rise, vnto
the setting of the same.
- 2 From Sion his faire place,
his glorie bright and cleare:
The perfect beantie of his grace,
from thence it did appeare.
- 3 Our God shall come in haste,
to speake he shall not doubt:
Before him shall the fier waste,
and tempests round about.
- 4 The heauens from on hie,

the earth below likewise,
He will call forth, to iudge and trie
his folke he doth deuise.

- 5 Bring forth my Saints, saith he,
my faithfull flocke so deare:
Which are in band and league with me,
my law to loue and feare.
- 6 And when these things are tride,
the heauens shall record,
That God is iust, and all must bide
the iudgement of the Lord.
- 7 My people O giue heed,
Israel to thee I crie:
I am thy God, thy helpe at need,
thou canst it not denie.
- 8 I do not say to thee,
thy sacrifice is slacke:
Thou offrest daily vnto me
much more then I do lacke.
- 9 Thinkest thou that I do need,
thy cattell yong or old?
Or else so much desire to feed
on Goates out of thy fold?
- 10 Nay all the beasts are mine,
in woods that eate their fil:
And thousands more of neate and kine,
that runne wilde on the hils.

The second part.

- 11 The birds that build on hie
in hils and out of sight:
And beasts that in the fields do lie,
are subiect to my might.
- 12 Then though I hungred sore,
what need I ought of thine?
Sith that the earth with her great store,
and all therein is mine.
- 13 To buls flesh haue I mind
to eate it, doest thou thinke?
Or such a sweetnesse do I find
the bloud of goates to drinke?
- 14 Giue to the Lord his praise,
with thankes to him apply:
And see thou pay thy vowes alwaies,
vnto the God most hie.
- 15 Then seeke and call to me,
when ought would work thee blame:
And I will sure deliuer thee,
that thou maist praise my Name.
- 16 But to the wicked traine,
which talke of God each day:
And yet their workes are foule and vaine,
to them the Lord will say:
- 17 With what a face darest thou,
my word once speake or name?
Why doest thou talke my law allow,
thy deeds deuie the same?

18 Whereas for to amend
thy life, thou art so slacke:
My word the which thou doest pretend,
is cast behind thy backe.

The third part.

19 When thou a thiefe doest see,
by theft to liue in wealth:
With him thou runst, and doest agree
likewise to thriue by stealth.

20 When thou doest them behold,
that wiues and maids defile:
Thou lik'st it well, and waxest bold
to vse that life most vile.

21 Thy lips thou doest apply
to slander and defame:
Thy tongue is taught to craft and lie,
and still doth vse the same.
22 Thou studiest to reuile,
thy friends to thee so neare:
With slander thou wouldst needs defile
thy mothers sonne most deare.

23 Hereat while I do winke,
as though I did not see,
Thou goest on still, and so doest thinke
that I am like to thee.

24 But sure I will not let,
to strike when I begin:
Thy faults in order I will set,
and open all thy sinne.

25 Marke this I you require,
that haue not God in mind:
Lest when I plague you in mine ire,
your helpe be farre to find.

26 He that doth giue to me
the sacrifice of praise, Doth please me well, and he shall see
to walke in godly waies.

PSAL. LI. W.W.

O Lord consider my distresse,
& now with speed some pitie take:
My sinnes deface, my faults redresse,
good Lord for thy great mercies sake.

2 Wash me O Lord, and make me cleane,
from this vniust and finfull act:
And purifie yet once againe,
my hainous crime and bloody fact.

3 Remorse and sorrow do constraine
me to acknowledge mine excess:
My sinne alas doth still remaine
before my face without release.

4 For thee alone I haue offended,
committing euill in thy sight:
And if I were therefore condemned,
yet were thy iudgements iust & right.

5 It is too manifest alas,
that first I was conceiu'd in sinne:

Yea of my mother so borne was,
and yet vile wretch remaine therein.
6 Also behold, Lord, thou doest loue
the inward truth of a pure heart:
Therefore thy wisdom from aboue,
thou hast reueald me to conuert.

7 If thou with hysope purge this blot,
I shall be cleaner then the glasse:
And if thou wash away my foot,
the snow in whitenesse shall I passe.

8 Therefore, O Lord, such ioy me tend,
that inwardly I may find grace:
And that my strength may now amend,
which thou hast swag'd for my trespassse

9 Turne back thy face and frowning ire
for I haue felt enough thy hands:
And purge my sinnes I thee desire,
which do in number passe the sand.

10 Make cleane my heart within my brest
and frame it to thy holy will:
Thy constant Spirit in me let rest,
which may these raging enemies kill,

The second part.

11 Cast me not Lord out from thy face,
but speedily my torments end:
Take not from me thy Spirit of grace,
which may from dangers me defend.

12 Restore me to those ioyes againe,
which I was wont in thee to find:
And let me thy free Spirit retaine,
which vnto thee may stir my mind.

13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are likewise brought low,
by mine example shall tie him.

14 O God that of my health art Lord, forgiue me this my bloudie vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord
to sing thy mercies and iustice.

15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue vntie,
O Lord which art the onely key:
And then my mouth shall testifie
thy wondrous works, & praise alway.

16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would haue offered many one:
But thou esteemst them of no price,
and therein pleasure tak'st thou none.

17 The heauie heart, the mind oppress,
O Lord thou neuer doest reiect:
And to speake truth it is the best,
and of all sacrifice th' effect.

18 Lord vnto Sion turne thy face,
powre out thy mercies on thy hill:
And on Ierusalem thy grace,
build vp the wals, and lone it still.

19 Thou shalt accept then our offerings of

of peace and righteouſneſſe I ſay:
Yea calues and many other things,
vpon thine altar will we lay.

Another of the ſame by T.S.

HAue mercie on me Lord, after thy great abundant graces
After thy mercies multitude,
do thou my finnes deſace.

2 Yea waſh me more from mine offence,
and cleaſe me from my ſinne:
For I do know my faults, and ſtill
my ſinne is in mine eyne.

3 Againſt thee, thee alone I haue offended in this caſe:

And euill haue I done before
the preſence of thy face.

4 That in the things that thou haſt done,
vpriſt thou maiſt be tride:
And eke in iudging, that the doome
may paſſe vpon thy ſide.

5 Behold in wickedneſſe my kind and ſhape I did receiue:

And lo my ſinfull mother eke,
in ſinne did me conceiue.

6 But lo, the truth in inward parts,
is pleaſant vnto thee:
And ſecrets of thy wiſedome thou
reuealed haſt to me.

7 With Hyſope Lord beſprinkle me,
I ſhall be cleaſed for:

Yea, waſh thou me, and ſo I ſhall
be whiter than the ſnow.

8 Of ioy and gladneſſe makethou me
to heare the pleaſant voyce:
That ſo the bruſed bones which thou
haſt broken may reioyce.

9 From the beholding of my finnes,
Lord turne away thy face:

And all my deeds of wickedneſſe,
do vicerly deſace.

10 O God create in me a heart
vnſported in thy fight:

And eke within my bowels, Lord,
renew a ſtable ſprite.

11 Ne caſt me from thy fight, nor take thy holy Spirit away:

The comfort of thy ſauing helpe,
giue me againe I pray.

12 With thy free Spirit eſtabliſh me,
and I will teach therefore

Sinnerſ thy wayes, and wicked ſhall
be turned to thy lore.

The ſecond part.

13 O God that art God of my health,
from bloud deliuer me;

That praifes of thy righteouſneſſe,
my tongue may ſpeake to thee.

14 My lips that yet ſalt closed be,
do thou O Lord vncloſe:

The praifes of thy Maieſtie,
my mouth ſhall ſo diſcloſe.

15 I would haue offered ſacrifice,
if that had pleaſed thee:

But pleaſed with burnt offerings,
I know thou wilt not be.

16 A troubled ſpirit is ſacrifice
delightfull in Gods eyes:

A broken and an humble heart,
God thou wilt not deſpiſe.

17 In thy good will deale gently Lord
to Sion, and withall

Grant that of thy Ieruſalem,
vpreard may be the wall.

18 Burnt offrings, gifts and ſacrifice
of iuſtice in that day,

Thou ſhalt accept, and calues they ſhall
vpon thine altar lay.

PſAL. LII. IH.

WHY doeſt thou tyrant boaſt abroad,
thy wicked workes to praife?

Doeſt thou not know there is a God,
whoſe mercies laſt alwaies.

2 Why doth thy mind yet ſtill deuſe,
ſuch wicked wiles to warpe?

Thy tongue vntrue in forging lies,
is like a razor ſharpe.

3 On miſchiefe why ſeſt thou thy mind,
and wilt not walke vpriſt?

Thou haſt more liſt falſe tales to ſind,
then bring the truth to light.

4 Thou doeſt delight in fraud and guile,
in miſchiefe, bloud and wrong:

Thy lips haue learned the flattering ſtile,
O falſe deceitfull tongue.

5 Therefore ſhall God for aye comfort
and plucke thee from thy place:

Thy ſeed roote out from off the ground:
and ſo ſhall thee deſace.

6 The iuſt when they behold thy fall,
with feare will praife the Lord:

And in reproch of thee withall,
crie out with one accord.

7 Behold the man that would not take
the Lord for his defence:

But of his goods his God did make,
and truſt his corrupt ſence.

8 But I as Oliue freſh and greene,
ſhall ſpring and ſpread abroad:

For why, my truſt all times hath bene
vpon the liuing God.

9 For this therefore will I giue praife

to thee with heart and voice:
I will set forth thy Name alwaies,
wherein thy Saints reioyce.

PSAL. LIIII. T. S.

THe foolish man in that which he
within his heart hath said:
That there is any God at all,
hath vtterly denaid.

2 They are corrupt, and they also
a haious worke haue wrought:
Among them all, there is not one of good that worketh ought.

3 The Lord lookt downe on sons of men
from heauen all abroad,
To see if any w.e. that would be wise and seeke for God.

4 They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all:
There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.

5 Do not all wicked workers know,
that they do feed vpon
My people, as they feed on bread?
the Lord they call not on.

6 Euen there they were afraid, and stood with trembling all dismaid:
Whereas there was no cause at all,
why they should be afraid.

7 For God his bones that thee besieg'd,
hath scattred all abroad:
Thou hast confunded them, for they reiected are of God.

8 O Lord giue thou thy people health,
and thou O Lord fulfill Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Sion hill.

9 When God his people shall restore,
that earst were captiue lad:
Then Iacob shall therein reioyce,
and Israel shall be glad.

PSAL. LIIII. I.H.

God saue me for thy holy Name,
and for thy goodnesse sake:
Vnto the strength Lord of the same,
I do my cause betake.

2 Regard O Lord, and giue an care
to me when I do pray:
Bow downe thy selfe to me, and heare
the words that I do say.

3 For strangers vp against me rise,
and tyrants veue me still:
Which haue not God before their eies,
they seeke my soule to spill.

4 But lo my God doth giue me aide,
the Lord is straight at hand:

With them by whom my soule is staid,
the Lord doth euer stand.

5 With plagues repay againe all those,
for me that lie in waite:

And in thy truth destroy my foes,
with their owne snare and baite.

6 An offering of free heart and will,
then I to thee shall make:

And praise thy Name, for therein still,
great comfort do I take.

7 O Lord at length do set me free
from them that craft conspire:
And now mine eye with ioy doth see
on them my hearts desire.

PSAL. LV. I.H.

O God giue eare, and do apply
to heare me when I pray:
And when to thee I call and crie,
hide not thy selfe a way.

2 Take heed to me, grant my request,
and answer me againe:

With plaints I pray full sore oppress,
great griefe doth me contraine.

3 Because my foes with threats and cries
opresse me through despights:
And so the wicked sort likewise,
to vex me haue delight.

4 For they in counsell do conspire,
to charge me with some ill:
So in their hastie wrath and ire,
they do pursue me still.

5 My heart doth faint for want of breath,
it panteth in my breast:
The terrors and the dread of death,
do worke me much vnrest.

6 Such dreadfull feare on me doth fall,
that I therewith do quake:
Such horror whelmeth me withall,
that I no thift can make.

7 But I did say, who will giue me
the swift and pleasant wings
Of some faire Dove, that I may see
and rest me from these things?

8 Lo then I would go farre away,
to flie I would not cease:
And I would hide my selfe, and stay
in some great wilderness.

9 I would be gone in all the haste,
and not abide behind:
That I were quit and ouerpast
these blasts of boistrous wind.

10 Deuide them Lord, & from them pull their diuellish double tongue:
For I haue seene their citie full
of rapine, strife and wrong.

11 Which things both night and day
do close her as a wall: (throughout
In midst of her is mischief stout,
and sorrow eke withall.
12 Her inward parts are wicked plaine,
her deeds are much too vile:
And in her streets there doth remaine
all craftie fraud and guile.

The second part.

23 If that my foes did seeke my shame,
I might it well abide:
From open enemies checke and blame,
some where I could me hide.
24 But thou that wast my fellow deare,
which friendship didst pretend:
And didst my secret counsell heare,
as my familiar friend.
25 With whom I had delight to talke,
in secret and abroad:
And we together oft did walke
within the house of God.
26 Let death in haste vpon them fall,
and send them quicke to hell:
For mischief reigneth in their hall,
and parlour wherethey dwell.
27 But I vnto my God will crie,
to him for helpe I flee:
The Lord will heare me by and by,
and he will succour me.
28 At morning, noone, and euening tide,
vnto the Lord I pray:
When I so instantly haue cride,
he doth not say me nay.
29 To peace he shall restore me yet,
though warre be now at hand:
Although the number be full great,
that would against me stand.
30 The Lord that first & last doth raigne
both now and euermore:
Will heare when I to him complaine,
and punish them full sore.
31 For sure there is no hope that they
to turne will once accord:
For why, they will not God obey,
nor yet do feare the Lord.
32 Vpō their friends they laid their hands
which were in couenant knit:
Of friendship to neglect the bands,
they passe or care no whit.
33 While he hath war within his heart,
as butter are his words:
Although his words were smooth as oile,
they cut as sharpe as swords.
34 Cast thou thy care vpon the Lord,
and he shall nourish thee:
For in no wise he will accord,
the iust in thrall to see.

25 But God shall cast them deepe in pit,
that thirst for bloud alwaies:
He will no guiltfull man permit
to liue out halfe his daies.
26 Though such be quite destroyed and in thee O Lord I trust: (gone,
I shall depend thy grace vpon,
with all my heart and lust.

PSAL. LVI. T. S.

HAue mercie Lord on me I pray,
for man would me deuoure:
He fighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me each houre.
2 Mine enemies daily enterprife,
to swallow me outright:
To fight against me many rise,
O thou most high of might.
3 When they would make me much afraid,
with boatts and brags of pride:
I trust in thee alone for aide,
by thee I will abide.
4 Gods promise I do mind and praise,
O Lord I sticke to thee:
I do not care at all assayes,
what flesh can do to me.
5 What things I either did or spake,
they wrest them to their will:
And all the counsell that they take,
is how to worke me ill.
6 They all consent themselues to hide,
close watch for me to lay:
They spy my paths, and snares haue tide
to take my life away.
7 Shall they thus scape on mischief sett
thou God on them wilt frowne:
For in his wrath he will not let,
to throw whole kingdomes downe.
8 Thou seest how oft they made me flee,
and on my teares dost looke:
Referue them in a glasse by thee,
and write them in thy booke.
9 When I do call vpon thy Name,
my foes away do start:
I well perceiue it by the same,
that God doth take my part.
10 I glorie in the word of God,
to praise it I accord:
With ioy will I declare abroad,
the promise of the Lord.
11 I trust in God, and yet I say,
as I before began:
The Lord he is my helpe and stay,
I do not care for man.
12 I will performe with heart so free,
to God my vowes alwaies:
And I O Lord all times to thee,
will offer thanks and praise.

My soule from death thou doest de-
and keepst my feete vpright: (send,
That I before thee may ascend,
with such as liue in light.

PSAL. LVII. I. H.

Take pitie for thy promise sake,
haue mercie Lord on me:
For why, my soule doth her betake
vnto the helpe of thee.

2 Within the shadow of thy wings,
I set my selfe full fast:
Till mischiese, malice, and like things,
be gone and ouerpast.

3 I call vpon the God most high,
to whom I sticke and stand:
I meane the God that will stand by the cause I haue in hand.

4 From heauen he hath sent his aide,
to saue me from their spight,
That to deuoure me haue assaid:
his mercie, truth, and might.

5 I leade my life with Lions fell,
all set on wrath and ire:
And with such wicked men I dwell,
that fret like flames of fire.

6 Their teeth are speares & arrows long,
as sharpe as I haue scene. (tongue,
They wound and cut with their quicke
like swords and weapons keene.

7 ~~See vp~~ and shew thy selfe O God,
about the heauens bright:
Exalt thy praise on earth abroad,
thy Maiestie and might.

8 They lay their net, and do prepare a priuie caue and pit:
Wherewith they thinke my soule to snare
but they are false in it.

9 My heart is set to laud the Lord,
in him I ioy alwaies:

My heart I say doth well accord
to sing his laud and praise.

10 Awake my ioy, awake I say,
my Lute, my Harpe, and string:
For I my selfe before the day,
will rise, reioyce and sing.

11 Among the people I will tell
the goodnesse of my God:
And shew his praise, that doth excell
in heathen lands abroad.

12 His mercie doth extend as farre,
as heauens all are hie:
His truth as high as any starre,
that shineth in the skie.

13 Set forth and shew thy selfe O God,
about the heauens bright:

Extoll thy praise on earth abroad,
thy Maiestie and might.

PSAL. LVIII. I. H.

YE rulers that are put in trust,
to iudge of wrong and right:
Be all your iudgements true and iust,
not knowing meed or might?
2 Nay in your hearts ye marke and muse
in mischiese to consent:
And where ye should true iustice vse,
your hands to bribes are bent.

3 The wicked sort from their birth day
haue erred on this wise:
And from their mothers wombe alway,
haue vsed craft and lies.

4 In them the poison and the breath
of Serpents do appeare:
Yea like the Adder that is deafe,
and fast doth stop his eare.

5 Because he will not heare the voice
of him that charmeth well:
No though he were the chiefe of choice,
and therein did excell.

6 O God breake thou their teeth at once,
within their mouthes throughout:
The teiks that in their great iaw bones,
like Lions whelpes hang out.

7 Let them consume away and waste,
as waters ranne forth right.
The shafts that they do shoote in haste,
let them be broke in sight.

8 As snails do waste within the shell,
and vnto slime do runne:
As one before his time that fell,
and neuer saw the Sunne.

9 Before the thornes that now are yong,
to bushes big shall grow:
The stormes of anger waxing strong,
shall take them ere they know.

10 The iust shall ioy, it doth them good,
that God doth vengeance take:
And they shall wash their feete in blond
of them that him forsake.

11 Then shal the world shew forth & tel,
that good men haue reward:
And that a God on earth doth dwell,
that iustice doth regard.

PSAL. LIX. I. H.

Send aide and saue me from my foes,
O Lord I pray to thee:
Defend and keepe me from all those,
that rise and trouble me.

2 O Lord preserue me from those men,
whose doings are not good:
And set me free and safe from them
that thirst still after blond.]

3 For lo, they waite my soule to take,
they rage against me still:
Yea, for no fault that I did make,
I neuer did them ill.

4 They runne and do themselves prepare,
when I no whit offend:
Arise and saue me from the snare,
and see what they intend.

5 O Lord of hostes of Israel,
arise and strike all lands:
And pitie none that do rebell,
and in their mischiefe stands.

6 At night they stirre and seeke about,
as hounds they houle and grin:
And all the citie cleane throughout,
from place to place they rin.

7 They speake of me with mouth alway,
but in their lips were swords:
They greed my death, and then would say,
what? none doth heare our words.

8 But Lord thou hast their waies espide,
and laught thereat apace:
The heathen folke thou doest deride,
and make them to their face.

9 The strength that doth our foes with-
O Lord doth come from thee:
My God he is my helpe at hand,
a fort offence to me.

10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace,
in great abundance still:
That I may see my foes in case,
such as my heart doth will.

The second part.

11 Destroy them not at once O Lord,
lest it from mind do fall:
But with thy strength drive them abroad,
and so consume them all.

12 For their ill words & truthlesse tong,
confound them in their pride:
Their wicked oathes with lies and wrong,
let all the world decide.

13 Consume them in thy wrath, O Lord,
that nought of them remaine:
That me may know throughout the world
that Jacobs God doth raigne.

14 At euening they returne apace,
as dogs they grin and crie:
Throughout the streets in euery place,
they runne about and spie.

15 They seeke about for meate, I say,
but let them not be fed:
Nor find a house wherein they may be bold to put their head.

16 But I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodnesse I will praise:
For thou art my defence and God,
at need in all affaires.

17 Thou art my strength, thou hast me

O Lord I sing to thee:
Thou art my fort, my fence and aide,
a louing God to me.

PSAL. LX. I.H.

O Lord thou didst vs cleane forsake,
and scatteredst vs abroad:
Such great displeasure thou didst take,
returne to vs O God.

2 Thy might did moue the land so sore,
that it in sunder brake:
The hurt thereof, O Lord restore,
for it doth bow and quake.

3 With heauy chance thou plaguedst thus
the people that are thine:
And thou hast giuen vnto vs
a drinke of deadly wine.

4 But yet to such as feare thy Name,
a banner thou didst shew:
That they may triumph in the same,
because thy word is true.

5 So that thy might may keepe and saue
thy folke that fauour thee:
That they thy helpe at hand may haue,
O Lord grant this to me.

6 The Lord did speake fro his own place,
this was his ioyfull tale:
I wi I decide Sichem by pace,
and mete out Succoth vale.

7 Gilead is giuen to my hand,
Manasses mine be aide:
Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my law doth Iuda guide.

8 In Moab I will wash my foete,
ouer Edom throw my shoe:
And thou Palestine oughtst to seeke
for fauour me vnto.

9 But who will bring me at this tide,
vnto the citie strong?
Or who to Edom will me guide,
so that I go not wrong? (take)

10 Wilt thou not God, which didst for-thy folke, their land and coasts?
Our wars in hand that wouldst not take,
nor walke among our hoatts.

11 Giue aide O Lord and vs relieue,
from them that vs disdain:
The helpe that hoatts of men can giue,
it is but all in-vaine. (might,

12 But through our God we shall haue
to take great things in hand:
He will tread downe and put to flight,
all those that vs withstand.

PSAL. LXI. I.H.

REGARD, O Lord, for I complaine,
and make my suite to thee:

Let not my words returne in vaine,
but giue an eare to me.
2 From off the coasts and vtmost parts
of all the earth abroad:
In griefe and anguith of my heart,
I crie to thee O God.

3 Vpon the rocke of thy great power,
my wofull mind repose:
Thou art my hope, my fort and tower,
my fence against my foes.
4 Within thy tent I lust to dwell,
for euer to endure:
Vnder thy wings I know right well,
I shall be safe and sure.

5 The Lord doth my desire regard,
and doth fulfill the same:
With goodly gifts will he reward,
all them that feare his Name.
6 The king shall he in health maintaine,
and so prolong his daies:
That he from age to age shall raigne,
for euenmore alwaies.

7 That he may haue a dwelling place,
before the Lord for aye:
O let thy mercie, truth and grace,
defend him from decay.
8 Then shall I sing for euer still,
with praise vnto thy Name,
That all my vowes I may fulfill,
and daily pay the same.

PSAL. LXII. I. H.

MY soule to God shall giue good heed,
and hym alone attend:
For why, my health and hope to speed,
doth whole on him depend.
2 For he alone is my defence,
my rocke, my health, and aide:
He is my stay, that no pretence
shall make me much dismayd.
3 O wicked folke, how long will ye vse craft? sure ye shall fall:
For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tottring wall.
4 Whom God doth loue, ye seeke alwaies
to put him to the worse:
Ye loue to lie, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart doth curse.
5 Yet still my soule doth whole depend on God my chiefe desire:
From all ill feates me to defend,
none but him I require.
6 He is my rocke, my strength & tower,
my health is of his grace:
He doth support me, that no power
can moue me out of place.
7 God is my glorie and my health,

my soules desire and lust:
My fort, my strength, my stay, my wealth,
God is my onely trust.
8 Oh haue your hope in him alway,
ye folke with one accord:
Powre out your hearts to him, and say,
our trust is in the Lord.

9 The sonnes of men deceitfull are,
on ballance but a sleight:
With things most vaine do the compare,
for they can keepe no weight.
10 Trust not in wrong, robberie nor let vaine delights be gone: (stealth,
Though goods wel got flow in with wealth,
set not your hearts thereon.

11 The Lord long since one thing did tell which here to mind I call:
He spake it oft, I heard it well,
that God alone doth all.
12 And that thou Lord art good & kind,
thy mercie doth exceed:
So that all sorts with thee shall find,
according to their deed.

PSAL. LXIII. T. S.

O God my God, I watch betime,
to come to thee in haste:
For why, my soule and body both,
do thirst of thee to taste.
And in this harren wildernesse,
where waters there are none:
My flesh is parcht for thought of thee,
for thee I wish alone.

2 That I might see yet once againe,
thy glorie, strength and might:
As I was wont it to behold,
within thy Temple bright.
3 For why, thy mercies farre surmount
this life and wretched daies:
My lips therefore shall giue to thee,
due honour, land and praise.

4 And whiles I live, I will not faile
to worship thee alway:
And in thy Name I shall lift vp
my hands when I do pray.
5 My soule is fild as with marrow,
which is both fat and sweete:
My mouth therefore shall sing such songs
as are for thee most meete.

6 When as in bed I thinke on thee,
and eke all the night tide:
7 For vnder couert of thy wings,
thou art my ioyfull guide.
8 My soule doth surely sticke to thee,
thy right hand is my power:
9 And those that seeke my soule to stroy,
them death shall soone deuoure.

10 The sword shall them deuoure each their carcasses shall feed (one,
The hungrie Foxes, which do runne
their prey to seeke at need.

11 The King and all men shall reioyce,
that do professe Gods word:
For liers mouthes shall then be stopt,
which haue the truth disturbd.

PSAL. LXIIII. I. H.

O Lord vnto my voice giue eare,
with plaint when I do pray:
And rid my life and soule from feare
of foes that threat to slay.

2 Defend me from that sort of men,
which in deceits do lurke:
And from the frowning face of them,
that all ill seates do worke.

(seene

3 Who whet their tongues, as we haue
men whet and sharpe their swords:
They shoote abroad their arrowes keene,
I meane most bitter words.

4 With priuie sleights shoote they their
the vpright man to him • shaft,
The iust vnwares to strike by craft,
they care or feare no whit.

5 A wicked worke they haue decreed,
in counsell thus they crie:
To vse deceit let vs not dreed,
what? who can it espie?

6 What way to hurt they talke and muse
all times within their heart:
They all consult what seates to vse,
each doth inuent his part.

7 But yet all this shall not auaille,
when they thinke least vpon,
God with his dart shall sure assaile,
and wound them euery one.

8 Their crafts & their ill tongues withall
shall worke themselues such blame:
That they which then behold their fall,
shall wonder at the same.

9 Then all that see shall know right well,
that God the thing hath wrought:
And praise his wittie works, and tell what he to passe hath brought.

10 Yet shall the iust in God reioyce,
still trusting in his might:
So shall they ioy with mind and voice,
whose heart is pure and right.

PSAL. LXV. T. S.

Thy praise alone, O Lord doth raigne,
in Sion thine owne hill:
Their vowes to thee they do maintaine,
and their bekefts fulfill.

2 For that thou doest their prayers heare,
and doest there, o agree;

The people all both farre and neare,
with trust shall come to thee.

3 Our wicked life so farre exceeds,
that we should fall therein:
But Lord forgiue our great misdeeds,
and purge vs from our sinne.

4 The man is blest whom thou dost chuse
within thy courts to dwell:
Thy house and Temple he shall vse,
with pleasures that excell.

5 Of thy great iustice heare vs God,
our health of thee doth rise:
The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the sea coast likewise.

6 With strength thou art beset about,
and compast with thy power:
Thou mak'st the mountaines strong and to stand in euery shower. (toute

7 The swelling seas thou doest assuage,
and make their streames full still:
Thou doest reframe the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will.

8 The folke that dwell full farre on earth shall dread thy signes to see:
Which morne and euen in great mirth,
do passe with praise to thee.

9 When that the earth is chapt and drie,
and thirsteth more and more:
Then with thy drops thou doest apply,
and much increase her store.

10 The flood of God doth ouerflow,
and so doth cause to spring,
The seed and corne which men do sow,
for he doth guide the thing.

11 With wet thou doest her farrowes fill whereby her clods do fall:
Thy drops on her thou doest distill,
and blesse her fruite withall.

12 Thou deckst the earth of thy good with faire and pleasant crop: (grace Thy clouds distill their dew apace,
great plentie they do drop.

13 Whereby the desert shall begin,
full great increase to bring:
The little hills shall ioy therein,
much fruite in them shall spring.

14 In places plaine the stocke shall feed,
and couer all the earth:
The vales with corne shall so exceed,
that men shall sing for mirth.

PSAL. LXVI. I. H.

YE men on earth, in God reioyce,
with praise set forth his Name:
Extoll his might with heart and voice,
giue glorie to the same.

2 How

- 2 How wonderful O Lord, say ye,
in all thy workes thou art:
Thy foes for feare shall seeke to thee,
full fore against their heart.
- 3 All men that dwell the earth through-shall praise the Name of God: (out
The land thereof the world about,
is shewd and set abroad.
- 4 All folke come forth, behold and see what things the Lord hath wrought Marke well the wondrous workes that he
for man to passe hath brought.
- 5 He laid the sea like heapes on hie,
therein a way they had,
On foote to passe both faire and drie,
whereof their hearts were glad.
- 6 His might doth rule the world alway,
his eyes all things behold:
All such as would him disobey,
by him shall be controld.
- 7 Ye people giue vnto our God,
due laud and thanks alwaies:
With ioyfull voice declare abroad,
and sing vnto his praise.
- 8 Which doth endue our soule with life,
and it preserue with all:
He stayes our feete, so that no strife
can make vs slip or fall.
- 9 The Lord doth proue our deeds with
if that they will abide: (fire,
As workmen do, when they desire to haue their mettals tride.
- 10 Although thou suffer vs so long,
in prison to be cast:
And there with chaines and fetters strong
to lie in bondage fast.

The second part.

- 11 Although, I say, thou suffer men
on vs to ride and raigne:
Though we through fire and water run,
of very grieve and paine:
- 12 Yet sure thou doest of thy good grace,
dispose it to the best:
And bring vs out into a place,
to liue in wealth and rest.
- 13 Vnto thy house resort will I,
to offer and to pray:
And there I will my selfe apply,
my vowes to thee to pay.
- 14 The vowes y with my mouth I spake,
in all my grieve and smart:
The vowes, I say, which I did make
in dolour of my heart.
- 15 Burnt offerings I will giue to thee,
of incense and fat Rams:
Yea this my sacrifice shall be,

of Bullocks, Goates, and Lambes.
16 Come forth & hearken here full soone
all ye that feare the Lord:
What he for my poore soule hath done,
to you I will record.

- 17 Full oft I call to mind his grace,
this mouth to him did crie:
My tongue likewise did speede apace,
to praise him by and by.
- 18 But if I feele my heart within,
in wicked workes reioyce:
Or if I haue delight to sinne,
God will not heare my voice.
- 19 But surely God my voice hath heard,
and what I do require:
My prayer he doth well regard,
and granteth my desire.
- 20 All praise to him that doth not put,
nor cast me out of mind:
Nor yet his mercies from me shut
which I do euer find.

PSAL. LXVII. I.H.

HAue mercie on vs Lord,
and grant to vs thy grace:
To shew to vs do thou accord,
the brightnesse of thy face.

2 That all the earth may know,
the way to godly wealth:
And all the nations on a row,
may see thy saving health.

3 Let all the world, O God,
giue praise vnto thy Name:
O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.

4 Throughout the world so wide,
let all reioyce with mirth.
For thou with truth and right dost guide
the nations of the earth.

- 5 Let all the world, O God,
giue praise vnto thy Name:
O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.
- 6 Then shall the earth increase,
great store of fruite shall fall:
And then our God the God of peace,
shall blesse vs eke with all.

- 7 God shall vs blesse I say,
and then both farre and neare:
The folke throughout the earth alway,
of him shall stand in feare.

PSAL. LXVIII. T.S.

LEt God arise, and then his foes
will turne themselues to flight:
His enemies then will runne abroad,
and scatter out of sight.

- 2 And as the fire doth melt the waxe,
and winde blow smoake away:
So in the presence of the Lord,
the wicked shall decay.
- 3 But righteous men before the Lord
shall heartily reioyce:
They shall be glad and merric all,
and chearefull in their voice.
- 4 Sing praise, sing praise vnto the Lord,
who rideth on the skie:
Extoll the Name of Iah our God,
and him do magnifie.
- 5 The same is he that is aboue,
within his holy place:
That father is of fatherlesse,
and iudge of widows case.
- 6 Houses he giues and issue both,
vnto the comfortlesse:
He bringeth bondmen out of thrall,
and rebels to distresse.
- (folke,
7 When thou didst march before thy
the Egyptians from among: (nesse,
And broughtst them through the wilder-
which was both wide & long: (down, 8 The earth did quake, the raine pow'd
heard were great claps of thunder:
The mount Sinai thooke in such sort,
as it would cleaue in sunder.
- 9 Thine heritage with drops of raine,
abundantly was washt:
And ifso be it barren waxt,
by thee it was refresh't.
- 10 Thy chosen flock doth there remaine,
thou hast prepar'd that place:
And for the poore thou doest provide,
of thine especiall grace.

The second part.

- 11 God will giue women causes iust,
to magnifie his Name:
When as his people triumphs make,
and purchase brute and fame.
- 12 For puissant kings for all their power
shall sie and take the foile:
And women which remaine at home,
shall helpe to part the spoile.
- 13 And though you were as black as pots
your hue shall passe the Dune:
Whose wings and feathers seeme to haue
siluer and gold aboue.
- 14 When in this land God shall triumph
ouer kings both high and low:
Then shall it be like Salmon hill,
as white as any snow.
- 15 Though Basan be a fruitfull hill,
and in height others passe:
Yet Sion Gods most holy hill,

doth farre excell in grace.
16 Why brag ye thus ye hills most high,
and leape for pride together?
The hill of Sion God doth loue,
and there will dwell for euer.

- 17 Gods armie is two millions,
of warriors good and strong:
The Lord also in Sinai,
is present then among.
- 18 Thou didst (O Lord) ascend on high,
and captiue led them all:
Which in times past thy chosen flocke,
in bondage kept and thrall.

Thou madest them tribute for to pay,
and such as did repine,
Thou didst subdue, that they might dwell
in thy Temple diuine.

19 Now praised be the Lord for that he powres on vs such grace:
From day to day he is the God
of our health and solace.

The third part.

- 20 He is the God, from whom alone
saluation cometh plaine:
He is the God, by whom we scape
all dangers, death and paine.
- 21 Thus God will wound his enemies
and breake the haire scalpe (head,
Of those that in their wickednesse
continually do walke.
- 22 From Basan I will bring, said he,
my people and my sheepe:
And all mine owne, as I haue done,
from danger of the deepe.
- 23 And make the dip their feete in bloud
of those that hate my Name:
And dogs shall haue their tongues embrude
with licking of the same.
- 24 All men may see how thou, O God,
thine enemies doest deface:
And how thou goest as God and King,
into thy holy place.
- 25 The singers go before with ioy,
the minstrels follow after:
And in the midst the camels play,
with Timbrell and with Taber.
- 26 Now in thy congregations,
O Israel praise the Lord:
And Iacobs whole posteritie,
give thanks with one accord.
- 27 Their chiefe was little Benjamin,
but Iuda made their hoast,
With Zabulon and Neptholim,
which dwelt about their coast.
- 28 As God hath given power to thee,
so Lord make firme and sure

The thing that thou hast wrought in vs,
for euer to endure.

29 And in thy Temple gifts will we giue vnto thee O Lord:

For thine vnto Ierusalem,
sure promise made by word.

The fourth part.

Yea and strange Kings to vs subdude,
shall do like in those daies:

I meane, to thee they shall present
their gifts of land and praise.

30 He shal destroy the speare-mens ranks
those Calues and Buls of might:

And cause them tribute pay, and daunt
all such as loue to fight.

31 Then shall the Lords of Egypt come,
and presents with them bring:

The Moores most black shall stretch their vnto their Lord and King. (handis

32 Therefore ye kingdoms of the earth,
giue praise vnto the Lord:

Sing Psalmes to God with one consent,
thereto let all accord.

33 Who though he ride, and euer hath,
about the heauens bright:

Yet by the fearefull thunderclaps,
men may well know his might.

34 Therefore the strength of Israel,
ascribe to God on hie:

Whose power and might doth far extend
about the cloudie skie.

35 O God thy holinesse and power
is dread for euermore:

The God of Israel giues vs strength,
praised be God therefore.

PSAL. LXIX. I. H.

SAUE me O God, and that with speed,
the waters flow full fast:

So nigh my soule they do proceed,
that I am fore agast.

2 I sticke full deepe in filth and clay,
whereas I feele no ground:

I fall into such fouds I say,
that I am like be drownd.

3 With crying oft, I faint and quail,
my throat is hoarse and drie:

With looking vp, my sight doth faile,
for helpe to God on hie.

4 My foes that guiltlesse do oppresse
my soule, with hate are led:

In number sure they are no lesse
then hairens are on my head.

5 Though for no cause they vex me fore,
they prosper and are glad:

They do compell me to restore the things I neuer had.

6 What I haue done for want of wit,
thou Lord all times canst tell:

And all the faults that I commit,
to thee are knowae full well.

7 O God of hostis, defend and stay
all those that trust in thee:

Let no man doubt or shrink away,
for ought that chanceth me.

8 It is for thee and for thy sake,
that I do beare this blame:

In spite of thee they would me make
to hide my face for shame.

9 My mothers sonnes, my brethren all,
forsake me on a row:

And as a stranger they me call,
my face they will not know.

10 Vnto thy house such zeale I beare,
that it doth pine me much:

Their checks and taunts at thee to heare,
my very heart doth grutch.

The second part.

11 Though I do fast, my flesh to chafe,
yea if I weepe and mone:

Yet in my teeth this gear is cast,
they passe not thereupon.

12 If I for griefe and paine of heart,
in sackcloth vse to walke:

Then they anon will it peruert,
thereof they iest and talke.

13 Both high and low, and all the throng
that sit within the gate:

They haue me euer in their tongue,
of me they talke and prate.

14 The drunkards which in wine delight,
it is their chiefe pastime:

To seeke which way to worke me spight,
of me they sing and rime.

15 But thee the while, O Lord I pray,
that when it pleaseth thee,

For thy great truth thou wilt alway,
send downe thine aide to me.

16 Plucke thou my fetters out of the mire,
from drowning do me keepe:

From such as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deepe.

17 Left with the waues I shold be drownd
and depth my soule deuoure:

And that the pit should me confound
and shut me in her power.

18 O Lord of hostis to me giue eare,
as thou art good and kind:

And as thy mercie is most deare,
Lord haue me in thy mind.

19 And do not from thy seruant hide,
nor turne thy face away:

I am oppressd on euery side,
in haste giue eare I say.

20 O Lord vnto my soule draw nie,
the same with aide repose:
Because of their great tyrannie,
acquit me from my foes.

The third part.

21 That I abide rebuke and shame,
thou knowst, and thou canst tell:
For those that seeke and worke the same,
thou seeest them all full well.
22 When they with brags do breake my
I seeke for helper anon: (heart,
But find no friends to ease my smart,
to comfort me not one.
23 But in my meate they gaue me gall,
too cruell for to thinke:
And gaue me in my thirst withall
strong vineger to drinke.
24 Lord turne their table to a snare,
to take themselves therein:
And when they thinke full well to fare,
then trap them in the grin.
25 And let their eyes be dark and blind,
that they may nothing see:
Bow downe their backs, and do them bind
in thraldome for to be.
26 Powre out thy wrath as hote as fire,
that it on them may fall:
Let thy displeasure in thine ire,
take hold vpon them all.
27 As deserts drie their house disgrace,
their offspring eke expell:
That none there of possesse the place,
nor in their tents do dwell.
28 If thou dost strike the man to tame,
on him they lay full sore:
And if that thou do wound the same,
they seeke to hurt him more.
29 Then let them heape vp mischief still,
sith they are all peruert:
That of thy fauour and good will,
they neuer haue no part.
30 And raze them cleane out of thy booke
of life, of hope, of trust:
That for their name they neuer looke,
in number of the iust.

The fourth part.

31 Though I (O Lord) with wo & griefe,
haue bene full sore opprest:
Thy helpe shall giue me such reliefe,
that all shall be redrest.
32 That I may giue thy Name the praise,
and shew it with a song:
I will extoll the same alwaies,
with heartie thanks among.
33 Which is more pleasant vnto thee,
(such mind thy grace hath borne)

Then either Oxe or Calf can be,
that hath both hoefe and horne.
34 When simple folke do this behold,
it shall reioyce them sure:
All ye that seeke the Lord, behold,
your life for aye shall dure.

35 For why, the Lord of hoasts shal heare
the poore when they complaine:
His prisoner are to him full deare,
he doth them not disdain.
36 Wherefore the skie and earth below,
the sea with flood and streame,
His praise they shall declare and shew,
with all that liue in them.

37 For sure our God will Sion saue,
and Iudaes cities build:
38 Much folke possession there shal haue,
her streets shall all be fid.
His seruants seed shall keepe the same,
all ages out of mind:
39 And there all they that loue his Name
a dwelling place shall find.

PSAL. LXX. I. H.

O God to me take heed,
of helpe I thee require:
O Lord of hoasts with hatte make speed,
helpe, helpe, I thee desire.
2 With shame confound them all,
that seeke my soule to spill:
Rebuke them backe with blame to fall,
that thinke and wish me ill.
3 Confound them that apply,
and seeke to worke me shame:
And at my harme do laugh and crie,
so, so, there goes the game.
4 But let them ioyfull be,
in thee with ioy and wealth:
Which onely trust and seeke to thee,
and to thy sauing health:
5 That they may say alwaies,
in mirth and one accord:
All glorie, honour, laud and praise,
be giuen to thee O Lord.
6 But I am weake and poore,
come Lord, thine aide I lacke:
Thou art my strength and helpe, therefore make speed, and be not slacke.

PSAL. LXXI. I. H.

MY Lord my God, in all distresse,
my hope is whole in thee:
Then let no shame my soule oppresse,
nor once take hold on me.
2 As thou art iust defend me Lord,
and rid me out of dreed:
Giue eare, and to my suite accord,
and send me helpe at need.

- 3 Bethou my rocke, to whom I say,
for aide all times resort:
Thy promise is to helpe alway,
thou art my fence and fort.
- 4 Save me my God from wicked men,
and from their strength and power:
From folke vniust, and eke from them,
that cruelly deuoure.
- 5 Thou art the stay wherein I trust,
thou Lord of hostis art he:
Yea from my youth I had a lust,
full to depend on thee.
- 6 Thou hast me kept euen from my birth,
and I through thee was borne:
Wherefore I will thee praise with mirth,
both euening and at morne.
- 7 As to a monster seldome seene,
much folke about me throng:
But thou art now, and still hast bene
my fence and aide so strong.
- 8 Wherefore my mouth no time shall lack
thy glory and thy praise:
And eke my tongue shall not be slacke,
to honour thee alwaies.
- 9 Refuse me not O Lord I say,
when age my lims doth take:
And when my strength doth waste away,
do not my soule forsake.
- 10 Among themselues my foes enquire,
to take me through deceit:
And they against me do conspire,
that for my soule laid waite.

The second part.

- 11 Lay hand and take him now, they said,
for God from him is gone:
Dispatch him quite, for to his aide,
(I wis) there cometh none.
- 12 Do not absent thy selfe away,
O Lord when need shall be:
But that in time of griefe thou may,
in haste giue helpe to me.
- 13 With shame confound and overthrow
all those that seeke my life:
Oppresse them with rebuke also,
that faine would worke me strife.
- 14 But I will patiently abide thy helpe at all assaies:
Still more and more, each time and tide,
I will set forth thy praise.
- 15 My mouth thy iustice shall record,
that daily helpe doth send:
But of thy benefices O Lord,
I know no count nor end.
- 16 Yet will I go and seeke forth one,
with thy good helpe O Lord:
The sauing health of thee alone,
to shew and set abroad.

- 17 For of my youth thou tookst the care,
and doest instruct me still:
Therefore thy wonders to declare,
I haue great mind and will.
- 18 And as in youth from wanton rage,
thou didst me keepe and stay:
For sake me not vnto mine age,
and till my head begray.

The third part.

- 19 That I thy strength & might may shew
to them that now be here:
And that our seed thy power may know
hereafter many a yeare.
- 20 O Lord thy iustice doth exceed,
thy doings all may see:
Thy workes are wonderfull indeed,
oh who is like to thee?
- 21 Thou mad'st me feeble affliction fore,
and yet thou didst me saue:
Yea thou didst helpe and me restore,
and tookst me from the graue.
- 22 And thou mine honor doest increase,
my dignitie maintaine:
Yea thou doest make all griefe to cease,
and comfortst me againe.
- 23 Therefore thy faithfulness to praise,
I will both lute and sing:
My harpe shall sound thy praise alwaies,
O Israels holy King.
- 24 My mouth wil ioi with pleasant voice
when I shall sing to thee:
And eke my soule will much reioyce,
for thou hast made me free.
- 25 My tongue thy vprightnes shall sound
and speake it daily still:
For griefe and shame do them confound,
that seeke to worke me ill.

PSAL. LXXII. I.H.

- Lord giue thy iudgements to the King,
therein instruct him well:
And with his sonne that princely thing,
Lord let thy iustice dwell.
- 2 That he may gouerne vprightly,
and rule thy folke aright:
And so defend through equitie,
the poore that haue no might.
- 3 And let the mountaines that are hie,
vnto their folke giue peace:
And eke let rible hills apply,
in iustice to increase.
- 4 That he may help the weake and poore
with aide, and make them strong:
And eke destro. for eue more,
all those that do them wrong.
- 5 And when from age to age shall they regard and feare thy might:

So long as Sunne doth shine by day,
or else the Moone by night.
6 Lord make the King vnto the iust,
like raine to fields new mowne:
And like to drops that lay the dust,
and fresh the land new sowne.

7 The iust shall flourish in his time,
and all shall be at peace,
Vntill the Moone shall leaue to prime,
waste, change, and to increase.
8 He shall be Lord of sea and land,
from shore to shore throughout:
And from the floods within the land,
through all the earth about.

9 The people that in deserts dwell,
shall kneele to him full thicke:
And all his enemies that rebell,
the earth and dust shall licke.
10 The Lords of all the Iles thereby,
great gifts to him shall bring:
The kings of Saba and Arabie,
giue many a costly thing.

The second part.

11 All kings shall seeke with one accord,
in his good grace to stand:
And all the people of the world,
shall serue him at his hand.
12 For he the needy fort doth saue,
that vnto him do call:
And eke the simple folke that haue
no helpe of man at all.

13 He taketh pitie on the poore,
that are with need opprest:
He doth preserue them euermore,
and bring their soules to rest.
14 He shall redeem their liues from dread,
from fraud, from wrong, from might:
And eke the blood that they shall bleed,
is precious in his sight.

15 But he shall liue, and they shall bring to him of Sabaes gold:
He shall be honoured as a king,
and highly be extold.
16 The mightie mountaines of his land,
of corne shall beare such throng,
That it like Cedar trees shall stand,
in Libanus full long.

17 Their cities eke full well shall speed,
the fruits thereof shall passe:
In plentie it shall farre exceed,
and spring as greene as grasse.
18 For euer they shall praise his Name,
while that the Sunne is light:
And think them happie through the same,
all folke shall blesse his might.

9 Praise ye the Lord of hostis, and sing

to Israels God each one:
For he doth euery wondrous thing,
yea he himselfe alone.
20 And blessed be his holy Name,
all times eternally:
That all the earth may praise the same,
Amen, Amen, say I.

PSAL. LXXIII. T.S.

How euer it be, yet God is good
and kind to Israel:

And to all such as safely keepe
their conscience pure and well.

2 Yet like a foole I almost slept,
my feet began to slide:
And ere I wist, euen at a pinch,
my steps awry gan glide.

3 For when I saw such foolish men,
I grudg'd and did disdain,
That wicked men all things should haue,
without turmoile or paine.

4 They neuer suffer pangs nor grieffe,
as if death should them smite:
Their bodies are both stout and strong,
and euer in good plight.

5 And free from all aduersitie,
when other men be shent:
And with the rest they take no part of plague or punishment.

6 Therefore presumption doth embrace their necks as doth a chaine:
And are euen wrapt as with a robe,
with rapine and disdain.

7 They are so fed, that euen for fat
their eyes oft times out start:
And as for worldly goods, they haue
more then can wish their heart.

8 Their life is most licentious,
boasting much of the wrong,
Which they haue done to simple men,
and euer pride among.

9 The heauens and the liuing Lord,
they spare not to blasphemie:
And prate they do on worldly goods,
no wight they do esteeme.

10 The people of God oft times turne
to see their prosperous state: (backe,
And almost drinke the selfe same cup,
and follow the same rate.

The second part.

11 How can it be, that God (say they) should know or vnderstand
These worldly things, sith wicked men
be Lords of sea and land?

12 For we may see how wicked men
in riches still increase:
Rewarded well with worldly goods,
and liue in rest and peace.

- 13 Then why do I from wickednesse
my fantasie reitaine:
And wash my hands with innocents,
and cleanse my heart in vaine?
14 And suffer scourges euery day,
as subiect to all blame:
And euery morning from my youth
sustaine rebuke and shame?
15 And I had almost said as they,
misliking mine estate:
But that I should thy children iudge,
as folke vnfortunate.
16 Then I bethought me how I might
this matter vnderstand:
But yet the labour was too great
for me to take in hand.
17 Vntill the time I went into thine holy place, and then I vnderstood right perfectly
the end of all these men.
18 And namely how thou settest them
vpon a slippery place:
And at thy pleasure and thy will,
thou doest them all deface.
19 Then all men muse at that strange sight
to see how suddenly
They are destroid, dispatcht, consum'd,
and dead so horribly.
20 Much like a dreame when one awakes,
so shall their wealth decay:
Their famous name in all mens sight,
shall ebbe and passe away.

The third part.

- 21 Yet thus my heart was griened then,
my mind was much opprest:
22 So fond was I and ignorant,
and in this point a beast.
23 Yet neuer thelesse by my right hand,
thou holdst me alwaies fast:
24 And with thy counsell doest me guide
to glory at the last.
25 What thing is there that I can wish,
but thee in heauen aboue:
And in the earth there is nothing
like thee that I can loue.
26 My flesh and eke my heart doth faile;
but God doth faile me neuer:
For of my health God is the strength,
my portion eke for euer.
27 And lo, all such as thee forsake,
thou shalt destroy each one:
And those that trust in any thing,
saueing in thee alone.
28 Therefore I will draw neare to God,
and euer with him dwell:
For God alone I put my trust,
thy wonders I will tell.

- Why art thou Lord so long from vs,
in all this danger deepe?
Why doth thine anger kindle thus,
at thine owne pasture sheepe?
2 Lord call thy people to thy thought,
which haue bene thine so long:
The which thou hast redeemed and bought
from bondage sore and strong.
3 Haue mind therefore and thinke vpon,
remember it full well:
Thy pleasant place, thy mount Sion,
where thou wast wont to dwell.
4 Lift vp thy foote and come in haite,
and all thy foes deface:
Which now at pleasure rob and waste,
within thy holy place.
5 Amid thy congregations all,
thine enemies roare O God:
They set as signes on euery wall,
their banners spild abroad.
6 As men with axes hew downe trees,
that on the hills do grow:
So shine the bills and swords of these,
within thy temple now.
7 The feeling sawd, the carued beards,
the goodly granen stones,
With axes, hammers, bills and swords,
they beate them downe at once.
8 Thy places they consume with flame,
and eke in all this toile,
The house appointed to thy Name,
they raze downe to the soile.

- 9 And thus they say within their hearts,
dispatch them out of hand:
Then burnt they vp in euery place,
Gods houses through the land.
10 Yet thou no signe of helpe doest send,
our Prophets all are gone:
To tell when this our plague shall end,
among vs there is none.

(shame,

- 11 When wilt thou Lord once end this
and cease thine enemies strong?
Shall they alwaies blaspheme thy Name,
and raile on thee so long?
12 Why doest thou draw thy hand aback
and hide it in thy lap?
Oh plucke it out, and be not slacke,
to giue thy foes a rap.

The second part.

- 13 O God that art our King and Lord,
and euermore hast bene:
Yeathy good grace throughout the world
for our good helpe hath scene.
14 The seas that are so deepe and dead,
thy might did make them drie:

And thou didst breake the Serpents head
that he therein did die.

15 Yea thou didst break the head so great
of Whales that are so fell:

And gau't them to the folke to eate,
that in the deserts dwell.

16 Thou mad'st aspring with streames to from rocke both hard and hie: (rise
And eke thy hand hath made likewise
deepe riuers to be drie.

17 Both day and eke the night are thine,
by thee they were begun:

Thou sett'st to serue vs with their shine,
the Moone and eke the Sunne.

18 Thou didst appoint the ends & coasts
of all the earth about:

Both Sommer heate and Winter frosts,
thy hand hath found them out.

19 Thinke on, O Lord, no time forget
thy foes that thee defame:

And how the foolish folke are set
to raile vpon thy Name.

20 O let no cruell beasts deuoure
the Turtle that is true:

Forget not alwaies in thy power,
the poore that much do rue.

21 Regard thy couenant, and behold
thy foes possesse the land:

All sad and darke, forworne and old,
our realme as now doth stand.

22 Let not the simple go away;
nor yet returne with shame:

Put let the poore and needie aye
giue praise vnto thy Name.

23 Rise Lord, let be by thee maintaine
the cause that is thine owne:

Remember how that thou blasphem'd
art by the foolish one.

24 The voice forget not of thy foes,
for their presumption hie,

Is more and more increast of those that hate thee spitefully.

PSAL. LXXV. N.

Vnto thee God will we giue thanks,
we will giue thanks to thee:

Sith thy Name is so neare, declare thy wondrous works will we.

2 I will vprightly iudge, when get conuenient time I may:

The earth is weake, and all therein,
but I her pillars stay.

3 I did to the mad people say,
deale not so furiously:

And vnto the vngodly ones,
set not your hornes so hie.

4 I said vnto them, set not vp

your raised hornes on hie:

And see that you do with thiffe necke,
I ot speake presumptuously.

5 For neither from the Easterne parts,
nor from the Welterne side:

Nor from forsaken wildernesse,
protection doth proceed.

6 For why, the Lord our God he is the righteous Iudge alone:

He putteth downe the one, and sets
another in the throne.

7 For why, a cup of mightie wine,
is in the hand of God:

And all the mightie wine therein,
himselfe doth powre abroad.

8 As for the lees and filthy dregs,
that do remaine of it,

The wicked of the earth shall drinke,
and sucke them euery whie.

9 But I will talke of God, I say,
of Iacobs God therefore:

And will not cease to celebrate his praise for euermore.

10 In sunder breake the hornes of all
vngodly men will I:

But then the hornes of righteous men,
shall be exalted high.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Sonne, and holy Ghost,
all glorie be therefore:

As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be euermore.

PSAL. LXXVI. I.H.

TO all that now in Iurie dwell,
the Lord is clearly knowne:

His Name is great in Israel,
a people of his owne.

2 At Salem he his tents hath pitcht,
to tarrie there a space:

In Sion eke he doth delight,
to make his dwelling place.

3 And there he brake both shaft & bow,
the sword, the speare, and shield:

And brake the ray to ouerthrow
in battell on the field.

4 Thou art more worthy honour Lord,
more might in thee doth lie,

Then in the strongest of the world,
that rob on mountaines hie.

5 But now the proud are spoild through and they are false on sleepe: (thee,

Through men of warre no helpe can be,
themselues they could not keepe.

6 At thy rebuke, O Iacobs God,
when thou doest them reprove:

As halfe on sleepe their chariots stood,
no horsemen once did moue.

7 For thou art dreadfull Lord indeed,
what man the courage hath
To bide thy sight, and doth not dread
when thou art in thy wrath? (heard 8 When thou doest make thy iudgements
from heauen through the ground:
Then all the earth full sore afraid,
in silence shall be found.

9 And that whē thou O Lord doest stand
in iudgement for to speake:
To saue th'afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weake.
10 The furie that in man doth raigne,
shall turne vnto thy praise:
Hereafter Lord do thou restraîne
their wrath and threats alwaies.

11 Make vowes, & pay them to our God,
ye folke that nigh him be:
Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadfull sure is he.
12 For he doth take both life and might
from Princes great of birth:
And full of terror is his sight,
to all that dwell on earth.

PSAL. LXXVII. I.H.

I With my voice to God do crie,
with heart and heartie cheare:
My voice to God I lift on hie,
and he my suite doth heare.
2 In time of grieffe I sought to God,
by night no rest I tooke:
But stretcht my hands to him abroad,
my soule comfort forsooke.

3 When I to thinke on God intead,
my trouble then is more:
I spake, but could not make an end,
my breath was stopt so sore.
4 Thou heldst mine eies alwaies frō rest,
that I therewith did wake:
With feare I am so sore oppressd,
my speech doth me forsake.

5 The daies of old in mind I cast,
and oft did thinke vpon
The times and ages that are past
full many yeares agoe.
6 By night my songs I call to mind,
once made thy praise to shew:
And with my heart much talke I find,
my spirits do search to know.

7 Will God, said I, at once for all,
cast off his people thus:
So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly vnto vs?
8 What? is his goodnesse cleane decayd,
for euer and a day?
Or is his promise now delaid?
and doth his truth decay?

9 And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold?
Or shall his wrath increase so hote,
his mercies to withhold?
10 At last I said, my weaknesse is the cause of this mistrust:
Gods mightie hand can helpe all this,
and change it when he lust.

The second part.

11 I will regard and thinke vpon
the working of the Lord:
Of all his wonders past and gone,
I gladly will record.
12 Yea all his workes I will declare,
and what he did deuise:
To tell his facts I will not spare,
and eke his counsell wise.

13 Thy workes (O Lord) are all vpight,
and holy all abroad:
What one hath strength to match & might
of thee O Lord our God?
14 Thou art a God that doest forth shew
thy wonders euery heure:
And so doest make thy people know
thy vertue and thy power.

15 And thine owne folk thou dost defend with strength and stretched armes:
The sonnes of Iacob that descend,
and Iosephs seed from harme.
16 The waters Lord perceiued thee,
the waters saw thee well:
And they for feare away did flee,
the depths on trembling fell.

17 The clouds that were both thicke and did raine full plenteously: (olacke,
The thunder in the aire did cracke,
thy shafts abroad did flie.
18 Thy thunder in the aire was heard,
thy lightning from aboue,
With flashes great, made men afraid,
the earth did quake and moue.

19 Thy wayes within the sea do lie,
thy paths in waters deepe:
Yet none can there thy steps espie,
nor know thy paths to keepe.
20 Thou ledst thy folke vpon the land;
as sheepe on euery side.
Through Moses & through Aarons hand,
thou didst them safely guide.

PSAL. LXXVII. I.H.

At tend my people to my law,
and to my words incline:
2 My mouth shal speake strange parables
and sentences diuine.
3 Which we our selues haue heard and euen of our fathers old: (learnd
And

And which for our instruction,
our fathers haue vs told.

4 Because we should not keepe it close from them that should come after:
Who should Gods power to their race
and ali his works of wonder. (praise 5 To Iacob he commandment gaue,
how Israel should liue:
Willing our fathers should the same
vnto their children giue.

6 That they and their posteritie,
that were not sprung vp tho,
Should haue the knowledge of the law,
and teach their seed also.

7 That they might haue the better hope
in God that is aboue:
And not forget to keepe his lawes,
and his precepts in loue.

8 Not being as their fathers were,
rebellin in Gods sight:
And would not frame their wicked hearts
to know their God aright.

9 How went the people of Ephraim,
their neighbours for to spoile?
Shooting their darts the day of warre,
and yet they tooke the foile.

10 For why, they did not keep with God
the couenant that was made:
Nor yet would walk nor leade their liues
according to his trade.

11 But put into oblivion
his counsell and his will:
And all his workes most magnifiquē,
which he declared still.

The second part.

12 What wonders to our forefathers,
did he himselſe disclose
In Egypt land, within the field
that called is Thaneos?

13 He did deuide and cut the sea,
that they might passe at once:
And made the waters stand as still,
as doth an heape of stones.

14 He led them secret in a clond
by day when it was bright:
And in the night when darke it was,
with fire he gaue them light.

15 He brake the rockes in wilderness,
and gaue the people drinke,
As plentiful as when the deepes
do flow vp to the brinke.

16 He drew out riuers out of rockes,
that were both hie and hard,
Of such abundance, that no founts
to them might be compar'd.

17 Yet for all this, against the Lord
their sinne they did increase:

And stirred him that is most high,
to wrath in wilderness.

18 They tempted him within their hearts
like people of mistrust:
Requiring such a kind of meate,
as serued to their lust.

19 Saying with murmuratiō,
in their vnfaithfulnesse:
What can this God prepare for vs
a feast in wilderness?

20 Behold he strake the stony rockes,
and founts forthwith did flow:
But can he now giue to his folke
both bread and flesh also?

21 Whē God heard this, he waxed wroth
with Iacob and his seed:
So did his indignation,
on Israel proceed.

The third part.

22 Because they did not faithfully
beleue, and hope that he Could alwaies helpe and succour them
in their necessitie.

23 Wherefore he did comand the clouds,
forthwith they brake in sunder:

24 And rained downe Manna for them to a food of mickle wonder. (eate,

25 When earthly men with Angels food,
weresed at their request:

26 He bad the East wind blow away,
and brought in the Southwest.

27 And rained down flesh as thick as dust,
and fowle as thicke as sand:

28 Which he did cast amidst the place,
where all their tents did stand.

29 Then did they eate exceedingly,
and all men had their fill:
Yet more and more they did desire,
to serue their lusts and wils.

30 But as the meate was in their mouthes,
his wrath vpon them fell:

31 And flue the flower of all their youth,
and choise of Israel.

32 Yet sell they to their wonted sinne,
and still they did him griene:
For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him not beleue.

33 Their dayes therefore he shortened,
and made their honour vaine:
Their yeares did waste and passe away,
with terror and with paine.

34 But euer when he plagued them,
they sought him by and by:

35 Remēding that he was their strength
their helpe and God most hie.

36 Though in their mouthes they did but
and flatter with the Lord: (glose,
And

And with their tongues and in their hartes
dissembled euery word.

The fourth part.

37 For why, their hearts were nothing
to him nor to his trade: (bent Nor yet to keepe or to performe
the couenant that was made.
38 Yet was he still so mercifull,
when they deseru'd to die:
That he forgane them their misdeeds,
and would not them destroy.

Yea many a time he turnd his wrath,
and did himselfe aduise:
And would not suffer all his whole displeasure to arise.
39 Considering that they were but flesh,
and euen as a wind,
That passeth away, and cannot well
returne by his owne kind.

40 How oftentimes in wildernesse
did they the Lord prouoke:
How did they moue and stirre the Lord,
to plague them with his stroke?
41 Yet did they turne againe to sinne,
and tempted God estsoone:
Prescribing to the holy Lord,
what things they would haue done.

42 Not thinking of his hand and power,
nor of the day when he Deliucred them out of the hands
of their fierce enemye.
43 Nor how he wrought his miracles,
(as they themselues beheld)
In Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zoan field.

44 Nor how he turned by his power
their waters into bloud:
That no man might receiue his drinke,
at riuer nor at foud.
45 Nor how he sent them swarms of flies
which did them sore annoy:
And filld their countrey full of frogs,
which did their land destroy.

The fifth part.

46 Nor how he did commit their fruites
vnto the Caterpillar:
And all the labour of their hands,
he gaue to the Grasshopper.
47 With hailestones he destroyed their vines
so that they were all lost:
And not so much as wilde figtrees,
but he consum'd with frost.

48 And yet with hailestones once againe,
the Lord their cattell smote:
And all their flockes and herds likewise

with thunderbolts full hote.

49 He cast vpon them in his ire,
and in his fury strong,
Displeasure, wrath, and euill spirits,
to trouble them among.

50 Then to his wrath he made a way,
and spared not the least:
But gaue vnto the pestilence,
the man and eke the beast.
51 He strake also the first borne all,
that vp in Egypt came:
And all the chiefe of men and beasts,
within the tents of Ham.

52 But as for all his owne deare folke,
he did preferue and keepe:
And caried them through wildernesse,
euen like a flocke of sheepe.
53 Without all feare both safe and sound
he brought them out of thrall:
Whereas their foes with rage of seas,
were ouerwhelmed all.

54 And brought them out into the coastes
of his owne holy land:
Euen to the mount which he had got
by his strong arme and hand.
55 And there cast out the heathen folke,
and did their land deuide:
And in their tents he set the tribes
of Israel to abide.

56 Yet for all this, their God most high they stirrd and tempted still:
And would not keepe his testament,
nor yet obey his will.
57 But as their fathers turned backe,
euen so they went astray:
Much like a bow that would not bend,
but slip and start away.

The sixth part.

58 And grieved him with their hill altars,
with offerings and with fire:
And with their idols vehemently,
prouoked him to ire.
59 Therewith his wrath began againe,
to kindle in his breast:
The naughtinesse of Israel,
he did so much detest.

60 Then he forsooke the tabernacle
of Silo, where he was.
Right conuersant with earthly men,
euen as his dwelling place.
61 Then suffered he his might and power
in bondage for to stand:
And gaue the honour of his Arke
into his enemies hand.

62 And did commit them to the sword,
wroth with his heritage:

63 The yong mē were deuour'd with fire,
maides had no mariage.
64 And with the sword the Priests also did perish euery one:
And not a widow left aliuē,
their death for to bemoue.

65 And then the Lord began to wake,
like one that slept a time:
And like a valiant man of warre,
refreshed after wine.
66 With Emrods in the hinder parts,
he strake his enemies all:
And put them then vnto a shame
that was perpetuall.

67 Then he the tent and tabernacle
of Ioseph did refuse:
As for the tribe of Ephraim,
he would in no wise chuse.
68 But chose the tribe of Iehuda,
wher as he thought to dwell:
Euen the noble mount Sion,
which he did loue so well.

69 Whereas he did his Temple build,
both sumptuously and sure:
Like as the earth which he hath made,
for euer to endure.
70 Then chose he Dauid him to serue,
his people for to keepe:
Whom he tooke vp, and brought away
euen from the folds of sheepe.

71 As he did follow the Ewes with yong,
the Lord did him aduance,
To feed his people Israel,
and his inheritance.
72 Then Dauid with a faithfull heart,
his flocke and charge did feed:
And prudently with all his power,
did gouerne them in deed.

PSAL. LXXIX. I. H.

O God the Gentiles do innade
thine heritage to spoile:
Ierusalem an heape is made,
thy Temple they defoile.

2 The bodies of thy Saints most deare,
abroad to birds they cast:
The flesh of them that do thee feare,
the beasts deuoure and waste.

3 Their blood throughout Ierusalem,
as water spilt they haue:
So that there is not one of them;
to lay their dead in graue.

4 Thus are we made a mocking flocke,
almost the world throughout:
The enemies at vs ielt and mocke,
which dwell our coasts about.

5 Wilt thou (O Lord) thus in thine ire,

against vs euer fume?

And shew thy wrath as hote as fire,
thy folke for to consume?

6 Vpon those people powre the same,
which did thee neuer know.

All realmes which call not on thy Name,
consume and ouerthrow.

7 For they haue got the vpper hand,
and Iacobs seed destroyed:
His habitation and his land
they haue left waste and void.

8 Beare not in mind our former faults,
with speed some pitie show:
And aide vs Lord in all assaults,
for we are weake and low.

The second part.

9 O God that giuest all health and grace,
on vs declare the same:
Weigh not our workes, our finnes deface,
for honour of thy Name.

10 Why shall the wicked still alway,
to vs as people dumbe,
In thy reproach reioyce and say,
where is their God become?

Require, O Lord, as thou see'st good,
before our eyes in sight,
Of all these folke thy seruants blood,
which they spilt in despight.

21 Receiue into thy sight in haste,
the clamors, griefe and wrong,
Of such as are in prison cast,
sustaining irons strong.

Thy force and strength to celebrate,
Lord set them out of band:
Which vnto death are destinate,
and in their enemies hand.

12 The nations which haue bene so bold,
as to blaspheme thy Name:
Into their laps with seuen fold,
repay againe the same.

13 So we thy folke and pasture sheepe,
will praise thee: enermore:
And teach all nations for to keepe
for thee like praise in store.

PSAL. LXXX. I. H.

THOU Heard that Israel doest keepe,
giue care and take good heed:
Which ledest Ioseph like a sheepe,
and doest him watch and feed.

2 Thou Lord, I say, whose seate is set on Cherubins most bright:
Shew forth thy selfe, and do not let,
send downe thy beames of light.

3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin,
Manasses eke likewise:

To shew thy power do thou begin,
come, helpe vs Lord, arise.

4 Direct our hearts vnto thy grace,
conuert vs Lord to thee:

Shew vs the brightnesse of thy face,
and then full safe are we.

5 Lord God of hostes of Israel,
how long wilt thou I say,
Against thy folke in anger iwell,
and wilt not heare them pray?

6 Thou dost them feed with sorows deep,
their bread with teares they eate:
And drinke the teares that they dewcpe,
in measure full and great.

7 Thou hast vs made a very strife,
to those that dwell about:
And that our foes do loue alife,
they laugh and iest it out.

8 O take vs Lord vnto thy grace,
conuert our minds to thee:
Shew forth to vs thy ioyfull face,
and we full safe shall be.

9 From Egypt where it grew not well,
thou broughtst a vine full deare:
The heathenfolke thou didst expell,
and thou didst plant it there.

10 Thou didst prepare for it a place,
and set her rootes full fast:
That it did grow and spring apace,
and fild the land at last.

The second part.

11 The hills were couered round about with shade that from it came:
And eke the Cedars high and stout,
with branches of the same.
12 Why then didst thou her wal destroy?
her hedge pluckt vp thou hast:
That all the folke that passe thereby,
thy vine may spoile and waste.

13 The Boare out of the wood so wilde,
doth dig and roote it out:
The furious beasts out of the field,
deuoure it all about.

14 O Lord of hostes returne againe
from heauen looke betime:
Behold, and with thy helpe sustaine
this poore vineyard of thine.

15 Thy plant, I say, thine Israel,
whom thy right hand hath set:
The same which thou didst loue so well,
O Lord do not forget.

16 They lop and cut it downe apace,
they burne it eke with fire:
And through the frowning of thy face,
we perish in thine ire.

17 Let thy right hand be with them new whom thou hast kept so long:

And with the sonne of man, whom thou
to thee hast made so strong.

18 And so when thou hast set vs free,
and saued vs from shame:
Then will we neuer fall from thee,
but call vpon thy Name.

19 O Lord of hostes through thy good conuert vs vnto thee: (grace,
Behold vs with a pleasant face,
and then full safe are we.

PSAL. LXXXI. I. H.

BE light and glad, in God reioyce,
which is our strength and stay:
Be ioyfull and lift vp your voice,
to Iacobs God, I say.

2 Prepare your instruments most meete,
some ioyfull Psalme to sing:
Strike vp with Harpe and Lute so sweete,
on euery pleasant string.

3 Blow as it were in the new Moone,
with trumpets of the best:
As it is vsed to be done,
at any solemne feast.

4 For this is vnto Israel,
a statute and a trade:
A law that must be kept full well,
which Iacobs God hath made.

5 This clause with Ioseph was decreed,
when he from Egypt came:
That as a witness all his seed
should still obserue the same.

6 When God, I say, had so prepar'd,
to bring him from that land:
Whereas the speech which he had heard,
he did not vnderstand.

7 I from his shoulders tooke (saith he)
the burthen cleane away:
And from the fornage quit him free,
from burning bricke of clay.

8 When thou in grieve didst crie and call
I holpe thee by and by:
And I did answer thee withall,
in thunder secretly.

9 Yea at the waters of discord,
I did thee tempt and proue:
Whereas the goodnesse of the Lord,
with muttring thou didst moue.

10 Heare O my folke, O Israel,
and I assure it thee:
Regard and marke my words full well,
if thou wilt cleane to me.

The second part.

11 Thou shalt no god in thee reuerue
of any land abroad:

Nor in no wise to bow or serue
a strange or forren God.

12 I am the Lord thy God, and I
from Egypt set thee free:
Then aske of me abundantly,
and I will giue it thee.

13 And yet my people would not heare
my voice when that I spake:

Nor Israel would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.

14 Then did I leaue them to their will,
in hardnesse of their heart:

To walke in their owne counsels still,
themselues they might peruert.

15 O that my people would haue heard
the words that I did say:

And eke that Israel would regard
to walke within my way.

16 How soon wold I confound their foes
and bring them downe full low:

And turne my hand vpon all those
that would them ouerthrow?

17 And they that at the Lord do rage,
as slaues should seeke him till:

But of his folke the time and age
should flourish euer still.

18 I would haue fed them with the crop,
and finest of the wheate:

And made the rocke with honey drop,
that they their filis should eate.

PSAL. LXXXII. I. H.

A Mid the preasse with men of might,
the Lord himselfe doth stand,
To pleade the cause of truth and right,
with Iudges of the land.

2 How long (said he) will you proceed,
false iudgement to award:
And haue respect for loue of meed,
the wicked to regard?

3 Whereas of due, you should defend the fatherlesse and weaker:
And when the poore man doth contend,
in iudgement iustly speake.

4 If ye be wise, defend the cause
of poore men in their right:
And rid the needy from the clauies
of tyrants force and might.

5 But nothing will they know or learne,
in vaine to them I talke:
They will not see or ought discerne,
but still in darknesse walke.

6 For lo euen now the time is come,
that all things fall to nought:
And likewise lawes both all and some,
for gaine are sold and bought.

I had decreed it in my sight,

as gods to take you all:

And children to the most of might,
for loue I did you call.

7 But notwithstanding ye shall die
as men, and so decay:

O tyrants I shall you destroy,
and plucke you cleane away.

8 Vp Lord, & let thy strength be knowne,
and iudge the world with might:

For why, all nations are thine owne,
to take them as thy right.

PSAL. LXXXIII. I. H.

DO not (O God) refraine thy tongue,
in silence do not stay:

Withhold not (Lord) thy selfe so long,
nor make no more delay.

2 For why, behold my foes and see,
how they do rage and crie:
And those that beare an hate to thee,
hold vp their heads on hie.

3 Against thy folke they vse deceit,
and craftly they enquire:
For thine elect to lie in wait,
their counsell doth conspire.

4 Come on, said they, let vs expell,
and plucke these folke away:
So that the name of Israel
may vtterly decay.

5 They all conspire within their heart,
how they may thee withstand:

Against the Lord to take a part,
they are in league and band.

6 The tents of all the Edomites,
the Ismaelites also:
The Hagarens and Moabites,
with diuers other mo.

7 Gebal, with Ammon, and likewise
doth Amalec conspire:

The Philistins against thee rise,
with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 And Ashur eke is well apaid,
with them in league to be:
And doth become a fence and aide
to Lots posteritie.

9 As thou didst to the Madianites,
so serue them Lord each one:
As to Siser and to Iabin,
beside the brooke Kison.

10 When thou in Endor didst destroy,
and waste them through thy might:
That they like dung on earth did lie,
and that in open sight.

The second part.

11 Make them now and their Lords ap-
like Zeb and Oreb than: (peare,

As

As Zeba and Zalmunna were,
the kings of Madian.
12 Which said, let vs throughout the land
in all the coasts abroad,
Possesse and take into our hand,
the faire houses of God.

13 Turne them O God with stormes as
as wheels that haue no stay: (fast,
Or like the chaffe which men do cast,
with winds to flie away.
14 Like as the fire with rage and fume,
the mightie Forrests spoils:
And as the flame doth quite consume
the mountaines and the hills.

15 So let the tempest of thy wrath,
vpon their necks be laide:
And of thy stormy wind and showre,
Lord make them all afraid.
16 Lord bring them all, I thee desire,
to such rebuke and shame:
That it may cause them to enquire,
and learne to secke thy Name.

17 And let them euermore daily,
to shame and slander fall:
And in rebuke and obloquie,
to perish eke withall.
18 That they may know and feeble ful wel
that thou art called Lord:
And that alone thou doest excell,
and reigne throughout the world.

PSAL. LXXXIIII. I.H.

How pleasant is thy dwelling place,
O Lord of hoasts to me?
The Tabernacles of thy grace,
how pleasant Lord they be?
2 My soule doth long full sore to go into thy courts abroad:
My heart doth lust, my flesh also,
in thee the lining God.

3 The sparrowes find a roome to rest,
and saue themselves from wrong:
And eke the swallow hath a nest,
whereinto keepe her yong.
4 These birds full high thine altar may
haue place to sit and sing:
O Lord of hoasts, thou art I say,
my God and eke my King.

5 O they be blessed that may dwell
withyn thy house alwaies:
For they all times thy facts do tell,
and euer giue thee praise.
6 Yea happie sure likewise are they,
whose stay and strength thou art:
Which to thy house do mind the way,
and seeke it in their heart.

As they go through the vale of teares,

they dig vp fountaines fill:
That as a spring it all appeares.
and thou their pits doest fill.
7 Fro strength to strength they walk ful
no faintnesse there shall be: (fast,
And so the God of Gods at last,
in Sion they do see.

8 O Lord of hoasts to me giue heed,
and heare when I do pray:
And let it through thine eares proceed,
O Iacobs God, I say.
9 O Lord our shield, of thy good grace,
regard, and so draw neare:
Regard, I say, behold the face
of thine annointed deare.

10 For why, within thy courts one day
is better to abide,
Then other where to keepe or stay
a thousand dayes beside.
Much rather would I keepe a doore
within the house of God,
Then in the tents of wickednesse
to settle mine abode.

11 For God the Lord, light and defence,
will grace and worship giue:
And no good thing shall he withhold
from them that purely liue.
12 O Lord of hoasts, that man is blest,
and happie sure is he,
That is perswaded in his brest,
to trust all times in thee.

PSAL. LXXXV. I. H.

Thou hast bene mercifull indeed,
O Lord vnto thy land:
For thou restorest Iacobs seed,
from thraldome out of band.
2 The wicked waies that they were in,
thou didst them cleane remit:
And thou didst hide thy peoples sinne,
full close thou couerdest it.

3 Thine anger eke thou didst assuage,
that all thy wrath was gone:
And so didst turne thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.
4 O God our health, do now conuert
thy people vnto thee:
Put all thy wrath from vs apart,
and angrie cease to be.

5 Why, shall thine anger neuer end,
but still proceed on vs?
And shall thy wrath it selfe extend,
vpon all ages thus?
6 Wilt thou not rather turne therefore,
and quicken vs, that we
And all thy folke may euermore
be glad and ioy in thee?

7 O Lord on vs do thou declare thy goodnesse to our wealth:
Shew forth to vs, and do not spare,
thine aide and sauing health.
8 I will hearke what God saith, for he speakes to his people peace:
And to his Saints, that neuer they
returne to foolishnesse.

9 For why, his helpe is still at hand,
to such as do him feare:
Whereby great glorie in our land shall dwell and flourish there.
10 For truth and mercie there shall meete
in one to take their place:
And peace and iustice with kisse greete,
and there they shall embrace.

11 As truth from earth shall spring apace
and flourish pleasantly:
So righteousnesse shall shew her face,
and looke from heauen hie.
12 Yea God himselfe doth take in hand
to giue vs each good thing:
And through the coasts of all the land,
the earth her fruites shall bring.

13 Before his face shall iustice go,
much like a guide or stay:
He shall direct his steps also,
and keepe them in the way.

PSAL. LXXXVI. I. H.

Lord how thine eare to my request,
and heare me by and by:
With grievous paine and gracie oppress,
full poore and weake am I.
2 Preserue my soule, because my waies
and doings holy be:
And saue thy seruant O my Lord,
that puts his trust in thee.

3 Thy mercie Lord on me expresse,
defend me eke withall,
For through the day I do not cease,
on thee to crie and call.
4 Comfort (O Lord) thy seruants soule,
that now with paine is pin'd:
For vnto thee (Lord) I extoll,
and lift my soule and mind.

5 For thou art good and bountifull,
thy gifts of grace are free:
And eke thy mercie plentifull,
to all that call on thee.
6 O Lord likewise when I do pray,
regard and giue an eare:
Marke well the words that I do say,
and all my prayers heare.

7 In time when trouble doth me moue,
to thee I do complaine:
For why, I know and well do prone,

thou answerest me againe.
8 Among the gods, O Lord is none,
with thee to be compar'd:
And none can do as thou alone,
the like hath not bene heard.

The second part.

9 The Gentiles and the people all,
which thou didst make and frame,
Before thy face on knees will fall,
and glorifie thy Name.
10 For why, thou art so much of might,
all power is thine owne:
Thou workest wonders still in sight,
for thou art God alone.

11 O teach me Lord thy way, and I shall in thy truth proceed:
O ioyne my heart to thee so nie,
that I thy Name may dread.
12 To thee my God will I giue praise,
with all my heart O Lord:
And glorifie thy Name alwaies,
for euer through the world.

13 For why, thy mercie shewd to me,
is great, and doth excell:
Thou setst my soule at libertie,
out from the lower hell.
14 O Lord the proud against me rise,
and heapes of men of might:
They seeke my soule, and in no wise
will haue thee in their sight.

15 Thou Lord art mercifull and meeke,
full slacke and slow to wrath:
Thy goodnesse is full great, and eke
thy truth no measure hath.
16 O turne to me and mercie grant,
thy strength to me apply:
O helpe and saue thine owne seruant,
thy handmaids sonne am I.

17 On me some signe of fauour shew,
that all my foes may see,
And be asham'd, because (Lord) thou
doest helpe and comfort me.

PSAL. LXXXVII. I. H.

That Citie shall full well endure,
her groundworke still doth stay
Vpon the holy hills full sure,
It can no time decay.
2 God loues the gates of Sion best,
his grace doth there abide:
He loues them more then all the rest of Iacobs tents beside.

3 Full glorious things reported be in Sion and abroad:
Great things, I say, are said of thee,
thou Citie of our God.

4 On Rahab I will cast an eye,
and beare in mind the same:
And Babylon shall eke apply,
and learne to know thy Name.

5 Lo Palestine and Tyre also,
with Ethiopie likewise,
A people old full long ago
were borne and there did rise.

6 Of Sion they shall say abroad,
that diuers men of fame,
Haue there sprung vp, and the high God
hath founded fast the same.

7 In their records to them it shall through Gods deuice appeare,
Of Sion that the chiefe of all
had his beginning there.

8 The trumpeters with such as sing,
therein great plentie be:
My fountaines and my pleasant springs,
are compast all in thee.

PSAL. LXXXVIII. I.H.

Lord God of health, the hope and stay,
thou art alone to me:
I call and crie throughout the day,
and all the night to thee.

2 O let my prayer soone ascend,
vnto thy sight on hie:
Incline thine eare, O Lord attend,
and hearken to my crie.

3 For why, with woe my heart is fild,
and doth in trouble dwell:
My life and breath almost doth yeeld,
and draweth nigh to hell.

4 I am esteemd as one of them,
that in the pit do fall:
And made as one among those men,
that haue no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead, and free
from things that here remaine:
It were more ease for me to be
with them the which are staine.

6 As those that be in graue I say,
whom thou hast cleane forgot:
The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regardst them not.

7 Yea like to one shut vp full sure,
within the lower pit:
In places darke and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.

8 Thine anger and thy wrath likewise,
full sore on me doth lie:
And all thy stormes against me rise,
my soule to vex and trie.

9 Thou putst my friends far off from me
and mak'st them hate me sore:
I am shut vp in prison fast,

and can come forth no more. (woe,
10 My sight doth faint through griefe &
I call to thee O God:
Throughout the day my hands also,
to thee I stretch abroad.

The second part.

11 Doeſt thou vnto the dead declare thy wondrous workes of fame?

Shall dead to life againe repaire,
and praise thee for the same?

12 Or shall thy louing kindnesse Lord,
be preached in the graue:
Or shall with them that are deſtroyd,
thy truth her honour haue?

13 Shall they that lie in darke full low,
of all thy wonders wor?

Or there shall they thy iuſtice know,
where all things are forgot?

14 But I O Lord to thee alwaies
do crie and call apace:

My prayer eke ere it be day,
shall come before thy face.

15 Why doeſt thou Lord abhorre my
in griefe that ſeeketh thee? (ſoule,
And now O Lord why doeſt thou hide
thy face away from me?

16 I am aſſict as dying ſtill,
from youth this many a yeare:
The terrors which do vex me ill,
with troubled mind I beare.

17 The furies of thy wrathfull rage,
full ſore vpon me fall:

Thy terrors eke do not aſſwage,
but me ſuppreſſe withall.

18 All day they compaſſe me about,
as water at the tide:
And all at once with ſtreames full ſtout,
beſet me on each ſide.

19 Thou ſetteſt farre from me my friends,
and louers enery one:

Yea and my old acquaintance all,
out of my ſight are gone.

PSAL. LXXXIX. I.H.

TO ſing the mercies of the Lord,
my tongue ſhall neuer ſpare:
And with my mouth from age to age,
thy truth I will declare.

2 For I haue ſaid that mercie ſhall
for euermore remaine:
In that thou doeſt the heauens ſtay,
thy truth appeareth plaine.

3 To mine eleſt, ſaith God, I made a couenant and beſeſt:
My ſeruant David to perſwade,
I ſwore and did preteſt.

4 Thy seed for ever I will stay,
and stablish it full fast:
And still vphold thy throne alway
from age to age to last.

5 The heauens shew with ioy and mirth,
thy wondrous workes O Lord:
Thy Saints within thy Church on earth,
thy faith and truth record.

6 Who with the Lord is equall then,
in all the clouds abroad?
Among the sonnes of all the gods,
what one is like our God?

7 God in assembly of the Saints,
is greatly to be drad:
And ouer all that dwell about,
in terror to he had.

8 Lord God of hostis, in all the world,
what one is like to thee?
On euery side most mighty Lord,
thy truth is seene to be.

9 The raging sea by thine aduise,
thou rulest at thy will:
And when the waues thereof arise,
thou makest them calme and still.

10 And Egypt Lord thou hast subdued,
and thou hast it destroyed:
Yea thou thy foes with mighty arme
hast scattered all abroad.

The second part.

11 The heauens are thine, and still haue
likewise the earth and land: (bene,
The world and all that is therein,
thou foundedst with thy hand.

12 Both North and South, with East &
thy selfe didst make & frame: (West,
Both Tabor mount and eke Hermon,
reioyce and praise thy Name.

13 Thine arme is strong & full of power
all might therein doth lie:
The strength of thy right hand each houre
thou liftest vp on hie.

14 In righteousness and equitie,
thou hast thy seate and place:
Mercie and truth are still with thee,
and go before thy face.

15 That folke is blest that knoweth a-thy present power O God: (right,
For in the fauour of thy sight,
they walke full safe abroad.

16 For in thy Name throughout the day
they ioy and much reioyce:
And through thy righteousness haue they
a pleasant fame and noise.

17 For why their glory, strength, and aid,
in thee alone doth lie:
Thy goodnesse eke that hath vs staid,
shall lift our horne on hie.

18 Our strength that doth defend vs wel
the Lord to vs doth bring:
The holy one of Israel,
he is our guide and King.

19 Sometimes thy will vnto thy Saints,
in visions thou didst show:
And thus then didst thou say to them,
thy mind to make them know.

20 A man of might I haue erect,
your king and guide to be:
And set him vp whom I elect,
among the folke to me.

The third part.

21 My seruant Dauid I appoint,
whom I haue searched out:
And with my holy oyle annoint
him king of all the rout.

22 For why, my hand is ready still,
with him for to remaine:
And with my arme also I will
him strengthen and sustaine.

23 The enemies shall not him oppresse,
they shall him not deuoure:
Ne yet the sonnes of wickednesse,
shall haue of him no power.

24 His foes likewise I will destroy,
before his face in fight:
And those that hate him I will plague,
and strike them with my might.

25 My truth and mercie eke withall,
shall still vpon him lie:
And in my Name his horne eke shall be lifted vp on hie.

26 His kingdome I will set to be
vpon the sea and land:
And eke the running fouds shall he embrace with his right hand.

27 He shall depend with all his heart
on me, and thus shall say:
My Father and my God thou art,
my rocke of health and stay.

28 As my first borne I will him take,
of all on earth that springs:
His might and honour I will make,
aboue all earthly kings.

29 My mercie shall be with him still,
as I my selfe haue told:
My faithfull couenant so fulfill,
my mercie I will hold.

30 And eke his seede will I sustaine,
for ever strong and sure:
So that his seate shall still remaine,
while heauen doth endure.

The fourth part.

31 If that his sonnes forsake my law,
and so begin to swerue;

And

And of my iudgements haue none awe,
nor will not them obserue:
31 Or if they do not vse aright,
my statutes to them made:
And set all my commandments light,
and will not keepe my trade:
33 Then with the rod will I begin,
their doings to amend:
And so with scourging for their sinne,
when that they do offend.
34 My mercie yet and my goodnesse,
I will not take him fro:
Nor handle him with craftiuesse,
and so my truth forgo.
35 But sure my conenant I will hold,
with all that I haue spoke:
No word the which my lips haue told,
shall alter or be broke.
36 Once sware I by my holinesse,
and that performe will I:
With Dauid I shall keepe promise,
to him I will not lie.
37 His seed for euermore shall raigne,
and eke his throne of might:
As doth the Sunne it shall remaine
for euer in my sight.
38 And as the Moone within the skie,
for euer standeth fast,
A faithfull witnesse from on hie,
so shall his kingdome last.
39 But now O Lord thou doest reiect,
and now thou changest cheare:
Yea thou art wrath with thine elect,
thine owne annointed deare.
40 The conenant with thy seruant made,
Lord thou hast quite vndone:
And downe vpon the ground also hast cast his royall crowne.

The first part.

(might,

41 Thou pluckst his hedges vp with his wals thou doest confound:
Thou beatest eke his bulwarks downe,
and breakst them to the ground.
42 That he is fore destroyed and torne,
of comers by throughout:
And so is made a mocke and scorne,
to all that dwell about.
43 Thou their right hand hast lifted vp,
that him so sore annoy:
And all his foes that him deuoure,
loe thou hast made to ioy.
44 His sword's edge thou doest take away
that should his foes withstand:
To him in warre no victorie
thou giuest, nor vpper hand.
45 His glorie thou doest also waste:
his throne, his ioy, and mirth,

By thee is onerthrowne and cast
full low vpon the earth.
45 Thou hast cut off and made full short
his youth and lustie dayes:
And raise of him an ill report,
with shame and great dispraise.
47 How long away from me O Lord,
for euer wilt thou turne?
And shall thine anger still alway
as fire consume and burne?
48 O call to minde, remember then,
my time consumed fast:
Why hast thou made the sonnes of men,
as things in vaine to waste?
49 What man is he that lieth here,
and death shall neuer see?
Or from the hard of hell his soule
shall he deliuer free?
50 Where is (O Lord) thine old goodnes
so oft declar'd before?
Which by thy truth and vprightness,
to Dauid thou hast sworne.
51 The great rebukes to mind I call,
that on thy seruants lie:
The railings of the people all,
borne in my brast haue I.
52 Wherewith O Lord thine enemies
blasphemed haue thy Name:
The steps of thine annointed one
they ceasse not to defame.
53 All praise to thee O Lord of boasts,
both now and eke for aye:
Through skie and earth, and all the coasts
Amen, Amen, I say.

PSAL. XC. I. H.

THOU Lord hast bene our sure defence,
our place of ease and rest:
In all time past, yea so long since,
as cannot be exprest.
2 Ere there was made mountaine or hill,
the earth and world abroad:
From age to age and alwaies still,
for euer thou art God.
3 Thou grindest man through grieve and to dust or clay, and then, (paine,
And then thou saist againe, returne
againe yesonnes of men.
4 The lasting of a thousand yeares,
what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it doth appeare,
or as a watch by night.
5 So soone as thou doest scatter them,
then is their life and trade,
All as a sleepe, and like the grasse
whose beautie soone doth fade.

6 Which

6 Which in the morning shines full
but fadeth by and by: (bright,
And is cut down ere it be night,
all withered, dead and drie.

7 For through thine anger we consume,
our might is much decayd:
And of thy feruent wrath and fume,
we are full fore afraid. (wrought,
8 The wicked workes that we haue
thou setst before thine eye:
Our priue faults, yea eke our thoughts,
thy countenance doth spie.

(waste,
9 For through thy wrath our dayes do thereof doth nought remaine:
Our yeares consume as words or blasts,
and are not cald againe.
10 Our time is threescore yeares & ten,
that we do liue on mold:
If one see fourescore, surely then
we count him wondrous old.

The second part.

11 Yet of this time the strength and the which we count vpon, (chiefe
Is nothing else but painefull griefe,
and we as blasts are gone. (there, 12 Who once doth know what strength is what might thine anger hath?
Or in his heart who doth thee feare,
according to thy wrath?

13 Instruct vs Lord to know and trie,
how long our daies remaine:
That then we may our hearts apply,
true wisdom to attaine.

14 Returne O Lord, how long wilt thou forth on in wrath proceed?
Shew fauour to thy seruants now,
and helpe in time of need.

15 Refresh vs with thy mercies soone,
and then our ioy shall be:
All times so long as life doth last,
in heart reioyce shall we.

16 As thou hast plagued vs before,
now also make vs glad:
And for the yeares wherein full sore affliction we haue had.

17 O let thy worke and power appeare,
and on thy seruants light:
And shew vnto thy children deare,
thy glorie and thy might.

18 Lord let thy grace and glorie stand,
on vs thy seruants thus:
Confirm the workes we take in hand,
Lord prosper them to vs.

PSAL. XCI I.H.

HE that within the secret place,
of God most high doth dwell:

In shadow of the mightiest grace,
at rest shall keepe him well.

2 Thou art my hope and my strong hold,
I to the Lord will say:
My God is he, in him will I
my whole affiance stay.

3 He shall defend thee from the snare,
the which the hunter laid:
And from the deadly plague and care,
whereof thou art afraid.

4 And with his wings will cover thee,
and keepe thee safely there:
His faith and truth thy fence shall be,
as sure as shield and speare.

5 So that thou shalt not need I say,
to feare or be affright
Of all the shafts that flie by day,
nor terrors of the night:

6 Nor of the plague that prinly
doth walke in darke so fast:
Nor yet of that which doth destroy,
and at noone day doth waste.

7 Yea, at thy side as thou doest stand,
a thousand dead shall be:
Ten thousand eke at thy right hand,
and yet thou shalt be free.

8 But thou shalt see it for thy part,
thine eyes shall well regard:
That euen like to their deserts,
the wicked haue reward.

9 For why, O Lord, I onely lust,
to stay my hope on thee:
And in the Highest I put my trust,
my sure defence is he.

10 Thou shalt not need none ill to feare,
with thee it shall not mell,
Nor yet the plague shall once come neare
the house where thou doest dwell:

11 For why, vnto his Angels all,
with charge commanded he:
That still in all thy waies they shall,
preserue and prosper thee.

12 And in their hands shall thee beare vp,
still waiting thee vpon:
So that thy foote shall neuer chance
to spurne at any stone.

13 Vpon the Lions thou shalt go,
the Adder fell and long:
And tread vpon the Lion yong,
with dragons stout and strong.

14 For he that trusteth vnto me,
I will dispatch him quire:
And him defend, because that he doth know my Name aright.

15 When he for helpe on me doth crie,
an answer I will giue:
And from his griefe take him will I,

in glorie for to liue, (wealth, 16 With length of yeares, and dayes of
I will fulfill his time:
The goodnesse of my sauing health,
I will declare to him.

PSAL. XCII. I.H.

IT is a thing both good and meete,
to praise the highest Lord:
And to thy Name O thou most high,
to sing with one accord.
2 To shew the kindnesse of the Lord,
become ere day he light:
And eke declare his truth abroad,
when it doth draw to night.

3 Vpon ten stringed instruments,
on Lute and Harpe so sweete:
With all the mirth you can inuent
of instruments most meete.

4 For thou hast made me to reioyce
in things so wrought by thee:
And I haue ioy in heart and voice,
thy handie workes to see.

5 O Lord how glorious and how great,
are all thy workes so stout?
So deeply are thy counsels set,
that none can trie them out.

6 The man vnwise hath not the wit,
this geare to passe to bring:
And all such fooles are nothing fit,
to vnderstand this thing.

7 When so the wicked at their will,
as grasse do spring full fast:
They when they flourish in their ill,
for euer shall be waste.

8 But thou art mightie Lord most high,
yea thou dost reigne therefore:
In euery time eternally,
both now and euermore.

9 For why, O Lord behold and see,
behold thy foes I say:
How all that worke iniquitie
shall perish and decay.

10 But thou like as an Vnicorne,
shalt lift mine horne on hie,
With fresh and new prepared oyle, thineointed king am I.

11 And of my foes before mine eies,
shall see the fall and shame:
Of all that vp against me rise,
mine eare shall heare the same.

12 The iust shall flourish vp on hie,
as Date trees bud and blow:
And as the Cedars multiply,
in Libanus that grow.

13 For they are planted in the place,
and dwelling of our God:

Within his courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad.

14 And in their age much fruite shall both fat and well becene: (bring,
And pleasantly both bud and spring,
with boughes and branches greene.

15 To shew that God is good and iust,
and vpright in his will:
He is my rocke, my hope and trust,
in him there is none ill.

PSAL. XCIII. I.H.

THe Lord as King aloft doth raigne,
with glory goodly dight:
And he to shew his strength and maine,
hath girt himselfe with might.
2 The Lord likewise the earth hath made,
and shapen it so sure,
No might can make it moue or fade,
at stay it doth endure.

3 Ere y the world was made or wrought
thy feare was set before:
Beyond all times that can be thought,
thou hast bene euermore.

4 The fouds O Lord, the fouds arise,
they roare and make a noise:
The fouds (I say) did enterprise,
and lifted vp their voice.

5 Yea though the stormes arise in sight,
though seas do rage and swell:
The Lord is strong and more of might,
for he on high doth dwell.

6 And looke what promise he doth make his household to defend:
For iust and true they shall it take,
all times withouten end.

PSAL. XCIII. I.H.

O Lord thou doest reuenge all wrong,
that office longs to thee:
Sith vengeance doth to thee belong,
declare that all may see.

2 Set forth thy selfe, for thou of right,
the earth doest iudge and guide:
Reward the proud and men of might,
according to their pride.

3 How long shall wicked men beare sway
with lifting vp their voice?
How long shall wicked men, I say,
thus triumph and reioyce?

4 How long shall they with brags burst
and proudly prate their fill: (out, Shall they reioyce that be so stout,
whose workes are euer ill?

5 Thy flocke O Lord, thine heritage,
they spoile and vex full sore:
Against thy people they do rage,

still

- still daily more and more.
 6 The widowes which are comfortlesse,
 and strangers they destroy:
 They slay the children fatherlesse,
 and none do put them by.
 7 And whē they take these things in hand
 this talke they haue of thee:
 Can Jacobs God this vnderstand?
 tush no, he cannot see.
 8 ~~8~~ folke vnwise and people rude,
 some knowledge now discernē:
 Ye fooles among the multitude,
 at length begin to learne.
 9 The Lord which made the eare of man,
 he needs of right must heare:
 He made the eye, all things must then
 before his sight appeare.
 10 The Lord doth all the world correct,
 and make them vnderstand:
 Shall he not then your deeds detect,
 how can ye scape his hand?

The second part.

- 11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of his heart he sees full plaine: (man,
 The Lord I say, mans thoughts doth scan,
 and findeth them but vaine.
 12 But Lord that man is happie sure,
 whom thou doest keepe in awe,
 And through correction doest procure
 to teach him in thy law.
 13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest,
 in time of trouble sit:
 When wicked men shall be suppress,
 and fall into the pit.
 14 For sure the Lord will not refuse,
 his people for to take:
 His heritage whom he did chuse,
 he will no time forsake.
 15 Vntill that indgement be decreed,
 to iustice to conuert,
 That all may follow her with speed,
 that are of vpriht heart.
 16 But who vpon my part shall stand,
 against the cursed traine?
 Or who shall rid me from their hand,
 that wicked workes maintaine?
 17 Except the Lord had benemine aide,
 mine enemies to repell:
 My soule and life had now bene laid
 almost as low as hell.
 18 When I did say, my foote did slide,
 I now am like to fall:
 Thy goodnesse Lord did so prouide,
 to stay me vp withall.
 19 When with my selfe I mused much,
 and could no comfort finde:

Then Lord thy goodnesse did me touch,
 and that did ease my minde.
 20 Wilt thou inhauēt thy selfe, & draw with wicked men to sit:
 Which with pretence in stead of law,
 much mischief do commit?

- 21 For they consult against the life
 of righteous men and good:
 And in their counsels they are rife
 to shed the guiltlesse blood.
 22 But yet the Lord he is to me
 a strong defence or locke:
 He is my God, to him I flee,
 he is my strength and rocke.
 23 And he shall cause their mischief all,
 themselves for to annoy:
 And in their malice they shall fall,
 our God shall them destroy.

PSAL. XCV. LH.

○ Come let vs lift vp our voice,
 and sing vnto the Lord:

- In him our rocke of health and ioyce
 let vs with one accord.
 2 Yea let vs come before his face,
 to giue him thanks and praise:
 In singing Psalmes vnto his grace,
 let vs be glad alwaies.
 3 For why, the Lord he is no doubt,
 a great and mightie God:
 A King aboue all gods throughout,
 in all the world abroad.
 4 The secrets of the earth so deepe,
 and corners of the land:
 The tops of hills that be so steepe,
 he hath them in his hand.
 5 The sea and waters all are his,
 for he the same hath wrought:
 The earth and all that therein is,
 his hand hath made of nought.
 6 Come let vs bow and praise the Lord,
 before him let vs fall:
 And kneele to him with one accord,
 the which hath made vs all.
 7 For why, he is the Lord our God,
 for vs he doth prouide:
 We are his flocke, he doth vs feed,
 his sheepe, and he our guide.
 8 To day if ye his voice will heare,
 then harden not your heart:
 As ye with grudging many a yeare
 prouokt him in desert.
 9 Whereas your fathers tempted me,
 my power for to proue:
 My wondrous workes when they did see,
 yet still they would me moue.

10 Twise twenty years they did me grieue
and I to them did say:
They erre in heart, and not beleue,
they haue not knowne my way.

11 Wherefore I sware, when that my was kindled in my breitt: (wrath
That they should neuer tread the path,
to enter in my rest.

PSAL. XCVI. I. H.

Sing yewith praise vnto the Lord,
new songs with ioy and mirth:
Sing vnto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.

2 Yea sing vnto the Lord, I say,
praise ye his holy Name:
Declare and shew from day to day,
saluation by the same.

3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about:
To shew his wonders do not spare,
in all the world throughout.
4 For why, the Lord is much of might,
and worthy praise alway:
And he is to be dread of right,
aboue all gods, I say.

5 For all the gods of heathen folke,
are idols that will fade:
But yet our God he is the Lord,
that hath the heauens made.
6 All praise and honour eke do dwell,
for aye before his face:
Both power and might likewise excell,
within his holy place.

7 Ascribe vnto the Lord alway,
ye people of the world,
All might and worship eke I say,
ascribe vnto the Lord.
8 Ascribe vnto the Lord also,
the glorie of his Name:
And eke vnto his courts do go
with gifts vnto the same.

The second part.

9 Fall downe and worship ye the Lord,
within his Temple bright:
Let all the people of the world,
be fearefull of his sight.
10 Tell all the world, be not agast,
the Lord doth reigne aboue:
Yea he hath set the earth so fast,
that it doth neuer moue.

11 And that it is the Lord alone,
that rules with princely might:
To iudge the nations euery one,
with equitie and right.
12 The heauens shall great ioy begin,
the earth eke shall reioyce:

The sea with all that is therein,
shall shout and make a noise.

13 The field shall ioy, and euery thing
that springeth on the earth:
The wood and euery tree shall sing
with gladnesse and with mirth.
14 Before the presence of the Lord,
and coming of his might:
When he shall iustly iudge the world,
and rule his folke with right.

PSAL. XCVII. I. H.

The Lord doth reigne, wherat the earth
may ioy with pleasant voice:
And eke the Isles with ioyfull mirth,
may triumph and reioyce.

2 Both clouds and darknesse eke do swel
and round about him beate:
Yea right and iustice ener dwell,
and bide about his seate.

3 Yea fire and heate at once do runne,
and go before his face:
Which shall his foes and enemies burne,
abroad in euery place. (blaze,
4 His lightnings eke full bright did
and to the world appeare:
Wherat the earth did looke and gaze,
with dread and deadly feare.

5 The hills like waxe did melt in sight
and preface of the Lord:
They fled before that rulers might,
which guideth all the world.
6 The heauens eke declare and shew
his iustice forth abroad:
That all the world may see and know
the glory of our God.

7 Confusion sure shall come to such,
as worship idols vaine:
And eke to those that glorie much,
dumbe pictures to maintaine.
8 For all the idols of the world,
which they as gods do call,
Shall feeble the power of the Lord,
and downe to him shall fall.

9 With ioy shall Sion heare this thing,
and Iuda shall reioyce:
For at thy iudgements they shall sing,
and make a pleasant noise.
10 That thou O Lord art set on high,
in all the earth abroad:
And art exalted wondrously,
aboue each other god.

11 All ye that loue the Lord, do this,
hate all things that are ill:
For he doth keepe the foules of his,
from such as would them spill.
12 And light doth spring vp to the iust,
with pleasure for his part:

Great

Great ioy with gladnesse, mirth and lust,
to them of vpright heart.

13 Ye righteous in the Lord reioyce,
his holinesse proclaime:
Be chaunkfull eke with heart and voice,
and mindefull of the same.

PSAL. XCVIII. I. H.

O Sing ye now vnto the Lord,
a new and pleasant song: (world,
For he hath wrought throughout the
his wonders great and strong.

2 With his right hand full worthily,
he doth his foes deuoure:
And get him selfe the victorie
with his owne arme and power.

3 The Lord doth make the people know his sauing health and might:
The Lord doth eke his iustice shew,
in all the heathens sight.

4 His grace and truth to I rael,
in mind he doth record:
That all the earth hath seene right well
the goodnesse of the Lord.

5 Be glad in him with ioyfull voyce,
all people of the earth:
Giue thanks to God, sing and reioyce
to him with ioy and mirth.

6 Vpon the Harpe vnto him sing,
giue thanks to him with Psalmes:
Reioyce before the Lord our King,
with trumpets and with Shalmes.

7 Yea let the sea with all therein,
for ioy both roare and swell:
The earth likewise let it begin,
with all that therein dwell.

8 And let the founts reioyce their firs,
and clap their hands apace:
And eke the mountaines and the hills,
before the Lord his face.

9 For he shall come to iudge and trie
the world and euery wight:
And rule the people mightily
with iustice and with right.

PSAL. XCIX. I. H.

The Lord doth reigne, although at it
the people rage full fore:
Yea he on Cherubias doth sit,
though all the world doth rore.

2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell,
is high and wondrous great:
Abooue all folke he doth excell,
and he aloft is set.

3 Let all men praise thy mightie Name,
for it is fearefull sure:

And let them magnifie the same,
that holy is and pure.

4 The princely power of our King
doth loue iudgement and right:
Thou rightly relect euery thing,
in Iacob through thy might.

5 To praise the Lord our God deuise,
all honour to him do:
Before his footstoole worship him,
for he is holy too.

6 Moses, Aaron, and Samuel,
as Priests on him did call:
When they did pray, he heard them well,
and gaue them answer all.

7 Within a cloud to them he spake,
then did they labour still,
To keepe such lawes as he did make,
and pointed them vntill.

8 O Lord our God, thou didst them heare
and answeredst them againe:

9 Thy mercie did on them appeare,
their deeds didst not maintaine.

10 O laud and praise our God and Lord,
within his holy hill:
For why, our God throughout the world
is holy euer still.

PSALME C. I. H.

All people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with cheareful voices:
Him serue with feare, his praise forth tell:
Come ye before him and reioyce.

3 The Lord ye know is God indeed, without our aide he did vs make:
We are his flocke, he doth vs feed,
and for his sheepe he doth vs take.

4 O enter then his gates with praise,
approch with ioy his courts vnto:
Praise, laud and blesse his Name alwaies,
for it is seemely so to do.

5 For why, the Lord our God is good,
his mercie is for euer sure:
His truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same by J. H.

IN God the Lord be glad and light,
praise him throughout the earth:
Serue him, and come before his sight,
with singing and with mirth.

2 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did vs make and keepe:
Not we our selues: for we are his owne flocke and pasture sheepe.

3 O go into his gates alwaies,

giue

giue thanks within the same:
Within his courts set forth his praise,
and laud his holy Name.
4 For why, the goodnesse of the Lord
for euermore doth raigne:
From age to age throughout the world,
his truth doth still remaine.

PSAL. C I. N.

I Mercie will and iudgement sing,
O Lord God vnto thee:
2 And wisely do in perfect way,
vntill thou come to me.
And in the midst of my house walke,
in purenesse of my spirit:
3 And I no kinde of wicked thing
will set before my sight.
4 I hate their workes that fall away,
it shall not cleaue to me:
From me shall part the froward heart,
none euill will I see.
5 Him will I stroy that slandereth
his neighbour priuily:
The loftie heart I cannot beare,
nor him that looketh hie.
6 Mine eies shall be on them within
the land that faithfull be:
In perfect way who walketh, shall be seruant vnto me.
7 I will no guilefull person haue,
within my house to dwell:
And in my presence he shall not
remaine that lies doth tell.
8 Betime I will destroy euen all
the wicked of the land:
That I may from Gods citie cut
the wicked workers hand.

PSAL CII. I. H.

O Heare my prayer Lord, and let
my crie come vnto thee:
2 In time of trouble do not hide
thy face away from me.
3 Incline thine eare to me, make haste
to heare me when I call:
For as the sinoake doth fade, so do
my dayes consume and fall.
4 And as a harth my bones are burnt,
my heart is smitten dead:
And withers as the grasse, that I forget to eate my bread.
5 By reason of my groning voice,
my bones cleaue to my skin:
6 As Pellican in wiluernesse,
such case now am I in.

And as an owle in desert is,
lo I am such a one:
7 I watch, and as a sparrow on the house top am alone.

8 Lo daily in reprochfull wise,
mine enemies do me scorne:
And they that do againe me rage,
agairst me they haue sworne,
9 Surely with ashes as with bread,
my hunger I haue filld:
And mingled haue my drinke with teares,
that from mine eies haue itild.
10 Because of thy displeasure Lord,
thy wrath and thy disdain:
For thou hast lifted me aloft,
and cast me downe againe.

11 The daies wherein I passe my life,
are like the fleeting shade:
And I am withered like the grasse,
that soone away doth fade, 12 But thou O Lord for euer doest
remaine in steadie place:
And thy remembrance euer doth
abide from race to race.

The second part.

13 Thou wilt arise, and mercie thou
to Sion wilt extend:
The time of mercie, now the time
foreset is come to end.
14 For euen in the stones thereof,
thy seruants do delight:
And on the dust thereof they haue compassion in their sprite.
15 Then shall the heathen people feare
the Lords most holy Name:
And all the kings on earth shall dread
thy glorie and thy fame.
16 Then when the Lord the mighty God,
againe shall Sion reare:
And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appeare.

17 To prayer of the desolate,
when he himselfe shall bend:
When he shall not disdain vnto
their prayers to attend.
18 This shall be written for the age,
that after shall succeed:
The people yet vncreated,
the Lords renowne shall spread.

19 For he from his high sanctuarie
hath looked downe below:
And out of heauen hath the Lord
beheld the earth also:
2 That of the mourning captiue, he might heare the wofull crie:
And that he might deliuer those,
that damned are to die.

21 That they in Sion may declare
the Lords most holy Name:
And in Ierusalem set forth
the praises of the same.

22 Then when the people of the land,
and kingdomes with accord,
Shall be assembled for to do their seruice to the Lord.

The third part.

23 My former force of strength he hath abated in the way:

And shorter he did cut my daies,
thus I therefore did say.

24 My God, in midst of all my daies,
now take me not away:

Thy yeares endure eternally,
from age to age I say.

25 Thou the foundations of the earth
before all times hast laide:

And Lord the heauens are the worke
which thine owne hands haue made.

26 Yea they shall perish and decay,
but thou shalt carrie still:

And they shall all in time waxe old,
euen as a garment will.

27 Thou as a garment shalt them change
and changed shall they be:

But thou dost still abide the same,
thy yeares do neuer see.

28 The children of thy seruants shall continually endure:

And in thy sight their happie seed
for euer shall stand sure.

PSAL. CIIII T.S.

MY soule giue laud vnto the Lord,
my spirit shall do the same:

And all the secrets of my heart,
praise ye his holy Name.

2 Gine thanks to God for all his gifts,
shew not thy selfe vnkind:

And suffer not his benefites
to slip out of thy mind.

3 That gaue thee pardon for thy faults,
and thee restor'd againe:

For all thy weake and fraile disease,
and heald thee of thy paine.

4 That did redeeme thy life from death,
from which thou couldst not flee:

His mercie and compassion both,
he did extend to thee.

5 That filld with goodnesse thy desire,
and did prolong thy youth:

Like as the Eagle casts her bill,
whereby her age renewth.

6 The Lord with iustice doth repay
all such as be opprest:

So that their sufferings and their wrongs
are turned to the best.

7 His wailes and his commandements
to Moses he did show:

His counsels and his valiant acts
the Israelites did know.

8 The Lord is kind and mercifull,
when sinners do him grieve:

The slowest to conceiue a wrath,
and readiest to forgieue.

9 He chides not vs continually,
though we be full of strife:

Nor keeps our faults in memory,
for all our sinfull life.

10 Nor yet according to our sinnes,
the Lord doth vs regard:

Nor after our iniquities,
he doth not vs reward.

11 But as the space is wondrous great,
twixt earth and heauen aboue,

So is his goodnesse much more large,
to them that do him loue.

12 God doth remoue our sinnes from vs,
and our offences all,

As farre as is the Sunne rising
full distant from his fall.

The second part.

13 And looke what pitie parents deare,
vnto their children beare:

Like pittie beareth God to such as worship him in feare. (shape,

14 The Lord that made vs knowes our
our mould and fashion iust:

How weake and fraile our nature is,
and how we be but dust.

15 And how the time of mortall men
is like the withering hay:

Or like the flower right faire in field,
that fades full soone away.

16 Whose glosse & beautie stormie winds
do vtterly disgrace:

And make that after their assaults,
such blossomes haue no place.

17 But yet the goodnesse of the Lord,
with his shall euer stand:

Their childrens children shall receiue
his righteousnesse at hand.

18 I meane which keepe his conenant,
with all their whole desire:

And not forget to do the thing,
that he doth them require.

19 The heauens high are made the seate,
and footstool of the Lord:

And by his power imperiall
he goernes all the world.

20 Ye Angels which are great in power,
praise ye and blesse the Lord,

Which to obey and do his will,
immediatly accord.

21 Ye noble hoasts and ministers,
ceasse not to laud him still:

Which

Which ready are to execute
his pleasure and his will.
22 Yea all his workes in euery place,
praise ye his holy Name:
My heart, my mind, and eke my soule,
praise ye also the same.

PSAL. CIIII. W.X.

MY soule praise the Lord,
speake good of his Names:
O Lord our great God,
how doest thou appeare:
So passing in glorie,
that great is thy fame:
Honour and maiestie
in thee thine most cleare.
2 With light as a robe,
thou hast thee beclad:
Whereby all the earth
thy greatnesse may see.
The heauens in such sort thou also hast spread,
That it to a certaine
compared may be.

3 His chamber beames lie
in the clouds full faire:
Which as his chariot,
are made him to beare:
And there with much swiftnesse,
his course doth endure,
Vpon the wings riding
of winds in the aire.
4 He maketh his spirits,
as Heralds to go:
And lightnings to serue,
we see also prest:
His will to accomplish,
they runne to and fro,
To saue or consume things,
as seemeth him best.

5 He groundeth the earth
so firmly and fast,
That it once to moue,
none shall haue such power.

6 The deepe a faire conering
for it made thou hast:
Which by his owne nature,
the earth would deuoure.

7 But at thy rebuke,
the waters do flie:
And so giue due place,
thy word to obey:
At thy voice of thunder,
so fearfull they be,
That in their great raging
they haste soone away.

8 The mountaines full bie,
they then vp ascende:
If thou do but speake,
thy word they fulfill:

So likewise the vallies
most quickly descend,
Where thou them appointest, remaine they do still.
9 Their bounds thou hast set,
how farre they shall runne:
So that in their rage,
not passe that they can:
For God hath appointed
they shall not returne,
The earth to destroy more,
which made was for man.

The second part.

10 He sendeth the springs
to strong streames or lakes,
Which runne do full swift
among the huge hills:
11 Where both the wilde asses,
their thirst oft times slakes,
And beasts of the mountaines,
thereof drinke their fill.
12 By these pleasant springs
of fountaines full faire,
The fowles of the aire
abide shall and dwell:
Who moued by nature
to hop here and there,
Among the greene branches,
their songs shall excell.

13 The mountaines to moist,
the clouds he doth vse:
The earth with his workes,
is wholly replete.
14 So as the brute cattell,
he doth not refuse,
But grasse doth prouide them,
and herbe for mans meate.
15 Yea bread, wine and oile,
he made for mans sake,
His face to refresh,
and heart to make strong.
16 The Cedars of Liban,
this great Lord did make:
Which trees he doth nourish,
that grow vp so long.

17 In these may birds build,
and make there their nests:
In firme trees the Storkes remaine and abide.
18 The high hills are succours
for wilde Goates to rest:
And eke the rocks stony for Conies to hide.
19 The Moone then is set
her seasons to runne:
The daies from the nights,
thereby to discern:
And by the descending
also of the Sunne,
The cold from heate alway,
thereby do we learne.

- 20 When darknesse doth come,
by Gods will and power,
Then creepe forth do all
the beasts of the wood.
- 21 The Lions range roaring,
their prey to deuoure:
But yet it is thou Lord,
which givest them food.
- 22 As soone as the Sunne
is vp, they retire:
To couch in their dens,
then are they full faine:
- 23 That man to his worke may,
as right doth requere:
Till night come and call him
to take rest againe.
- The third part.*
- 24 How sundrie, O Lord,
are all thy workes found?
With wisdom full great,
they are indeed wrought:
So that the whole world,
of thy praise doth sound:
And as for thy riches,
they passe all mens thought.
- 25 So is the great sea,
which large is and broad:
Where things that creepe swarme,
and beasts of each sort.
- 26 There both mightie ships saile,
and some lie at road:
The Whale huge and monstrous,
there also doth sport.
- 27 All things on thee waite,
thou dost them relieue:
And thou in due time,
full well dost them feed.
- 28 Now when it doth please thee,
the same so to giue:
They gather full gladly,
those things which they need.
- Thou openest thy hand,
and they find such grace:
That they with good things
are filled we see.
- 29 But sore are they troubled,
if thou turne thy face:
For if thou their breath take,
vile dust then they be.
- 30 Againe, when thy Spirit
from thee doth proceed,
All things to appoint,
and what shall ensue:
Then are they created,
as thou hast decreed:
And dost by thy goodnesse,
the drie earth renew.
- 31 The praise of the Lord,
for euer shall last:
Who may in his workes,
by right well reioyce.
- 32 His lookes can the earth make

to tremble full fast:
And likewise the mountaines
to smooke at his voice.

- 33 To this Lord and God,
sing will I alwaies:
So long as I liue,
my God praise will I.
- 34 Then am I most certaine,
my words shall him please:
I will reioyce in him,
to him will I crie.
- 35 The sinners O Lord,
consume in thine ire:
And eke the peruerse,
them roote out with shame:
But as for my soule now,
let it still desire,
And say with the faithfull,
praise ye the Lords Name.

PSAL CV. N.

- Glæ praises vnto God the Lord,
and call vpon his Name:
Among the people eke declare his workes to spread his fame.
- 2 Sing ye vnto the Lord I say,
and sing vnto his praise:
And talke of all his wondrous workes,
that he hath wrought alwaies.
- 3 In honour of his holy Name,
reioyce with one accord:
And let the heart also reioyce
of them that praise the Lord.
- 4 Seek ye the Lord, and seek the strength of his eternall might:
And seeke his face continually,
and presence of his sight.
- 5 The wondrous works that he hath done
keepe still in mindfull heart:
Nor let the iudgements of his mouth,
out of your mind depart.
- 6 Ye that of faithfull Abraham
his seruant are the seed:
Ye his elect, the children that of Iacob do proceed.
- 7 For he, he onely is, I say,
the mightie Lord our God:
And his most rightfull iudgements are through all the earth abroad.
- 8 His promise and his conenant,
which he hath made to his:
He hath remembred euermore,
to thousands of degrees.
- The second part.*
- 9 The conenant which he hath made
with Abraham long ago:
And faithfull oath which he hath sworne
to Isaac also.
- 10 And did confirme the same for law,
that Iacob should obey:

And

And for eternall couenant
to Israel for aye.

11 When thus he said, Lo I to you
all Canaan land will giue:
The lot of your inheritance.
wherein your seed shall line.
12 Although the number at that time
did very small appeare:
Yea very small, and in the land
they then but strangers were:

13 While yet they walkt frō land to land,
without a sure abode:
And while from sundry kingdomes they did wander all abroad.
14 And wrong at no oppressors hand,
he suffered them to take:
But euen the great and mightie kings,
reproned for their sake.

15 And thus he said: Touch ye not those that mine annointed be:
Ne do the Prophets any harme,
that do pertaine to me.
16 He cald a dearth vpon the land,
of bread he stroid the store:
But he against the time of need,
had sent a man before.

The third part.

17 Euen Ioseph, which had once bin sold
to liue a slaue in wo:
Whose teere they hurt in stocks, whose
the irons pierst also. (soule)
18 Vntill the time came when his cause was knowne apparently:
The mightie word of God the Lord,
his faultlesse truth did trie.

19 The king sent and deliuered him
from prison where he was:
20 The ruler of the people then
did freely let him passe.
21 And ouer all his house he made him Lord to beare the sway:
And of his substance made him haue
the rule and all the stay.

22 That he might to his will instruct
the Princes of the land:
And wisdomes lore his ancient men
might teach to vnderstand.
23 Then into the Egyptian land,
came Israel also:
And Iacob in the land of Ham,
did liue a stranger tho.

24 His people he exceedingly,
in number made to flow:
And ouer all their enemies,
in strength he made them grow.
25 Whose heart he turnd, that they with his people did intreate: (hate,
And did his seruants wrongfully abuse with false deceit.

The fourth part.

26 His faithfull seruant Moses then,
and Aaron whom he chose,
He did command to go to them,
his message to disclose.
27 The wondrous message of his signes,
among them he did show:
And wonders in the land of Ham,
then did they worke also.

28 Darknesse he sent, and made it darke,
in stead of brighter day:
And vnto his commission
they did not disobay.
29 He turnd their waters into bloud,
he did their fishes slay: (place 30 Their land brought frogs euen in the where their king Pharaoh lay.

31 He spake, and at his word there came great swarmes of noisome flies:
And all the quarters of the land
were filld with crawling lice.
32 He gaue them cold and stormie haile,
in stead of milder raine:
And fire flames within their land,
he sent vnto their paine.

33 He smote their vines & all their trees,
whereon their figs did grow:
And all the trees within their coasts,
downe did he ouerthrow.
34 He spake, then caterpillers did
and grathoppers abound:
35 Which eat the grasse in all their land,
and fruite of all their ground.

The fift part.

36 The first begotten in their land,
eke deadely did he smite:
Yea the beginning and first fruite,
of all their strength and might.
37 With gold and silver he them brought from Egypt land to passe:
And in the number of their tribes,
no feeble one therewas.

38 Egypt was glad and ioyfull then,
when they did thence depart:
For terror and the feare of them
was false vpon their heart.
39 To shrowd them from the parching
a cloud he did display: (hate,
And fire he sent to giue them light,
when night had hid the day.

40 They asked, and he caused quailles
to raine at their request:
And fully with the bread of heauen,
their hunger he repress.
41 He opened the stonie rocke,
and waters gushed out:
And eke the drie and parched ground,
like riuers ran about.

25622

- 42 For of his holy covenant,
aye mindfull was he tho:
Which to his seruant Abraham
he plighted long ago.
43 He brought his people forth wth mirth,
and his elect with ioy,
Out of the cruell land where they had liu'd in great annoy.
44 And of the heathen men he gaue
to them the fruitfull lands:
The labours of the people eke,
they tooke into their hands.
45 That they his holy statutes might obserue for euermore:
And faithfully obey his lawes,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSAL. CVI. N.

PRaise ye the Lord, for he is good,
for his mercie dures for aye:
• Who can expresse his noble acts,
or all his praise display?
3 They blessed are that iudgement keepe,
and iustly do alway:
With fauour of thy people (Lord)
remember me I pray.

- 4 And with thy saning health (O Lord)
vouchsafe to visite me:
5 That I the great felicitie
of thine elect may see.
And with thy peoples ioy I may
a ioyfull mind possesse:
And may with thine inheritance,
a glorying heart expresse.
6 Both we and eke our fathers all,
haue sinned euery one:
We haue committed wickednesse,
and lendly we haue done.
7 The wonders great which thou, O Lord,
hast done in Egypt land:
Our fathers though they saw them all,
yet did not vnderstand.

Nor they thy mercies multitude,
did keepe in thankfull minds:
But at the sea, yea the red sea,
rebelled most vnkind.
8 Neuerthelesse he saued them
for honour of his Name:
That he might make his power knowne,
and spread abroad his fame.

- 9 The red sea he did then rebuke,
and forthwith it was dride:
And as in wildernesse, so through the deepe he did them guide.
10 He sau'd them from the cruell hand
of their despitefull foe:
And from the enemies hand he did deliuer them also,

The second part.

- 11 The waters their oppressors whelmd,
not one was le't alic:
12 Then they beleen'd his word, & praise
in song they did him giue.
13 But by and by vnthankfully,
his workes they cleane forgot:
And for his counsell and his will,
they did neglect to wait.
14 But lusted in the wildernesse
with fond and greedy lust:
And in the desert tempted God,
the stay of all their trust.
15 And then their wanton minds desire,
he suffred them to haue:
But walking leannesse therewithall,
into their soules he gaue.
16 Then when they lodged in their tents,
at Moses they did grutch:
Aaron the holy of the Lord,
so did they enuie much,
17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did deuoure:
And all Abirams companie,
did couer in that houre.

- 18 In their assembly kindled was
the hote consuming fire:
And waiting flame did the burne vp
the wicked in his ire.
19 Vpon the hill of Horeb they
an idoll calfe did frame:
And there the molten image they did worship of the same.

- 20 Into the likenesse of a calfe,
which feedeth on the grasse,
Thus they their glorie turnd, and all their honour did deface.
21 And God their onely Sauour,
vnkindly they forgot:
Which many great and mightie things
in Egypt land had wrought,

The third part.

- 22 And in the land of Ham, for them
most wondrous workes had done:
And by the red sea dreadfull things
performed long ago.
23 Therefore for their so shewing them
forgetfull and vnkind:
To bring destruction on them all,
he purposed in his mind:

Had not his chosen Moses stood
before him in the breake,
To turne his wrath, lest he on them
with slaughter should him wreake.
24 They did despise the pleasant land,
that he be'ight to giue:
Yea and the words that he had spoke,
they did no whit beleue,

25 But in their tents with grudging heart
they wickedly repin'd:

Nor to the voice of God the Lord,
they gaue an hearkning mind.

26 Therefore against them lifted he
his strong reuenging hand,
Them to destroy in wilderness,
ere they should see the land.

27 And to destroy their seed among
the nations with his rod:
And through the countries of the world
to scatter them abroad.

28 To Baal Peor then they did adrioue themselves also:
And eat the offerings of the dead,
so they forsooke him tho.

29 Thus with their owne inuentions,
his wrath they did prouoke:
And in his so inkindled wrath,
the plague vpon them broke.

30 But Phineas stood vp with zeale,
the sinners vile to slay:
And iudgement he did execute,
and then the plague did stay.

The fourth part.

31 It was imputed vnto him
for righteousness that day:
And from thenceforth so counted is,
from race to race for aye.

32 At waters eke of Meribah,
they did him angry make:
Yea so far forth, that Moses was then painisht for their sake.

33 Because they vext his spirit so sore,
that in impatient heate,
His lips spake vnadvisedly,
his seruour was so great.

34 Nor as the Lord commanded them,
they slue the people tho:

35 But were among the heathen mixt,
and leard their works also.

36 And did their idols serue, which were their ruine and decay:

37 To fiends their sons & daughters they did offer vp and slay.

38 Yea with vnkindly murdering knife,
the guiltlesse blood they spilt:
Yea their owne sons and daughters blood
without all cause of guilt.

Whom they to Canaan idols then,
offred with wicked hand:

And so with blood of innocents,
defiled was their land.

39 Thus were they stained with the works
of their owne filthy way:
And with their owne inuentions,
a whoring they did stray.

40 Therefore against his people was the Lords wrath kindled sore:
And euen his owne inheritance,
therefore he did abhorre.

41 Into the hands of heathen men,
he gaue them for a prey:
And made their foes their lords, who they were forced to obey.

The first part.

42 Yea and their hatefull enemies,
opprest them in the land:
And they were humbly made to stoupe,
as subiects to their hand.

43 Full oftentimes from thrall had he deliuered them before:
But with their counsels they to wrath
prouokt him euermore.

Therefore they by their wickednesse,
were brought full low to lie:

44 Yet when he saw them in distresse,
he hearkned to their crie.

45 He cald to mind his couenant,
which he to them had swore:
And by his mercies multitude,
repented him therefore.

46 And fauour he them made to find,
before the sight of those,
That led them captiue from their land,
when erst they were their foes.

47 Saue vs O Lord that art our God,
saue vs (O Lord) we pray:
And from among the heathen folke,
Lord gather vs away.

48 That we may spread the noble praise
of thy most holy Name:

That we may glorie in thy praise,
and sounding of thy fame.

49 The Lord the God of Israel,
be blest for euermore:

Let all the people say Amen,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSAL. CVII. W. K.

Gue thanks vnto the Lord our God,
for gracious is he:

And that his mercie hath no end,
all mortall men may see.

2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath,
with thanks shall praise his Name:

And shew how they from foes were freed
and how he wrought the same.

3 He gathered them forth of the lands,
that lay so farre about:
From East to West, from North to South
his hand did find them out.

4 They wandred in the wilderness,
and strayed from the way:
And found no citie where to dwell,
that serue might for their stay.

5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great,
in these deserts so void:

That faintnesse did them sore assault,
and eke their soules annoide

6 Then did they crie in their distresse,
vnto the Lord for aide:

Who did remoue their troublous state,
according as they prayd.

7 And by that way which was most right,
he led them like a guide:

That they might to a citie go,
and there also abide.

8 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his goodnesse then:

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

9 For he the emptie soule sustaind,
whom thirst had made to faint:

The hungry soule with goodnesse fed,
and did them eke acquaint.

10 Such as do dwell in darknesse deepe,
where they of death do waite:

Fast bound to fast such troublous storms,
as iron chaines do threat.

The second part.

11 For that against the Lords own words
they sought so to rebell:

Esteeming light his counsels high,
which do so farre excell.

12 But when he humbled them full low,
they then fell downe with griefe:

And none was found so much to helpe,
whereby to get reliefe.

13 Then did they crie in their distresse,
vnto the Lord for aid:

Who did remoue their troublous state,
according as they prayd.

14 For he from darknes out them brought,
and from deaths dreadfull shade:

Bursting with force the iron bands,
which them before did lade.

15 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his kindnesse then:

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

16 For he threw down their gates of brasie
and brake them with strong hand:

Their iron barres he finote in two,
nothing could him withstand.

17 The foolish folk great plagues do feel,
and cannot from them wend:

But heape on more to those they haue,
because they do offend.

18 Their soule so much did loath all meat
that none they could abide:

Whereby death had them almost caught,
as they full truly tride.

19 Then did they crie in their distresse,

vnto the Lord for aide:

Who did remoue their troublous state,
according as they prayd.

20 For then he sent to them his word,
which health did soone restore:

And brought them from those dangers deep wherein they were before.

The third part.

21 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his kindnesse then:

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

22 And let them offer sacrifice,
with thanks and also feare:

And speake of all his wondrous workes,
with glad and ioyfull cheare.

23 Such as in ships and brittle barks,
into the sea descend,

Their merchandise through fearful fouds
to compass and to end:

24 Those men are forced to behold
the Lords works what they be:

And in the dangerous deepe, the same
most marvellous they see.

25 For at his word the stormy wind
arise in a rage:

And stirreth vp the surges so,
as nought can them assuage.

26 Then are they lifted vp so high,
the clouds they seeme to gaine:

And plunging downe the depth vntill,
their soules consume with paine.

27 And like a drunkard to and fro,
now here, now there they reele:

As men with feare of wit bereft,
or had of sense no feele.

28 Then did they crie in their distresse,
vnto the Lord for aide:

Who did remoue their troublous state,
according as they prayd.

29 For with his word the Lord doth make
the sturdie stormes to cease:

So that the great waues from their rage,
are brought to rest and peace.

30 Then are men glad when rest is come,
which they so much did craue:

And are by him in haven brought,
which they so faine would haue.

The fourth part.

31 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his kindnesse then:

And shew the wonders that he doth,
before the sonnes of men.

32 Let them in presence of the folke,
with praise extoll his Name:

And where the elders do conuent,
let them there do the same.

33 For raining fouds to drie deserts,
he doth oft change and turne:

And

And drieth vp, as it were dust,
the springing well and bourn.
34 A fruitfull land with pleasures deckt,
full barren doth he make:
When on their sinnes that dwell therein,
he doth iust vengeance take.

35 Againe, the wildernesse full rude,
he maketh fruite to beare:
With pleasant springs of waters cleare,
though none before were there.
36 Wherein such hungry soules are set,
as he doth freely chuse:
That they a citie may them build,
to dwell in for their vse.

37 That they may sow their pleasant land
and vineyards also plant:
To yeeld them fruits of such increase,
as none may seeme to want.

38 They multiply exceedingly,
the Lord doth blesse them so:
Who doth also the bruite beasts make
by numbers great to grow.

39 But when the faithfull are low brought
by the oppressors stout:
And minish do through many plagues,
that compasse them about:

40 Then doth he Princes bring to shame,
which did them sore oppresse:
And likewise caused them to erre
within the wildernesse.

41 But yet the poore he raiseth vp,
out of their troubles deepe:
And oft times doth his traine augment,
much like a flocke of sheepe.

42 The righteous shall behold this sight,
and also much reioyce:
Whereas the wicked and peruerse,
with griefe shall stop their voice.

43 But who is wise, that now full well
he may these things record?
For certainly such shall perceiue
the kindnesse of the Lord.

PSAL. CVIII. I.H.

O God my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is so:
I will aduance my voice in song,
and giuing praise also.

2 Awake my viole and my harpe,
sweet melodie to make:
And in the morning I my selfe,
right early will awake.

3 Ey me among the people Lord,
itill praised shalt thou be:
And I among the heathen folke,
will sing O Lord to thee.

4 Because thy mercie Lord is great,
aboue the heauens hie:

And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds,
within the loftie skie.

5 Aboue the starrie heauens hie,
exalt thy selfe O God:
And Lord display vpon the earth,
thy glorie all abroad.

6 That thy dearly beloued may be set at libertie:
Helpe, O my God, with thy right hand,
and hearken vnto me.

7 God in his holinesse hath spoke,
wherefore my ioyes abound:
Sichen I will deuide, and mete
the vale of Succoth ground.

8 And Gilead shall be mine owne, Manasses mine shall be:
My head, strength Ephraim, and law
shall Iuda giue for me.

9 Moab my washpote, and my shoe
on Edom I will throw:
Vpon the land of Palestine
in triumph will I go.

10 Who shall into the citie strong,
be guide to conduct me?
Or how by whom to Edom land,
conueyed shall I be?

11 Is it not thou, O Lord, which late hadst vs forsaken quite?
And thou, O Lord, which with our hosts
didst not go forth to fight?

12 Giue vs, O Lord, thy sauing aide,
when troubles do assaile:
For all the helpe of man is vaine,
and can no whit auaille.

13 Through God we shall do valiant acts,
and worthy of renowne:
He shall subdue our enemies,
yea he shall tread them downe.

PSAL. CIX. N.

IN speechlesse silence do not hold,
O God thy tongue alwaies:
O God, euen thou I say, that art
the God of all my praise.

2 The wicked and the guilefull mouth,
on me disclosed be:
And they with false and lying tongues,
haue spoken vnto me.

3 They did beset me round about,
with words of hatefull sight:
Without all cause of my desert,
against me did they fight.

4 For my good will they were my foes,
but then gan I to pray:
My good with ill, my friendlinesse
with hate they did repay.

5 Set thou the wicked ouer him,

to haue the vpper hand:
At his right hand eke suffer thou
his hatefull foe to stand.
7 When he is iudged, let him then condemned be therein:
And let the prayer that he makes,
be turned into shame.

8 Few be his dayes, his charge also let thou another take:
9 His children lett e fatherlesse,
his wife a widow make.
10 Let his offspring be vagabonds,
to beg and seeke their bread:
Wandering out of the wasted place,
where earst they had bene fed.

11 Let couetous extortioners,
catch all his goods and store:
And let the strangers spoile the fruite
of all his toiles before.

12 Let there be none to pitie him,
let there be none at all, 13 That on his children fatherlesse,
will let their mercie fall.

The second part.

13 And so let his posteritie
for euer be destitute:
14 Their name out blotted in the age
that after shall succeed.
14 Let not his fathers wickednesse,
from Gods remembrance fall:
And let not thou his mothers sinne,
be done away at all.

15 But in the presence of the Lord,
let them remaine for aye:
That from the earth their memory
he may cut cleane away.
16 Sith mercie he forgot to shew,
but did pursue with spight,
The troubled man, and fought to slay
the wofull hearted wight.

17 As he did cursing lone, it shall betide vnto him so:
And as he did not blessing lone,
it shall be farre him fro.

18 As he with cursing clad himfelfe,
so it like water shall into his bowels, and like oile
into his bones befall.

19 As garment let it be to him,
to couer him for aye:
And as a girdle wherewith he shall girded be alway.

20 Lo, let the same be from the Lord,
the guerdon of my foe:
Yea and of those that euill speake against my soule also.

21 But thou O Lord that art my God,
deale thou I say with me:

After thy Name deliuer me,
for good thy mercies be.
22 Because in depth of great distresse,
I needy am and poore:
And eke within my pained brest,
my heart is wounded sore.

The third part.

23 Euen so do I depart away,
as doth declining shade:
And as the Grasshopper, so I am shaken off and fade.
24 With fasting long from needful food,
enfeebled are my knees:
And all her facnesse hath my flesh
enforced bene to leese.

25 And I also a vile reproch
to them am made to be:
And they that did vpon me looke,
did shake their heads at me.
26 But thou O Lord that art my God,
mine aide and succour be:
According to thy mercie Lord,
saue and deliuer me.

27 And they shal know thereby, that th's
(Lord) is thy mightie hand:
And that thou, thou hast done it Lord,
so shall they vnderstand. (thou 28 Although they curse with spite, yet shalt blesse with louing voice:
They shal arise and come to shame,
thy seruant shall reioyce.

29 Let let them be clothed al with shame
that enemies are to me:
And with confusion as a cloake,
eke couered let them be.
30 But greatly I will with my mouth,
giue thanks vnto the Lord:
And I among the multitude,
his praises will record.
31 For he with helpe at his right hand,
will stand the poore man by:
To saue him from the man that would condemne his soule to die.

PSAL. CX. N.

THE Lord did say vnto my Lord,
sit thou on my right hand,
Till I haue made thy foes a stoope,
whereon thy feete may stand.

2 The Lord shall out of Sion send,
the Scepter of thy might:
Amid thy mortall foes be thou
the ruler in their sight.

3 And in the day on which thy raigue
and power they shall see:
Then hereby free, will offrings shall
the people offer thee:
Yea with an holy worshipping,
then shall they offer all:
Thy births dew is the dew that doth
from wombe of morning fall.

4 The Lord hath sworne, and neuer will repent what he doth say:
By the order of Melchisedech,
thou art a Priest for aye.
5 The Lord thy God, on thy right hand
that standeth for thy stay, Shall wound for thee the stately kings,
vpon his wrathfull day.

6 The heathen he shall iudge, and fill:
the place with bodies dead:
And ouer diuers countries shall
is funder smite the head.
7 And he shall drinke out of the brooke
that runneth in the way:
Therefore he shall lift vp on high,
his royall head that day.

PSAL. CXI. N.

W Ith heart I do accord,
To praise and laud the Lord,
In presence of the iust.

2 For great his works are found,
To search them such are bound,
As do him loue and truft.

3 His works are glorious,
Also his righteoufnesse,
It doth endure for euer.

4 His wondrous works he would,
We still remember should:
His mercie faileth neuer.

5 Such as to him loue beare,
A portion full faire,
He hath vp for them laid:
For this they shall well find,
He will them haue in mind,
And keepe them as he said.

6 For he did not dislaine,
His workes to shew them plaine,
By lightnings and by thunders:
When he the heathen land
Did giue into their hand,
Where they beheld his wonders.

7 Of all his workes ensueth,
Both iudgement, right and truth,
Whereto his statutes tend:

8 They are decreed sure,
For euer to endure,
Which equitie doth end.

Redemption he gane,
His people for to saue:
9 And hath also required,
His promise not to faile,
But alwaies to preuaile:

His holy Name be feared.

10 Who so with heart full faine,
True wisdom would attaine,
The Lord feare and obey:

Such as his lawes do keepe,
Shall knowledge haue full deepe,
His praise shall last for aye.

PSAL. CXII. W.R.

THE man is blest that God doth feare,
And that his lawes doth loue indeed:

2 His seed on earth God will vpreare,
And blesse such as from him proceed.

3 His house with good he wil fulfill,
His righteoufnesse endure shall still.

4 Vnto the righteous doth arise,
In trouble ioy, in darknesse light:
Compassion is in his eies,
And mercie alwaies in his sight.

5 Yea pitie moueth such to lend:
He doth by iudgment things expend.

6 And surely such shall neuer faile,
For in remembrance had is he:

7 No tidings ill can make him quail,
Who in the Lord sure hope doth see.

8 His heart is firme, his feare is past:
For he shall see his foes downe cast.

9 He did well for the poore prouide,
His righteoufnesse shall still remaine:

And his estate with praise abide,
Though that the wicked man disdaine.

10 Yea gnash his teeth thereat shall he,
And so consume his state to see.

PSAL. CXIII. W.R.

YE children which do serue the Lord,
Praise ye his Name with one accord,

2 Yea blessed be alwaies his Name:

3 Who from the rising of the Sunne,
Till it returne where it began:
Is to be praised with great fame.

4 The Lord all people doth surmount,
As for his glorie we may count,
Aboue the heauens high to be:

5 With God the Lord who may compare?
Whose dwellings in the heauens are,
Of such great power and force is he.

6 He doth abase himselfe we know,
Things to behold both here below,
And also in heauen aboue:

7 The needie out of dust to draw,
And eke the poore which helpe none saw,
His onely mercie did him moue.

8 And so him set in high degree,
With Princes of great dignitie,
That rule his people with great fame.

9 The barren he doth make to beare,
And with great ioy her fruite to reare:
Therefore praise ye his holy Name

PSAL. CXIIII. W.W.

WHEN Israel by Gods addresse,
from Pharaohs land was bent:

And Jacobs house the strangers left,
and in the same traine went:

2 In Iuda God his glorie shewed
his holinesse most bright:

So did the Israelites declare his kingdom, power and might.

- 3 The sea it saw, and suddenly
as all amazd did flie:
The roaring streames of Iordans floud,
reculed backwardly.
- 4 As Rams afraid the mountaines skipt,
their strength did them forsake:
And as the filly trembling lambes,
their tops did beate and shake.
- 5 What aild thee sea, as all amazd,
so suddenly to flie?
Ye rolling waues of Iordans floud,
why ranne ye backwardly?
- 6 Why shooke ye hills as Rams afraid?
why did your strength so shake?
Why did your tops, as trembling lambes,
for feare quier and quake?
- 7 O earth confesse thy soneraigne Lord,
and dread his mightie hand:
Before the face of Iacobs God,
feare ye both sea and land.
- 8 I meane the God which frō hard rocks
doth cause maine flouds appeare:
And from the stonie flint, doth make
gush out the fountaines cleare.

PSAL. CXV. N.

- Not vnto vs, Lord, not to vs,
but to thy Name giue praise:
Both for thy mercie and thy truth,
which are in thee alwayes.
- 2 Why shall the heathen scornors say,
where is their God become?
- 3 Our God in heauen is, and what
he will, that hath he done.
- 4 Their idols siluer are and gold,
workes of mens hands they be:
- 5 They haue a mouth, and do not speake,
and eies, and do not see.
- 6 And they haue eares ioynd to their
and do not heare at all: (heads,
And noses eke they formed haue,
and do not smell withall.
- 7 And hands they haue, and handle not,
and feete, and do not go:
A throat they haue, yet through the same
they make no sound to blow.
- 8 Those that make them are like to them,
and those whose trust they be:
- 9 O Israel trust in the Lord,
their helpe and shield is he.
- 10 O Aarons house trust in the Lord,
their helpe and shield is he:
- 11 Trust ye the Lord that feare the Lord,
their helpe and shield is he.
- 12 The Lord hath mindfull bene of vs,
and will vs blesse also:
On Israel and on Aarons house,
his bleising he will shew.

- 13 Them that be fearers of the Lord,
the Lord will blesse them all:
Euen he will blesse them every one,
the great and eke the small.
- 14 To you (I say) the loning Lord,
will multiply his grace:
To you, and to the children that shall follow of your race.
- 15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord,
euen of the Lord, I say:
Which both the heauens and the earth,
hath made and set in stay.
- 16 The heauens, yea the heauens high,
belong vnto the Lord:
The earth vnto the sonnes of men,
he gaue of free accord.
- 17 They that be dead do not with praise
set forth the Lords renouue:
Nor any that into the place
of silence do go downe.
- 18 But we will praise the Lord our God,
from henceforth and for aye:
Sound ye the praises of the Lord:
praise ye the Lord, I say.

PSAL. CXVI. N.

- I loue the Lord, because my voice
and prayer heard hath he:
- 2 When in my dayes I cald on him,
he bowed his eare to me.
- 3 Euen when the snares of cruell death,
about beset me round:
When paines of hell me caught, and when I wo and sorrow found.
- 4 Vpon the Name of God my Lord,
then did I call, and say:
Deliuier thou my soule, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.
- 5 The Lord is very mercifull,
and iust he is also:
And in our God compassion
doth plentifully flow.
- 6 The Lord in safetie doth preserue
all those that simple be:
I was in wofull miserie,
and he deliuered me.
- 7 And now my soule sith thou art safe,
returne vnto thy rest:
For largely lo the Lord to thee,
his bountie hath exprest.
- 8 Because thou hast deliuered
my soule from deadly thrall:
My moistned eyne from mournfull teares,
my sliding feete from fall.
- 9 Before the Lord I in the land
of life will walke therefore:
- 10 I did beleue, therefore I spake,
for I was troubled sore.

The second part.

- 11 I said in my distresse and feare,
that all men liers be:
12 What shall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me?
13 The wholesome cup of sauing health,
I thankfully will take:
And on the Lords Name I will call,
when I my prayer make.
- 14 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I to him beight:
Yea euen at this present time,
in all his peoples sight.
15 Right deare and precious in his sight,
the Lord doth aye esteeme
The death of all his holy ones,
what euer men do deeme.
- 16 Thy seruant Lord, thy seruant I
I do my selfe confesse, Sonne of thy handmaid: thou hast broke
the bonds of my distresse.
16 And I will offer vp to thee,
a sacrifice of praise:
And I will call vpon the Name
of God the Lord alwaies.
- 18 I to the Lord will pay the vows,
that I haue him beight:
Yea euen at this present time,
in all his peoples sight.
19 Yea in the Courts of Gods own house,
and in the midst of thee,
O thou Ierusalem, I say:
wherefore the Lord praise ye.

PSAL. CXVII. N.

- O All ye nations of the world,
praise ye the Lord alwaies:
And all ye people euery where,
set forth his noble praise.
1 For great his kindnesse is to vs,
his truth endures for aye:
Wherefore praise ye the Lord our God,
praise ye the Lord, I say.

PSAL. CXVIII. N.

- O Giue ye thanks vnto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercie doth endure
for euer towards thee.
2 Let Israel confesse and say,
his mercie dures for aye:
3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
his mercie dures for aye.
- 4 Let all that feare the Lord our God,
euen now confesse and say,
The mercie of the Lord our God,
endureth still for aye.
5 In trouble and in heauinesse,
vnto the Lord I cride:
Which louingly heard me at large,

my suite was not denide.

- 6 The Lord himselfe is on my side,
I will not stand in doubt,
Nor feare what man can do to me,
when God stands me about.
7 The Lord doth take my part with them
that helpe to succour me:
Therefore I shall see my desire
vpon mine enemie.
- 8 Better it is to trust in God,
then in mans mortall seed:
9 Or to put confidence in kings,
or Princes in our need.
10 All nations haue inclosed me,
and compassed me round:
But in the Name of God shall I
mine enemies confound.

- 11 They kept me in on euery side,
they kept me in, I say:
But in the Lords most mightie Name,
I shall worke their decay.
12 They came about me all like Bees,
but in the Lords owne Name,
I quencht their thornes that were on fire,
and will destroy the same.

The second part.

- 13 Thou hast with force thrust sore at me,
that I indeed might fall:
But through the Lord I found such helpe,
that they were vanquisht all.
14 The Lord is my defence and strength,
my ioy, my mirth, my song:
He is become for me indeed,
a Sauour most strong.

- 15 The right hand of the Lord our God,
doth bring to passe great things:
He causeth voice of ioy and health,
in righteous mens dwellings.
16 The right hand of the Lord doth bring
most mightie things to passe:
His hand hath the preheminence,
his force is as it was.

- 17 I shall not die, but euer liue,
to vtter and declare
The Lord his might, & wondrous power,
his workes, and what they are.
18 The Lord himselfe hath chastened,
and hath corrected me:
But hath not giuen me ouer yet
to death, as ye may see.

- 19 Set open vnto me the gates of truth and righteousness:
That I may enter into them,
the Lords praise to confesse.
20 This is the gate euen of the Lord,
which shall not so be shut,
But good and righteous men alway
shall enter into it.

The third part.

- 21 I will giue thanks to thee O Lord,
because thou hast heard me:
And art become most louingly,
a Saviour vnto me.
- 22 The stone which ere this time among
the builders was refused,
Is now become the corner stone,
and chiefly to be vsed.
- 23 This was the mightie worke of God,
this was the Lords owne fact:
And it is maruellous to behold
with eyes that noble act.
- 24 This is the ioyfull day indeed,
which God himselfe hath wrought:
Let vs be glad and ioy therein,
in heart, in mind, in thought.
- 25 Now helpe vs Lord and prosper vs,
we wish with one accord:
- 26 Blessed is he that comes to vs
in the Name of the Lord.
- 27 God is the Lord that shewes vs light:
bind ye therefore with cord,
Your sacrifice to the altar,
and giue thanks to the Lord.
- 28 Thou art my God, I will confesse,
and render thanks to thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise
thy mercie towards me.
- 29 O giue ye thanks vnto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercie doth endure
for euer towards me.

PSAL. CXIX. W.W.

- Blessed are they that perfect are,
and pure in mind and heart:
Whose lines and conuersations,
from Gods lawes neuer start.
- 2 Blessed are they that giue themselues,
his statutes to obserue:
Seeking the Lord with all their heart,
and neuer from him swerue.
- 3 Doubtlesse such men go not astray,
nor do no wicked thing:
Which stedfastly walke in his way,
without any wandring.
- 4 It is thy will and commandment,
that with attentine heed,
Thy noble and diuine precepts,
we learne and keepe indeed.
- 5 O would to God it might thee please,
my waies so to addresse,
That I might both in heart and voice,
thy lawes keepe and confesse.
- 6 So should no shame my life attaint,
whilst I thus set mine eies:
And bend my mind alwayes to muse
on thy sacred decrees.

- 7 Then will I praise with vpright heart,
and magnifie thy Name,
When I shall learne thy iudgements iust,
and likewise proue the same.
- 8 And wholly will I giue my selfe,
to keepe thy lawes most right:
For sake me not for euer Lord,
but shew thy grace and might.

BETH. The second part.

- 9 By what meanes may a yong man best,
his life learne to amend?
If that he marke and keepe thy word,
and therein his time spend.
- 10 Vnfainedly I haue thee sought,
and thus seeking abide:
Oh neuer suffer me O Lord,
from thy precepts to slide.
- 11 Within my heart and secret thoughts,
thy words I haue hid still,
That I might not at any time offend thy godly will.
- 12 We magnifie thy Name, O Lord,
and praise thee evermore:
Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
O Lord teach me therefore.
- 13 My lips haue neuer ceast to preach,
and publish day and night,
The iudgements all, which did proceed
from thy mouth full of might.
- 14 Thy testimonies and thy wayes, please me no lesse indeed,
Then all the treasures of the earth,
which worldlings make their need.
- 15 Of thy precepts I will still muse,
and thereto frame my talke:
As at a marke so will I aime,
thy wayes how I may walke.
- 16 My onely ioy shall be so fixt,
and on thy lawes so set,
That nothing can me so farre blind,
that I thy words forget.

GIMEL. The third part.

- 17 Grant to thy seruant now such grace,
as may my life prolong:
Thy holy word then will I keepe,
both in my heart and tongue.
- 18 Mine eyes which were dim & shut vp,
so open and make bright:
That of thy law and marvellous workes,
I may haue the cleare sight.
- 19 I am a stranger in this earth,
wandring now here now there:
Thy word therefore to me disclose,
my footsteps for to cleare.
- 20 My soule is tauisht with desire,
and neuer is at rest:
But seekes to know thy iudgements high,
and what may please thee best.

21 The proud men and malicious,
thou hast destroyed each one,
And cursed are such as do not thy helts attend vpon.
22 Lord turne from me rebuke & shame,
which wicked men conspire:
For I haue kept thy couenants,
with zeale as hote as fire.

23 The Princes great in counsell sate,
and did against me speake:
But then thy seruant thought how he thy statutes might not breake.
24 For why, thy couenants are my ioy,
and my hearts great solace:
They serue in stead of counsellors,
my matters for to passe.

D A L E T H. The fourth part.

25 I am alas as brought to graue,
and almost turnd to dust:
Restore therefore my life againe,
as thy promise is iust.
26 My waies when I acknowledged,
with mercie thou didst heare:
Heare now efts Boone, and me instruct thy lawes to loue and feare.

27 Teach me once thoroughly for to know
thy precepts and thy lore:
Thy workes then will I meditate,
and lay them vp in store.
28 My soule I feele so fore opprest,
that it melteth for grieve:
According to thy word therefore,
haste Lord to send reliefe.

29 From lying and deceitfull lips,
let thy grace me defend:
And that I may learne thee to loue,
thy holy law me send.
30 The way of truth both straight and I haue chosen and found. (sure,
I set thy iudgements me before,
which keepe me safe and found.

31 Since then (O Lord) I fore'd my selfe,
thy couenants to embrace:
Let me therefore haue no rebuke,
or checke in any case.
32 Then will I runne with ioyfull cheare
where thy word doth me call:
When thou hast set my heart at large,
and rid me out of thrall.

H E. The first part.

33 Instruct me Lord in the right trade,
of thy statutes diuine:
And it to keepe euen to the end,
my heart will I encline.
34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law,
and I shall it obey:
With heart and mind, and all my might,
I will it keepe I say.

35 In the right paths of thy precepts,
guide me Lord I require:
None other pleasure do I wish,
nor greater thing desire.
36 Incline my heart thy lawes to keepe,
and couenants to embrace:
And from all filthy auarice,
Lord shield me with thy grace.

37 From vaines desires and worldly lusts
turne backe mine eyes and sight:
Giue me the spirit of life and power,
to walke thy waies aright.
38 Confirme thy gracious promise Lord,
which thou hast made to me,
Which am thy seruant and do loue,
and feare nothing but thee.

39 Reproach and shame which I so feare,
from me O Lord expell:
For thou doest iudge with equitie,
and therein doest excell.
40 Behold my hearts desire is bent,
thy lawes to keepe for aye:
Lord strengthen me so with thy grace,
that it performe I may.

V A V. The first part.

41 Thy mercies great and manifold,
let me obtaine, O Lord:
Thy sauing health let me enjoy,
according to thy word.
42 So shall I stop the slanderous mouthes
of leud and men vnjust:
For in thy faithfull promises,
stands my comfort and trust.
43 The word of truth within my mouth,
let euer still be prest:
For in thy iudgements wonderfull,
my hope doth stand and rest.
44 And whilest that breath within my doth naturall life preserve: (breast Yea till this world shall be dissolu'd.
thy law will I obserue.

45 So walke will I as set at large,
and made free from all dread:
Because I sought how for to keepe
thy precepts and thy read.
46 Thy noble acts I will describe,
as things of most great fame:
Euen before Kings I will them blaze,
and shrinke no whit for shame.

47 I will reioyce then to obey
thy worthy helts and will:
Which euermore I haue lou'd best,
and so will loue them still.
48 My hands will I lift to thy lawes,
which I haue dearly sought:
And practise thy commandments
in will, in deed, in thought.

Z A I N.

25622

Z A I N. The seventh part.

49 Thy promise which thou mad'st to me
thy seruant Lord remember:
For therein haue I put my trust,
and confidence for euer.

50 It is my comfort and my ioy,
when troubles me assaile:
For were my life not by thy word,
my life would soone me faile.

51 The proud and such as God contemne
still made of me a scorner:
Yet would I not thy law forsake,
as he that were forlorne.
52 But cald to mind Lord thy great shewd to our fathers old: (workes, Whereby I felt the ioy surmount
my griefe an hundred fold.

53 But yet alas for feare I quake,
seeing how wicked men
Thy law forsooke, and did procure thy iudgements who knowes when.
54 And as for me, I fram'd my songs,
thy statutes to exalt:
When I among the strangers dwelt,
and thoughts gau me assault.

55 I thought vpon thy Name O Lord,
by night when others sleepe:
As for thy law also I kept,
and euer will it keepe.
56 This grace I did obtaine, because thy covenants sweete and deare
I did embrace and also keepe,
with reuerence and with feare.

W E T H. The eight part.

57 O God which art my part and lot,
my comfort and my stay:
I haue decreed and promised,
thy law to keepe alway.
58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sue,
in presence of thy face:
As thou therefore hast promised,
Lord grant me of thy grace.

59 My life I haue examined,
and tride my secret heart:
Which to thy statutes caused me
my feete strait to conuert.
60 I did not stay nor liue long,
as they that slothfull are:
But hastily thy lawes to keepe,
I did my selfe prepare.

61 The cruell bands of wicked men
haue made of me their pray:
Yet would I not thy law forget,
nor from thee go astray.
62 Thy righteous iudgments towards me
so great are and so hie:
That euen at midnight will I rise,
thy Name to magnifie.

63 Companion am I to all them,
which feare thee in their heart:
And neuer will for loue nor dread,
from thy commandments start.

64 Thy mercies Lord most plenteously
do all the world fulfill:
O teach me how I may obey
thy statutes and thy will.

T E T H. The ninth part.

65 According to thy promise Lord,
so hast thou with me dealt:
For of thy grace in sundry sorts,
haue I thy seruant felt.

66 Teach me to iudge alwaies aright,
and giue me knowledge sure:
For certainly beleue I do,
that thy precepts are pure.

67 Ere thou didst touch me with thy rod
I err'd and went astray:
But now I keepe thy holy word,
and make it all my stay.
68 Thou art both good and gracious,
and giuest most liberally:
Thy ordinances how to keepe,
therefore O Lord teach me.

69 The proud & wicked men haue forg'd
against me manie a lie:
Yet thy commandments still obserue,
with all my heart will I. (wealth 70 Their hearts are swolnt with worldly
as greafe so are they fat:
But in thy law do I delight,
and nothing seeke but that.

71 Oh happie time may I well say,
when thou didst me correct:
For as a guide to learne thy lawes,
thy rod did me direct.
72 So that to me thy word and law,
is dearer manifold:
Then thousands great of siluer and gold,
or ought that can be told.

I O D. The tenth part.

73 Seeing thy hands haue made me Lord
to be thy creature:
Grant knowledge likewise how to learne
to put thy lawes in v're.
74 So they that feare thee shall reioyce,
when euer they me see,
Because I haue leard by thy word,
to put my trust in thee.

(plagu'd
75 When with thy rods the world is
I know the cause is iust:
So when thou dost correct me Lord,
the cause iust needs be must.
76 Now of thy goodnesse I thee pray,
some comfort to me send:
As thou to me thy seruant herest,
so from all ill me friend.

77 Thy tender mercie powre on me,
and I shall surely liue:
For ioy and consolation both,
thy lawes to me do giue.
78 Confound the proud, whose false pre-is me for to destroy: (tenue
But as for me thy helts to know,
I will my selfe apply.

79 Who so with reuerence do thee feare,
to me let them retire:
And such as do thy covenants know,
and them alone desire.
80 My heart without all wauering,
let on thy lawes be bent:
That no confusion come to me,
whereby I should be shent.

CAPH. The xi. part.

81 My soule doth faint, and ceaseth not thy sauing health to craue:
And for thy words sake still I trust,
my hearts desire to haue.
82 Mine eyes do faile with looking for thy word, and thus I say:
Oh when wilt thou me comfort Lord,
why doest thou thus delay?

83 As a skin bottell in the the smoke,
so am I parcht and dride:
Yet will I not out of my heart,
let thy commandments slide.
84 Alas how long shall I yet liue,
before I see the houre,
That on my foes which me torment,
thy vengeance thou wilt poure?

85 Presumptuous men haue digged pits,
thinking to make me sure:
Thus contrary against thy law,
my hurt they do procure.
86 But thy comandments are all true,
and causlesse they me grieue:
To thee therefore I do complaine,
that thou mightst me relieue.

87 Almost they had me cleane destruid,
and brought me quite to ground:
Yet by thy statutes I abide,
and therein succour found.
88 Restore me Lord againe to life,
for thy mercies excell:
And so shall I thy covenants keepe,
till death my life expell.

LAMED. The xi. part.

89 In heauen Lord where thou dost dwell
thy word is stablisht sure:
And shall for all eternitie,
fast grauen there endure.
90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth witness:
Whose groundworke thou hast laid so
as no congne can expresse (sure,

91 Euen to this day we may well see,
how all things perseuere
According to thy ordinance,
for all things thee reuere.
92 Had it not bene that in thy law
my soule had comfort sought:
Long time ere now in my distresse,
I had bene brought to nought.

93 Therefore will I thy precepts aye,
in memory keepe fast:
By them thou hast my life restor'd,
when I was at last cast.
94 No wight to me can title make,
for I am onely thine:
Saue me therefore, for to thy lawes
mine eares and heart incline.

95 The wicked men do seeke my bane,
and thereto lie in waite:
But I the while considered
thy noble workes and great.
96 I see nothing in this wide world,
at length which hath not end:
But thy commandments and thy word,
beyond all end extend.

MEM. The xij. part.

97 What great desire and seruent loue,
do I beare to thy law?
All the day long my whole device,
is onely on thy saw.
98 Thy word hath taught me far to passe
my foes in policie:
For still I keepe it as a thing
of most excellencie.

99 My teachers which did me instruct,
in knowledge I excell:
Because I do thy covenants keepe,
and them to others tell.
100 In wisdom I do passe also,
the ancient men indeed:
And all because to keepe thy lawes,
I held it aye best reed.

101 My feete I haue refrained eke,
from euery euill way:
Because that I continually,
thy word might keepe I say.
102 I haue not sweru'd from thy iudge-nor yet shrunke any dell: (ments,
For why thou hast me taught thereby,
to liue godly and well.

103 O Lord how sweete vnto my taste,
finde I thy words alway:
Doubtlesse no homie in my mouth,
feele ought to sweete I may.

104 Thy lawes haue me such wisdom
that vttery I hate: (learnd,
All wicked and vngodly waies,
in euery kinde or rate.

NVN.

NIN. The xiii. part.

9 Euen as a lanterne to my feete,
so doth thy word shine bright:
And to my paths where euer I go,
it is a flaming light.
106 I haue both sworne & will performe
most certainly doubtlesse:
That I will keepe thy iudgments iust,
and them in life expresse.

107 Affliction hath me sore oppressd,
and brought me to deaths dore:
O Lord as thou hast promised,
so me to life restore. (voice, 108 The offrings which with heart and most frankly I thee giue:
Accept, and teach me how I may
after thy iudgements liue.

109 My soule is aye so in my hand,
that dangers me assaile:
Yet do I not thy law forget,
nor it to keepe will faile.
110 Although the wicked laid their nets
to catch he at a bay:
Yet did I not from thy precepts
once swerue or go astray.

111 Thy law I haue so claim'd alway,
as mine owne heritage:
And why, for therein I delight,
and set my whole courage.
112 For euermore I haue bene bent,
thy statutes to fulfill:
Euen so likewise vnto the end,
I will continue still.

AMECH. The xv. part.

113 The craftie thoughts and double
I do alwaies detest: (hearts,
But as for thy law and precepts,
I loue them euer best.
114 Thou art my hid and secret place,
my shield of strong defence:
Therefore haue I thy promises
lookt for with patience.

115 Go to therefore ye wicked men,
depart from me anon:
For the commandments will I keepe
of God my Lord alone.
116 As thou hast promist so performe,
that death me not assaile:
Nor let my hope abuse me so,
that through distrust I quaille.

117 Vphold me, and I shall be safe,
for ought they do or say:
And in thy statutes pleasure take,
will I both night and day.
118 Thou hast trod such vnder thy feete,
as do thy statutes breake:
For nought auails their subtiltie,
their counsell is but weake.

119 Like drosse thou casts the wicked out
where euer they go or dwell:
Therefore can I as thy statutes,
loue nothing halfe so well.
120 My flesh alas is taken with feare,
as though it were benumd:
For when I see thy iudgements, straight
I am as one astound.

AIN. The xvi. part.

121 I do the thing that lawfull is,
and giue to all men right:
Resigne me not to them that would opresse me with their might.
122 But for thy seruant suretie be in that thing that is good:
That proud men giue me not the foile,
which rage as they were wood.

123 Mine eies with waiting are now
thy healeth so much I craue: (blind,
And eke thy righteous promise Lord,
whereby thou wilt me saue.
124 Intreat thy seruant louingly,
and fauour to him show:
Thy statutes of most excellencie,
teach me also to know.

125 Thy humble seruant Lord I am,
grant me to vnderstand,
How by thy statutes I may know
best what to take in hand.
126 It is now time Lord to begin,
for truth is quite decayd:
Thy law likewise they haue transgressed,
and none against them said.

127 This is the cause wherefore I loue
thy lawes better then gold:
Or iewels fine which are esteem'd
most costly to be sold.
128 I thought thy precepts all most iust,
and so them laid in store:
All craftie and malicious waies,
I do abhorre therefore.

PE. The xvij. part.

129 Thy covenants are most wonderfull,
and full of things profound:
My soule therefore doth keepe them sure,
when they are tride and found.
130 When men first enter into thy word
they finde a light must cleare:
And very idiots vnderstand
when they it reade or heare.

131 For ioi I haue both gap'd & breath'd
to know thy commandments:
That I might guide my selfe thereby,
I sought what thing it meant.
132 With mercie and compassion Lord,
behold me from aboue:
As thou art wont to behold such as thy Name feare and loue.

133 Direct my footsteps by thy word,
that I thy will may know:

And never let iniquitie
thy seruant ouerthrow. (harmes

134 From slanderous tongues and deadly preserue and keepe me sure:

Thy precepts then will I obserue,
and put them eke in vre.

135 Thy countenance which doth sur-
the Sun in his bright hew: (mount Let shine on me, and by thy law
reach me what to eschew.

136 Out of mine eies great fouds gush
of dreary teares and fell: (out

When I behold how wicked men,
thy lawes keepe neuer a dell.

L A D E. The xviij. part.

137 In euery point Lord thou art iust,
the wicked though they grudge:
And when thou doest sentence pronounce thou art a righteous iudge.

138 To render right, and flie from guile,
are two chiefe points most hie:

And such as thou hast in thy law
commanded vs straightly.

139 With zeale & wrath I am consum'd,
and euen piud away:

To see my foes thy word forget,
for ought that do I may.

140 So pure and perfect is thy word,
as any heart can deeme:

And I thy seruant nothing more,
to loue or yet esteeme.

141 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degree:

Yet do I not thy helts forget,
nor shrink away from thee.

142 Thy righteousness Lord is most iust,
for euer to endure:

Also thy law is truth it selfe,
most constant and most pure.

143 Trouble and griefe haue seild on me,
and brought me wondrous low:

Yet do I still of thy precepts
delight to heare and know.

144 The righteousness of thy iudgments
doth last for euermore:

Then teach them me, for euen in them
my hope lieth vp in store.

K O P H. The xix. part.

145 With seruient heart I cald and cride,
now answer me O Lord:

That thy commandments to obserue,
I may fully accord.

146 To thee my God I make my suite,
with most humble request:

Same thee therefore, and I will keepe
thy precepts and thy helts.

147 To thee I crie euen in the morne,
before the day waxe light:

Because that I haue in thy word,
my confidence whole night.

148 Mine eies preuent the watch by night
and ere they call I wake:

That by deuising of thy word,
I might some comfort take.

149 Incline thine eares to heare my voice
and pittie on me take:

As thou wast wont, so iudge me Lord,
lest life should me forsake.

150 My foes draw neare, and do procure
my death maliciously:

Which from thy law are farre gone backe
and straid from it leadly.

151 Therefore O Lord approach thou for need doth so require: (neare
For all thy precepts true they are,
then helpe I thee desire.

152 But thy comandments haue I learned
not now, but long ago:

That they remaine for euermore,
thou hast them groundd so.

R E S H. The xx. part.

153 My trouble and affliction,
consider and behold:

Deliuerm me, for of thy law
I euer take fast hold.

154 Defend my good & righteous cause,
with speed me succour send:

From death as thou hast promised
Lord keepe me and defend.

155 As for the wicked, farre they are
from hauing health and grace:
Whereby they might thy statutes know,
they enter not the trace.

156 Great are thy mercies Lord I grant,
what tongue can them attaine?

And as thou hast me iudg'd ere now,
so let me life obtaine.

157 Though many men did trouble me,
and persecute me sore:

Yet from thy lawes I neuer shrinke,
nor went awry therefore.

158 And truth it is, for griefe I die,
when I these traitors see:

Because they keepe no whit thy word,
nor yet seek to know thee.

159 Behold, for I do loue thy lawes,
with heart most glad and faine:

As thou art good and gracious Lord,
restore my life againe.

160 What thy word doth decree, must be
and so it hath bene euer,

Thy righteous iudgements are also
most true and decay neuer.

SCHIN. The xxi. part.

161 Princes haue sought by crueltie,
causelesse to make me crouch:
But all in vaine, for of thy word
the feare did my heart touch.
162 And certainly euen of thy word,
I was more merrie and glad?
Then he that of rich spoiles and prey,
great store and plentie had.
163 As for all lies and falsities,
I hate most and detest:
For why, thy holy law do I
aboue all things loue best.
164 Seuen times a day I praise the Lord,
singing with heart and voice:
Thy righteous acts and wonderfull
so cause me to reioyce.

165 Great peace & rest shall all such haue
as do thy statutes loue:
No danger shall their quiet state,
empaire or once remoue:
166 My onely health and comfort Lord,
I looke for at thy hand:
And therefore haue I done those things,
which thou didst me command.

167 Thy lawes haue bene mine exercise,
which my soule most desired:
So much to them my loue was bent,
that nought else I required.
168 Thy statutes and commandements
I kept (thou knowest) aright:
For all the things that I haue done,
are present in thy sight.

TAV. The xxj. part.

169 O Lord let my complaint and erie,
before thy face appeare:
And as thou hast me promise made,
so teach me thee to feare.
170 Mine humble supplication,
toward thee let find access:
And grant me Lord deliurance,
for so is thy promise.

171 Then shall my lips thy praises speake
after most ample sort:
When thou thy statutes hast me taught,
wherein stands my comfort.

172 My tongue shall sing and preach thy and on this wise say shall: (word, Gods famous acts and noble lawes,
are iust and perfect all.

173 Stretch out thy hand I thee beseech,
and speedily me saue:
For thy commandments to obserue,
chosen O Lord I haue.

174 Of thee alone Lord I craue health,
for other I know none:
And in thy law and nothing else,
I do delight alone.

175 Grant me therefore long daies to liue
thy Name to magnifie:
And of thy iudgement mercifull,
let me the fauour trie.

176 For I was lost and went astray,
much like a wandring sheepe:
Oh seeke me, for I haue not faild,
thy commandments to keepe.

PSAL. CXX. T. S.

IN trouble and in thrall,
Vnto the Lord I call,
And he doth me comfort.

2 Deliuer me I say,
From liars lips alway,
And tongues of false report.

3 What vantage or what thing,
Getst thou thus for to sing,
Thou false and flattering liar?

4 Thy tongue doth hurt I weene,
No lesse then arrowes keene,
Or note consuming fire.

5 Alas too long I slacke,
Within these tents so blacke,
Which Kedars are by name:
By whom the flocke elect,
And all of Isaacks sect,
Are put to open shame.

6 With them that peace did hate,
I came a peace to make,
And set a quiet life.

7 But when my tale was told,
Canstesse I was controld,
By them that would haue strid.

PSAL. CXXI. W. W.

ILift mine eyes to Sion hill,
From whence I do attend,
That succour God me send.

2 The mightie God me succour will,
Which heauen and earth framed,
And all things therein named.

3 Thy foote from slip he will preserue,
And will thee safely keepe,
For he will neuer sleepe.

4 Lo he that doth Israel conserue,
No sleepe at all can him catch,
But his eies shall euer watch.

5 The Lord is thy warrant alway,
The Lord eke doth thee couer:
As at thy right han euer.

6 The Sonne shall not thee parch by day,
Nor the Moone not halfe so bright,
Shall with cold thee hurt by night.

7 The Lord will keepe thee from distresse
And will thy life sure saue:
And thou also shalt haue,

8 In all thy businesse good successe:
Where euer thou goest in or out,
God will thy things bring about.

PSAL. CXXII. W.W.

I Did in heart reioyce,
To heare the peoples voice,
In offering so willingly.
For, let vs vp, say they,
And in the Lords house pray:
Thus spake the folke full louingly.

2 Our feete that wandred wide,
Shall in thy gates abide,
O thou Ierusalem full faire.
3 Which art so seemely set;
Much like a citie neat,
The like whereof is not elsewhere.

4 The tribes with one accord,
The tribes of God the Lord,
Are thither bent their way to take:
So God before did tell,
That there his Israel,
Their prayers should together make.

5 For there are thrones erect,
And that for this respect,
To set forth iustice orderly:
Which thrones right to maintaine,
To Danids house pertaine,
His folke to iudge accordingly.

6 To pray let vs not cease
For Ieruselems peace,
Thy friends God prosper mightily:
7 Peace be thy wals about,
And prosper thee throughout
Thy pallaces continually.

8 I wish thy prosperous state,
For my poore brethrens sake,
That comfort haue by meanes of thee:
9 Gods house doth me allure,
Thy wealth for to procure,
So much alwaies as lies in me.

PSAL. CXXIII. T.S.

O Lord that heauen doelt possesse,
I lift mine eyes to thee,
Euen as the seruant listeth his,
his masters hand to see. (hands,
2 As handmaids watch their mistris
some grace for to achieve:
So we behold the Lord our God,
till he do vs forgive.

3 Lord grant vs thy compassion,
and mercie in thy sight:
For we areild and overcome,
with hatred and despise.
4 Our minds be stuf with great rebuke,
the rich and worldly wise,
Do make of vs their mocking stockes,
the proud do vs despise.

PSAL. CXXIII. W.W.

Now Israel,
may say, and that truly:

If that the Lord
had not our cause maintaind,
If that the Lord
had not our right sustaind,
2 When all the world
against vs furiously,
Made their vprores,
and said, we should all die:

3 Now long ago
they had deuour'd vs all,
And swallowed quicke,
for ought that we could deeme:
Such was their rage,
as we might well esteeme.

4 And as the floods
with mighty force do fall:
So had they now
our liues euen brought to thrall.

5 The raging streames,
most prond in roaring noise,
Had long ago
ouerwhelm'd vs in the deepe.

6 But loued be God,
which doth vs safely keepe
From bloudie teeth,
and their most cruell voice,
Which as a prey
to eate vs would reioyce.

7 Euen as a bird,
out of the fowlers grin,
Escapes away,
right so it fares with vs:
Broke are their nets,
and we haue scaped thus.

8 God hath made heauen
and earth, is our helpe then:
His Name hath saued
vs from these wicked men.

PSAL. CXXV. W.W.

Such as in God the Lord do trust,
As mount Sion shall firmly stand:
And be remoued at no hand,
The Lord will count them right and iust:
So that they shall be sure,
For euer to endure.

2 As mightie mountaines huge and great
Ierusalem about do close:
So will the Lord be vnto those,
Who on his godly will do waite:
Such are to him so deare,
They neuer need to feare.

3 For though the righteous trie doth he,
By making wicked men his rod: (God,
Lest they through griefe forsake their
It shall not as their lot still be.

4 Give Lord to vs thy light,
Whose hearts are true and right.

But as for such as turne aside,
By crooked waies which they out sought,
The Lord will surely bring to nought,
Which workers vile they shall abide:
But peace with Israel,
For euermore shall dwell.

Another of the same by R.W.

Those that do put their confidence,
Vpon the Lord our God onely,
And lie to him for their defence,
In all their need and miserie:
Their faith is sure still to endure,
Grounded on Christ the corner stone:
Moued with none ill, but standeth still,
Stedfast like to the mount Sion.

And as about Ierusalem,
The mightie hills do it compasse,
So that no enemies come to them,
To hurt that towne in any case:
So God indeed in euery need,
His faithfull people doth defend,
Standing them by assuredly,
From this time forth world without end.

Right wise and good is our Lord God,
And will not suffer certainly,
The sinners and vngodlies rod,
To carrie vpon his family,
Lest they also from God shoulde go,
Falling to sinne and wickednesse:
O Lord defend world without end,
Thy Christian flocke through thy good(nesse.

O Lord do good to Christians all,
That stedfast in thy word abide.
Such as willingly from God fall,
And to false doctrine daily slide:
Such will the Lord scatter abroad,
With hypocrites throwne downe to hell,
God will them send paines without end:
But Lord grant peace to Israel.

Glory to God the Father of might,
And to the Sonne our Saviour:
And to the holy Ghost whose light
Shine in our hearts and vs succour:
That the right way from day to day,
We may walke and him glorifie,
With hearts desire all that are here,
Vorship the Lord, and say Amen.

PSAL. CXXVI. W.K.

When that the Lord
Again his Sion had forth brought,
From bondage great,
And also seruitude extreame:
His worke was such
As did surmount mans heart & thoughts:
So that we were
Much like to them that vse to dreame.
Our mouthes were
With laughter filled then.

And eke our tongues
Did shew vs ioyfull men.

2 The heathen folke
Were forced then thus to confesse:
How that the Lord
For them also great things had done.

3 But much more we,
And therefore can confesse no lesse:
Wherefore to ioy,
We haue good cause as we began.

4 O Lord go forth,
Thou canst our bondage end:
As do deserts,
The flowing riuers send.

5 Full true it is,
That they which sow in teares indeed
A time will come,
When they shall reape in mirth & ioy.

6 They went and wept,
In bearing of their precious seed:
For that their foes,
Full oftentimes did them annoy:
But their returne
With ioy they shall sure see,
Their sheaves home bring,
And not empai red be.

PSAL. CXXVII. W.W.

Except the Lord the house do make,
And thereunto do set his hand:
What men do build it cannot stand.
Likewise in vain men vndertake,
Cities and holds to watch and ward,
Except the Lord be their safeguard.

2 Though ye rise early in the morne,
And so at night go late to bed,
Feeding full hardly with browne bread,
Yet were your labour lost and worne:
But they whom God doth loue and keepe
Receive all things with quiet sleepe.

3 Therefore marke well, when euer ye see
That men haue heires to enioy their land
It is the gift of Gods owne hand.
For God himselfe doth multiply,
Of his great liberalitie,
The blessing of posteritie.

4 And when the children come to age,
They grow in strength and actiuenesse,
In person and in comelinesse:
So that a shaft shot with courage,
Of one that hath a most strong arme,
Flieth not so swift, nor doth like harme.

5 Oh well is him that hath his quier,
Furnisht with such artillerie:
For when in perill he shall be,
Such one shall neuer shake nor shiuer,
When thar he pleades before the Iudge,
Against his foes that beare him grudge.

which withereth ere it grow.

PSAL. CXXX. W.W.

Lord to thee I make my mone,
when dangers me oppresse:
I call, I sigh, plaine and grone,
trusting to find release.
2 Heare now O Lord my request,
for it is full due time:
And let thine eares aye be prest
vnto this prayer mine.
3 O Lord our God, if thou weigh
our sinnes and them peruse:
Who shall then escape and say,
I can my selfe excuse?
4 But Lord thou art mercifull,
and turnst to vs thy grace:
That we with hearts most carefull,
should feare before thy face.

5 In God I put my whole trust,
my soule waits on his will:
For his promise is most iust,
and I hope therein still.
6 My soule to God hath regard,
wishing for him alway:
More then they that watch and ward,
to see the dawning day.
7 Let Israel then boldly
in the Lord put his trust:

Remember Dauid's troubles Lord,
how to the Lord he swore:
2 And vowd a vow to Iacobs God,
to keepe for euermore.
3 I will not come within my house,
nor climbe vp to my bed:
4 Nor let my temples take their rest,
nor the eies in my head:
5 Till I haue found out for the Lord,
a place to sit thereon:
As a house for Iacobs God to be an habitation.
6 We heard of it at Ephrata,
there did we heare this sound:
And in the fields and Forrests there,
these voices first were found.
7 We will assay and go in now,
his tabernacle there:
Before his foot stoole to fall downe
vpon our knees in feare.
8 Arise O Lord, arise I say,
into thy holy place:
Both thou and the Arke of thy strength,
the presence of thy grace.

- 9 Let all thy Priests be clothed Lord,
with truth and righteousness:
Let all thy Saints and holy men
sing all with ioyfulness.
10 And for thy seruant Dauids sake,
refuse not Lord, I say,
The face of thine annointed, Lord,
nor turne thy face away.

The second part.

- 11 The Lord to Dauid swore in truth,
and will not shrinke from it, Saying, the fruite of thy body
vpon thy seate shall sit.
12 And if thy sonnes my covenant keepe,
that I shall learne each one:
Then shall thy sonnes for euer sit
vpon thy princely throne.

- 13 The Lord himselfe hath chose Sion,
and lones therein to dwell:
Saying, this is my resting place,
I loue and like it well.

- 14 And I will blesse with great increase,
her victuals euery where:
And I will satisfie with bread,
the needie that be there.

- 15 Yea I will decke & cloathe her Priests
with my saluation:
And all her Saints shall sing for ioy,
of my protection.

- 16 There will I surely make the horne
of Dauid for to bud:
For there I haue ordaind for mine,
a lanterne bright and good.

- 17 As for his enemies, I will cloath
with shame for euermore:
But I will cause his crowne to shine
more fresh then heretofore.

PSAL. CXXXIII. W.W.

O How happie a thing it is,
and ioyfull for to see:
Brethren together fast to hold
the band of amitie!

- 2 It cals to mind the sweete perfume,
and that costly ointment,
Which on the sacrificers head
by Gods precept was spent.

It wet not Aarons head alone,
but drencht his beard throughout:
And finally it did runne downe
his rich attire about.

- 3 And as the lower ground doth drinke
the dew of Hermon hill:
And Sion with his siluer drops,
the fields with fruite doth fill:

- 4 Euen so the Lord doth powre on them

his blessings manifold,
Whose hearts & minds without all guile,
this knot do keepe and hold.

PSAL. CXXXIII. W.K.

Behold and haue regard,
ye seruants of the Lord:
Which in his house by night do watch,
praise him with one accord.

- 2 Lift vp your hands on hie,
vnto his holy place:
And giue the Lord his praises due,
his benefits embrace.

- 3 For why, the Lord who did
both earth and heaven frame, Doth Sion blesse, and will conserue
for euermore the same.

PSAL. CXXXV. M.

O Praise the Lord, praise him, ^{(him,} praise
praise him with one accord:

O praise him still, all ye that be
the seruants of the Lord:

- 2 O praise him ye that stand and be,
in the house of the Lord:
Ye of his court and of his house,
praise him with one accord.

- 3 Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
sing praises to his Name:
It is a comely and good thing,
alwaies to do the same.

- 4 For why, the Lord hath chose Jacob,
his very owne ye see.
So hath he chosen Israel,
his treasure for to be.

- 5 For this I know and am right sure,
the Lord is very great:
He is indeed aboue all Gods,
mozt easie to intreate.

- 6 For whatsoeuer pleased him,
all that full well he wrought:
In heaven, in earth, and in the sea,
which he hath made of nought.

- 7 He lifts vp clouds euen from the earth,
he makes lightnings and raine:
He bringeth forth the winds also,
he made nothing in vaine.

- 8 He smote the first borne of each thing,
in Egypt that tooke rest:
He spared there no liuing thing,
the man nor yet the beast.

- 9 He hath in thee shewd wonders great,
O Egypt void of vaunts,
On Pharaoh thy cursed king,
and his seuer serpents.

- 10 He smote then many nations,
and did great acts and things:

He shew the great and mightiest,
and chiefest of their kings.

- 11 Sehon king of the Amorites,
and Og king of Basan:
He shew also the kingdoms all,
that were of Canaan,
12 And gaue their land to Israel,
an heritage we see:
To Israel his owne people
an heritage to be.

The second part.

- 13 Thy Name (O Lord) shall still endure,
and thy memoriall
Throughout all generations
that are or euer shall.
14 The Lord will surely now auenge
his people all indeed:
And to his seruants he will shew
fauour in time of need.

- 15 The idols of the heathen are made,
in all the coasts and lands,
Of siluer and of gold they be,
the worke euen of mens hands.
16 They haue their mouthes, and cannot and eyes that haue no sight: (speake 17 They haue eke eares, & heare nothing, their mouthes be breathlesse quite.

- 18 Wherefore all they are like to them,
that so do set them forth:
And likewise those that trust in them,
or thinke they be ought worth.
19 O all ye house of Israel,
see that ye praise the Lord:
And ye that be of Aarons house,
praise him with one accord.

- 20 And ye that be of Leuies house,
praise ye likewise the Lord:
And ye that stand in awe of him,
praise him with one accord.
21 And out of Sion sound his praise,
the great praise of the Lord,
Whith dwelleth in Ierusalem,
praise him with one accord.

PSAL. CXXXVI. N.

for his mercie endureth for euer.

3 Give praise vnto the Lord of Lords,
for his mercie endureth for euer.

for his mercie, &c. (broad,
8 As Sunne to rule the lightsome day,
for his mercy, &c.

- 9 The Moone & starres to guide the night
for his mercie, &c. (borne, 10 Which smote Egypt with their first
for his mercie, &c.
11 And Israel brought out from thence,
for his mercie, &c.
12 With mighty hand & stretched arme,
for his mercie, &c.

- 13 Which cut the red sea in two parts,
for his mercie, &c.
14 And Israel made passe there through,
for his mercie, &c.
15 And drowned Pharaoh and his host,
for his mercie, &c.
16 Through wildernesse his people led,
for his mercie, &c.

- 17 He which did smite great noble kings,
for his mercie, &c. (kings, 18 And which hath slaine the mightie
for his mercie, &c.
19 As Sehon king of the Amorites,
for his mercie, &c.
20 And Og the king of Basan land,
for his mercie, &c.

- 21 And gaue their land for heritage,
for his mercie, &c.
22 Euen to his seruant Israel,
for his mercie, &c.
23 Remembring vs in base estate,
for his mercie, &c.
24 And from oppressors rescued vs,
for his mercie, &c.

- 25 Which giueth foode vnto all flesh,
for his mercie, &c.
26 Praise ye the Lord of heauen aboue,
for his mercie, &c.
27 Giue thanks vnto the Lord of Lords,
for his mercie, &c.

Another of the same by T. C.

O Laud the Lord benigne,
Whose mercies last for aye:
Giue thanks, and praises sing
To God of Gods I say.
2 For certainly,
His mercies dure,
Both firme and sure,
Eternally.

- 3 The Lord of Lords praise ye,
Whose mercies aye do dure:
4 Great wonders onely he Doth worke by his great power:
For certainly, &c.

5 Which

5 Which God omnipotent,
 By his great wisdom he,
 The heauenly firmament
 Did frame as we may see.
 For certainly,
 His mercies dure,
 Both firme and sure,
 Eternally.

6 Yea, he the heauie charge
 Of all the earth did stretch:
 And on the waters large,
 The same he did outreach,
 For certainly, &c.

7 Great lights he made to be,
 For why, his lone is aye:
 8 Such as the Sunne we see,
 To rule the light some day.
 For certainly, &c.

9 And eke the Moone so cleare,
 Which shineth in our sight:
 And starres that do appeare,
 To guide the darksome night.
 For certainly, &c.

10 With grienous plagues and fore,
 All Egypt finote he than:
 Their first borne lesse and more,
 He slue of beast and man.
 For certainly, &c.

11 And from amidst their land,
 His Israel forth brought:
 12 Which he with mightie hand,
 And stretched arme hath wrought:
 For certainly, &c.

13 The sea he cut in two,
 Which stood vp like a wall:
 14 And made through it to go
 His chosen children all.
 For certainly, &c.

15 But there he whelmed then,
 The proud king Pharaoh,
 With his huge hoast of men,
 And chariots eke also:
 For certainly, &c.

16 Who led through wildernesse
 His people safe and sonnd:
 And for his loue endlesse,
 17 Great kings he brought to ground:
 For certainly, &c.

18 And slue with puissant hand
 Kings mightie and of fame,
 19 As of Amorites land,
 Sehon the king by name:
 For certainly, &c.

20 And Og the Giant large,

Of Basan king also:
 21 Whose land for heritage
 He gaue his people tho:
 For certainly, &c.

22 Euen vnto Israel,
 His seruant deare, I say,
 He gaue the same to dwell,
 And there abide for aye:
 For certainly, &c.

23 To mind he did vs call,
 In our most base degree:
 24 And from oppressors all
 In safetie set vs free:
 For certainly, &c.

25 All flesh in earth abroad,
 With food he doth fulfill:
 26 Wherefore of heauen the God,
 To laud be it your will.
 For certainly, &c.

PSAL. CXXXVII. W.W.

WHEN as we sate in Babylon,
 the riuers round about:
 And in remembrance of Sion,
 the teares for grieve burst out:
 2 We hang'd our harps and instruments,
 the willow trees vpon:
 For in that place, men for their vse,
 had planted many a one.

3 Then they to whom we prisoners were,
 said to vs tauntingly:
 Now let vs heare your Hebrew songs,
 and pleasant melodie.

4 Alas, said we, who can once frame,
 his sorrowfull heart to sing,
 The praises of our louing God,
 thus vnder a strange king?

5 But yet if I Ierusalem,
 out of my heart let slide:
 Then let my fingers quite forget,
 my warbling harpe to guide.

6 And let my tongue within my mouth,
 be tide for euer fast:
 If that I ioy before I see,
 thy full deliuerance past.

7 Therefore O Lord remember now
 the cursed noise and crie,
 That Edoms sonnes against vs made,
 when they raz'd our citie.

Remember Lord their cruell words,
 when as with one accord,
 They cride, on, sacke, and raze their wals,
 in despite of their Lord.

8 Euen so shalt thou O Babylon,
 at length to dust be brought:

And

And happie shall that man be cald,
that our reuenge hath wrought.
9 Yea blessed shall that man be cald,
that takes thy children yong,
To dash their bones against hard stones,
that lie the streets among.

PSAL. CXXXVIII. N.

Thee wil I praise with my whole hart,
my Lord, my God alwaies:
Euen in the presence of the gods,
I will aduance thy praise.
2 Toward thy holy temple, I will looke, and worship thee:
And praised in my thankfull mouth,
thy holy Name shall be.

Euen for thy louing kindnesse sake,
and for thy truth withall:
For thou thy Name hast by thy word
aduanced ouer all.
3 When I did call, thou heardest me,
and thou hast made also
The power of increased strength
within my soule to grow.

4 Yea all the kings on earth, they shall giue praise to thee. O Lord:
For they of thy most holy mouth
haue heard the mightie word.
5 They of the waies of God the Lord,
in singing shall intreat.
Because the glorie of the Lord,
it is exceeding great.

6 The Lord is high, and yet he doth behold the lowly sprite:
But he (contemning) knewes afarre
the proud and lustie wight.
7 Although in midst of trouble I do walke, yet shall I stand, Renewed by thee, O my Lord,
thou wilt stretch out thy hand

Vpon the wrath of all my foes,
and fained shall I be
By thy right hand: the Lord God will performe his werke to me.
8 Thy mercie Lord endures for aye,
Lord do me not forsake:
Forsake me not, that am the worke
which thine owne hand did make.

PSAL. CXXXIX. N.

O Lord thou hast me tride & knowne,
my sitting thou doest know,
2 And rising eke: my thoughts afarre
thou vnderstandst also.
3 My paths, yea and my lying downe,
thou compasshest alwaies:
And by familiar custome art acquainted with my waies.

4 No word is in my tongue O Lord,
but knowne it is to thee:
5 Thou me behind holdst and before,
thou layest thine hand on me.
6 Too wonderfull about my reach,
Lord is thy cunning skill:
It is so high, that I the same
cannot attaine vntill,

7 From sight of thy all-seeing Spirit,
Lord whither shall I go?
Or whither shall I flie away,
thy presence to scape fro?
8 To heauen if I mount aloft,
lo thou art present there:
In hell if I lie downe below,
euen there thou doest appeare.

9 Yea let me take the morning wings,
and let me go and hide
Euen there where are the farthest parts,
where flowing sea doth slide.
10 Yea euen thither also shall thy reaching hand me guide:
And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
and make me to abide.

11 Yea if I say, the darknesse shall yet shroud me from thy sight:
Lo euen also the darkest night,
about me shall be light.
12 Yea darknesse hideth not from thee,
but night doth shine as day:
To thee the darknesse and the light,
are both alike alway.

The second part.

13 For thou possessedst haft my reines,
and thou hast conered me:
When I within my mothers wombe,
inclosed was by thee.
14 Thee will I praise, made fearfully
and wondrously I am:
Thy workes are maruellous, right well
my soule doth know the same.

15 My bones they are not hid from thee,
although in secret place
I haue bene made, and in the earth
beneath I shaped was.
16 When I was formlesse, then thine eye
saw me: for in thy booke
Were written all, nought was before,
that after fashion tooke.

17 The thoughts therfore of thee O God,
how deare are they to me:
And of them all, how passing great
the endlesse number be!
18 If I should count them, lo their summe
more then the sand I see:
And when so euer I awake,
yet am I still with thee.

- 19 The wicked and the bloody men,
O that thou wouldest slay:
Euen those O God, to whom, depart,
depart from me, I say.
- 20 Euen those of thee, O Lord my God,
that speake full wickedly.
Those that are lifted vp in vaine,
being enemies to thee.
- 21 Hate I not them that hate thee Lord,
and that in earnest wile?
Contend I not against them all,
against thee that arise?
- 22 I hate them with vnfained hate,
euen as my vtter foes.
- 23 Trie me, O God, and know my heart,
my thoughts proue and disclose.
- 24 Consider Lord if wickednesse
in me there any be:
And in thy way, O God my guide,
for euer leade thou me.

PSAL. CXL. N.

- Lord saue me from the euill man,
and from the cruell wight:
And from all those which euill do
imagine in their sprite.
- 2 Which make on me continuall warre,
their tongues lo they haue whet
- 3 Like Serpents: vnderneath their lips
is Adders poison set.
- 4 Keepe me, O Lord, from wicked hands,
preserue me to abide Free from the cruell man, that meanes
to cause my steps to slide.
- 5 The proud haue laid a snare for me,
and they haue spred a net,
With cords in my pathway, and grins
for me eke haue they set.
- 6 Therefore I said vnto the Lord,
thou art my God alone:
Heare me, O Lord, and heare the voice
wherewith I pray and mone.
- 7 O Lord my God, thou onely art
the strength that saueh me:
My head in day of battell hath bene couered still by thee.
- 8 Let not (O Lord) the wicked haue
the end of his desire:
Performe not his ill thought, lest he
with pride be set on fire.
- 9 Of them that compasse me about,
the chiefest of them all,
Lord let the mischief of their lips,
vpon themselves befall.
- 10 Let coales fall on them, let him cast
them in consuming flame:
And in deepe pits, so as they may

- not rise out of the same.
- 11 For no backiter shall on earth
be set in stable plight:
And euill to destruction still shall haunt the cruell wight.
- 12 I know the Lord th'afflicted will revenge, and iudge the poore:
- 13 The iust shal praise thy Name, iust shal
dwell with thee euermore.

PSAL. CXLI. N.

- O Lord vpon thee do I call,
Lord haste thee vnto me:
And hearken Lord vnto my voice,
when I do crie to thee.
- 2 As incense let my prayers be directed in thine eies:
And the vplifting of my hands,
as euening sacrifice.
- 3 My Lord, for guiding of my mouth,
set thou a watch before:
And also of my mouing lips,
O Lord keepe thou the doore.
- 4 That I should wicked workes commit.
incline thou not my heart:
With ill men of their delicates,
Lord let me eate no part.
- 5 But let the righteous smite me, Lord,
for that is good for me:
Let him reprove me, and the same
a precious oile shall be.
Such smiting shall not breake my head:
the time shall shortly fall,
When I shall in their miserie,
make prayers for them all.
- 6 Then when in stonie places downe
their Iudges shall be cast:
Then shall they heare my words, for then
they haue a pleasant taste.
- 7 Our bones about the granes mouth,
lo scattred are they found:
As he that heweth wood, or he
that diggeth vp the ground.
- 8 But O my Lord my God, mine eies
do looke vp vnto thee:
In thee is all my trust, let not my soule forsaken be.
- 9 Which they haue laid to catch me in,
Lord keepe me from the snare:
And from the subtle grins of them
that wicked workers are.
- 10 The wicked into their owne nets,
together let them fall:
While I do by thy helpe escape
the danger of them all.

PSAL. XLII. N.

- Before the Lord God with my voice,
I did send out my crie:

And with my strained voice vnto
the Lord God prayed I.

2 My meditation in his sight,
to powre I did not spare:
And in the presence of the Lord,
my trouble did declare.

3 Although perplexed was my spirit,
my path was knowne to thee:
In way where I did walke, a snare
they slyly laid for me.

4 I lookt and viewd on my right hand,
but none there would me know:
All refuge failed me: and for
my soule none cared tho.

5 Then cride I Lord to thee, and said,
my hope thou onely art:
Thou in the land of lining art
my portion and my part.

6 Hearke to my crie, for I am brought full low: deliuer me
From them that do me persecute,
for me too strong they be.

7 That I may praise thy Name, my soule
from prison Lord bring out:
When thou art good to me, the iust
shall preasse me round about.

PSAL. CXLIII. N.

Lord heare my praier, hearken the plaint
that I do make to thee:
Lord in thy natine truth and in thy iustice answer me.

2 In iudgement with thy seruant, Lord,
oh enter not at all:
For iustified be in thy sight,
not one that liueth shall.

3 The enemy hath persude my soule,
my life to ground hath throwne:
And laid me in the darke, like them
that dead are long agone.

4 Within me in perplexitie
was mine accombred sprite:
And in me was my troubled heart
amazed and affright.

5 Yet I record time past, in all thy workes I meditate:
Yea in thy workes I meditate,
that thy hands haue creare.

6 To thee O Lord my God, lo I do stretch my crawing hands:
My soule desireth after thee,
as do the thirstie lands.

7 Heare me with speed, my spirit doth hide not thy face me fro: (faile, Else shall I be like them that downe
into the pit do go.

8 Let me thy louing kindnesse in the morning heare and know:

For in thee is my trust: shew me
the way where I shall go.

9 For I lift vp my soule to thee,
O Lord deliuer me

From all mine enemies: for I
haue hidden me with thee.

10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou,
thou art my God, I say:
Let thy good Spirit vnto the land
of mercie me conuay.

11 For thy Names sake with quickning aliue do thou me make: (grace,
And out of trouble bring my soule,
euen for thy iustice sake.

12 And for thy mercie slay my foes,
O Lord destroy them all,
That do oppresse my soule, for I thy seruant am, and shall.

PSAL. CXLIIII. N.

Blest be the Lord my strength, that doth instruct my hands to fight:

The Lord that doth my fingers frame,
to bartell by his might.

2 He is my goodnesse, fort, and tower,
deliuerer and shield:

In him I trust: my people he
subdues to me to yeeld.

3 O Lord what thing is man, that him
thou holdest so in prise?

Or sonne of man, that vpon him
thou shinkest in such wise?

4 Man is but like to vanitie,
so passe his dayes to end,

5 As fleeting shade: bow downe O Lord,
the heauens and descend.

6 The mountaine touch, and they shall cast forth thy lightning flame,
And scatter them: thine arrowes shoote,
consume them with the same.

7 Send downe thine hand euen fro above
O Lord deliuer me:

Take me from waters great, from hand
of strangers make me free.

8 Whose subtrill mouth of vanitie,
ann fondnesse doth intreat:
And their right hand, is a right hand
of fallshood and deceit.

9 A new song will I sing, O God,
and singing will I be

On Viole and on instrument
ten stringed vnto thee.

10 Euen he it is that onely giues
deliuerance to kings:

Vnto his seruant Dauid, helpe
from hurtfull sword he brings.

11 Frō strangers hand me saue,& shield,
whose mouth talkes vanitie:
And their right hand is a right hand
of guile and subtiltie.

12 That our sonnes may be as the plants,
whom growing youth doth reare:

Our daughters as caru'd corner stones,
like to a pallace faire.

13 Our garners full, and pleatie may with sundry sorts be found:

Our sheep bring thousands, in our streets
ten thousands may abound:

14 Our Oxen be to labour strong,
that none do vs inuade:

There be no going out, nor cries
within our streets be made.

15 The people blessed are, that with such blessings are so stor'd:

Yea blessed all the people are,
whose God is God the Lord.

PSAL. CXLV. N.

Thee will I laud, my God and King,
and blesse thy Name for aye:

2 For euer will I praise thy Name,
and blesse thee day by day.

3 Great is the Lord, most worthy praise,
his greatnesse none can reach:

4 From race to race they shall thy works
praise, and thy power preach.

5 I of thy glorious maiestie
the beautie will record:

And meditate vpon thy workes,
most wonderfull O Lord.

6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull acts declare:

And I to publish all abroad
thy greatnesse will not spare.

7 And they into the mention shall breake of thy goodnesse great:

And I aloud thy righteousness,
in singing shall repeate.

8 The Lord our God is gracious,
and mercifull also:

Of great abounding mercie, and
to anger he is slow.

9 Yea good to all, and all his workes
his mercie doth exceed:

10 Lo all thy works do praise thee Lord,
and do thy honour spread.

11 Thy Saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdomes glory shew:

12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons
of men his power to know.

The second part.

13 And of his mightie kingdome eke
to spread the glorious praise:

Thy kingdome Lord, a kingdome is that doth endure alwaies.

And thy dominion through each age,
endures without decay:

14 The Lord vpholdieth them that fall,
their sliding he doth stay.

15 The eies of all doe waite on thee,
thou doest them all relieue:

And thou to each sufficing food,
in season due doest giue.

16 Thou openest thy plenteous hand,
and bounteously doest fill

All things whatsoener do liue,
with gifts of thy good will.

17 The Lord is iust in all his wayes,
his workes are holy all:

18 Neare all he is that call on him,
in truth that on him call.

19 He the desires which they require,
that feare him will fulfill:

And he will heare them when they crie,
and saue them all he will.

20 The Lord preserues all those, to him
that beare a louing heart:

But he them all that wicked are,
will vtterly subuert.

21 My thankfull mouth shal gladly speake
the praises of the Lord:

All flesh to praise his holy Name,
for euer shall accord.

PSAL. CXLVI. I.H.

My soule praise thou the Lord alway
my God I will confesse:

2 While breath & life prolong my daies,
my tongue no time shall cease.

3 Trust not in worldly Princes then,
though they abound in wealth:

Now in the sonnes of mortall men,
in whom there is no health.

4 For why, their breath doth soone de-
to earth anon they fall: (part,

And then the counsels of their heart,
decay and perish all.

5 O happie is that man I say,
whom Iacobs God doth aide;

And he whose hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is staid:

6 Which made the earth & waters deepe,
the heauens high withall:

Which doth his word and promise keepe
in truth and euer shall.

7 With right alwaies doth he proceed,
for such as suffer wrong:

The poore and hungry he doth feed,
and loose the fetters strong.

8 The Lord doth send & blind their sight
eke

the lame to lims restore:
The Lord, I say, doth loue the right
and iust man euermore.
9 He doth defend the fatherlesse,
and stranger sad in heart:
And quit the widow from distresse,
and i. l. mens waies subuert.

10 Thy Lord and God eternally,
O Sion still shalt raigne:
In time of all posteritie,
for euer to remaine.

PSAL. CXLVII. N.

Praise ye the Lord, for it is good
vnto our God to sing:
For it is pleasant, and to praise,
it it is a comely thing.
2 The Lord his owne Ierusalem,
he buildeth vp alone:
And the disperst of Israel,
doth gather into one.

3 He heales the broken in their heart,
their sores vp doth he bind:
4 He counts the number of the starres,
and names them in their kind.
5 Great is the Lord, great is his power,
his wisdom infinite:
6 The Lord reliques the meek, & throwes
to ground the wicked wight.

7 Sing vnto God the Lord with praise,
vnto the Lord reioyce:
And to our God vpon the Harpe
aduaunce your singing voice.
8 He coners heauen with clouds, and for
the earth prepareth raine:
And on the mountaines he doth make
the grasse to grow againe.

9 He giues to beasts their food, and to yong rauens when they crie:
10 His pleasure not in strength of horse,
nor in mans legs doth lie.
11 But in all those that feare the Lord,
the Lord hath his delight:
And such as do attend vpon
his mercies shining light.

The second part.

12 O praise the Lord, Ierusalem,
thy God O Sion praise:
13 For he the barres hath forged strong,
wherewith thy gates he stayes.
14 Thy children he hath blest in thee,
and in thy borders he doth settle peace, and with the floure
of wheate he filleth thee.

15 And his commandement vpon
the earth he sendeth out:

And eke his word with speedy course
doth swiftly runne about.
16 He giueth snow like wooll, hoare frost
like ashes doth he spread:
17 Like morsels casts his ice, thereof
the cold who can abide?

18 He sendeth forth his mightie word,
and melteth them againe:
His wind he makes to blow, and then
the waters flow amaine.
19 The doctrine of his holy word,
to Iacob he doth show:
His statutes and his iudgements he giues Israel to know.

20 With euery nation hath he not so dealt, nor haue they knowne
His secret iudgements: ye therefore praise ye the Lord alone.

PSAL. CXLVIII. I. H.

Glorie land vnto the Lord,
From heauen that is so hie:
Praise him in deed and word,
Aboue the starrie skie.

2 And also ye,
His Angels all,
Armies royall,
Praise him with glee.

3 Praise him both Moone and Sunne,
Which are so cleare and bright:
The same of you be done,
Ye glistering starres of light.

4 And eke no lesse,
Ye heauens faire,
5 And clouds of the aire,
His laud expresse.

6 For at his word they were
All formed as we see:
At his voice did appeare
All things in their degree:
Which he set fast:
To them he made
A law and trade,
For aye to last.

7 Extoll and praise Gods Name,
On earth ye Dragons fell:
All deepes do ye the same,
For it becomes you well.

8 Him magnifie,
Fire, haile, ice, snow,
And stormes that blow
At his decree.

9 The hills and mountaines all,
And trees that fruitfull are:
The Cedars high and tall,
His worthy praise declare.

10 Beasts and cattell,

Yea birds flying,
And wormes creeping,
That on earth dwell.

11 All kings both more and lesse,
With all their pompous traine:
Princes and all Iudges,
That in the world remaine,
Exalt his Name.

12 Yong men and maides,
Old men and babes,
Do ye the same.

13 For his Name shall we proue
To be most excellent:
Whose praise is farre about
The earth and firmament.

14 For sure he shall Exalt with blisse
The borne of his,
And helpe them all,

15 His Saints all shall forth tell
His praise and worthinesse:
The children of Israel,
Each one both more and lesse,

16 And also they,
That with good will,
His words fulfill,
And him obey.

PSAL. CXLIX. N.

Sing ye vnto the Lord our God,
a new reioycing song:
And let the praise of him be heard,
his holy Saints among.

2 Let Israel reioyce in him,
that made him of nothing:
And let the seed of Sion eke,
be ioyfull in their King.

3 Let them sound praise with voice of flute
vnto his holy Name:
And with the Timbrell and the Harpe,
sing praises of the same.

4 For why, the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set:
And by deliuerance he will raise the meeke to glorie great.

5 With glorie and with honour now
let all his Saints reioyce:
And now aloud vpon their beds
aduaunce their singing voice.

6 And in their monthes let be the acts
of God the mightie Lord:
And in their hands eke let them beare
a double edged sword.

7 To plague the heathen, and correct
the people with their hands:

8 To bind their stately kings in chaines,
their Lords in iron bands.

9 To execute on them the doome,
that written is before:
This honour all his Saints shall haue,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSAL. CL. N.

Yeeld vnto God the mightie Lord,
praise in his sanctuarie.

And praise him in the firmament,
that shewes his power on him.

Praise him vpon the Viol, and

Organs and Virginals:

5 With sounding Cimbals praise ye him,
praise him with loud Cimbals.

of breathing, praise the Lord:
To praise the Name of God the Lord,
agree with one accord.

Exod. 20. W. W.

Attend my people and giue eare,
Offerly things I will thee tell:
See that my words in mind thou beare,
And to my precepts listen well.

1 I am thy soueraigne Lord and God,
Which hane thee brought from carefull
thrall,
And eke reclaim'd from Pharaohs rod:
Make thee no Gods on them to call.

2 Nor fashioned forme of any thing,
In heauen or earth to worship it:
For I thy God by reue'ging, (smite.
With grievous plagues this sinne will

3 Take not in vaine his holy Name,
Abuse it not after thy will:
For so thou mightst soone purchase blame
And in his wrath he would thee spill.

4 The Lord from worke the seauenth day

And brought all things to perfect end:
So thou and thine that day take rest,
That to Gods helts ye may attend.

5 Vnto thy parents honour gine,
As Gods commandments do intend:
That thou long daies & good maist liue,
In earth where God a place doth lend.

6 Beware of murder and cruell hate.

7 All filthy fornication feare.

8 See thou steale not in any rate.

9 Falsé witnesse against no man beare.

10 Thy neighbors house with not to hane
His wife or ought that he calls mine:
His field, his Oxe, his Asse, his slaue,
Or any thing which is not thine.

A prayer.

The Spirit of grace grant vs O Lord,
To keepe these lawes our hearts restore,
And cause vs all with one accord,
To magnifie thy Name therefore.

For of our selues no strength we hane,
To keepe these lawes after thy will:
Thy might therefore O Christ we craue,
That we in thee may them fulfill.

Lord for thy Names sake grant vs this,
Thou art our strength & Sauour Christ,
Of thee to speed how should we misse,
In whom our treasure doth consist?

The Lords prayer. 93

To thee for euermore be praise,
With the Father in each respect,
And with the holy Spirit alwaies
The comforter of thine elect.

The Lords Prayer. D. Cox.

Our Father which in heauen art,
And mak'st vs all one brotherhood,
To call vpon thee with one heart:
Our heauenly Father and our God.
Grant we pray not with lips alone.
But with the hearts deepe sigh & groane

Thy blessed Name be sanctified,
Thy holy word might vs enflame,
In holy life for to abide,
To magnifie thy holy Name.
From all errors defend and keepe
The little flocke of thy poore sheepe.

Thy kingdome come euen at this houre
And henceforth euerlastingly:
Thine holy Ghost into vs poure,
With all his gifts most pleasureously.
From Sathans rage and filthy band,
Defend vs with thy mightie hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heauen in earth also:
In trouble grant vs patience,
Thee to obey in wealth and wo.
Let not flesh, blond, or any ill,
Preuaile against thy holy will.

Gine vs this day our daily bread,
And all other good gifts of thine:
Keepe vs from warre, and from bloudshed
Also from sicknesse, dearth and pine.
That we may liue in quietnesse,
Without all greedie carefulnesse.

Forgiue vs our offences all,
Relieve our carefull consciences:
As we forgiue both great and small,
Which vnto vs hane done offence.
Prepare vs Lord for to serue thee,
In perfect loue and vnitie.

O Lord into temptation,
Leade vs not when the fiend doth rage
To withstand his inuasion,
Giue power and strength to euery age.
Arme and make strong thy feeble host,
With faith and with the holy Ghost,

O Lord from euill deliuer vs,
The dayes and times are dangerous:
From euerlasting death saue vs,
And in our last need comfort vs.
A blessed end to vs bequeath,
Into thy hands our soules receive.

For thou O Lord, art king of kings,
E 4 And

And thou hast power ouer all:
Thy glorie shineth in all things,
In the wide world vniuersall.
Amen, let it be done O Lord,
That we haue prayd with one accord.

The twelue Articles of the Christian faith.

All my beleefe and confidence,
is in the Lord of might,
The Father which all things hath made,
the day and eke the night.
The heauens and the firmament,
and also many a starre:
The earth and all that is therein,
which passe mans reason farre.

And in like manner I beleue,
in Christ our Lord his Sonne, Coequall with the Deitie,
and man in flesh and bone.
Conceined by the holy Ghost,
his word doth me assure:
And of his mother Mary borne,
yet she a virgine pure.

Because mankind to Sathan was
for sinne in bond and thrall:
He came and offered vp himselfe,
to death to saue vs all.
And suffering most grievous paine,
then Pilate being iudge:
Was crucified on the crosse,
and thereat did not grudge.

And so he died in the flesh,
but quickened in the sprite:
His body then was buried,
as is our vse and rite.
His soule did after this descend
into the lower parts:
A dread vnto the wicked sprites,
but ioy to faithfull hearts.

And in the third day of his death,
he rose to life againe:
To the end he might be glorified,
out of all griefe and paine.
Ascending to the heauens high,
to sit in glorie still,
On Gods right hand his Father deare,
according to his will.

Vntill the day of iudgement come,
when he shall come againe
With Angels power (yet of that day
we all be vncertaine)
To iudge all people righteously,
whom he hath dearly bought:
The lining and the dead also,
which he hath made of nought.

And in the holy Spirit of God,
my faith to satisfie:

Come holy Spirit.

The third person in Trinitie,
beleue I stedfastly.
The holy and Catholike Church,
that Gods word doth maintaine,
And holy Scripture doth allow,
which Sathan doth disdaine,

And also I do trust to haue
by Iesus Christ his death, Release and pardon of my sinnes,
and that onely by faith.
What time all flesh shall rise againe
before the Lord of might:
And see him with their bodily eyes,
which now do giue them sight.

And then shall Christ our Sauour,
the sheepe and goates deuide,
And giue life euerlastingly,
to those whom he hath tride:
Within his Realme celestiaall,
in glory for to rest,
With all his holy companie
of Saints and Angels blest.

Which serue the Lord omnipotent,
obediently each houre:
To whom be all dominion,
and praise for euermore.

A prayer to the holy Ghost, to be sung before the Sermon.

Come holy Spirit the God of might,
comforter of vs all,
Teach vs to know thy word aright,
that we do neuer fall.
O holy Ghost visite our coast,
defend vs with thy shield,
Against all sinne and wickednesse,
Lord helpe vs winne the field.

Lord keepe our King and his Councell,
and giue them will and might,
To perseuere in thy Gospell,
which can put sinne to flight.
O Lord that giuest thy holy word,
send Preachers plenteously:
That in the same we may accord,
and therein line and die.

O holy Spirit direct aright
the Preachers of thy word,
That thou by them maist cut downe sinne
as it were with a sword.
Depart not from thy Pastors pure,
but aide them at their need:
Which breake to vs the bread of life,
whereon our soules do feed.

O blessed Spirit of truth keepe vs
in peace and vnitie, Keepe vs from sects and errors all,
and from all papistrick.

Conuert all those that are our foes,
and bring them to thy light:
That they and we may well agree,
and praise thee day and night.

O Lord increase our faith in vs,
and loue so to abound:
That man and wife be voide of strife,
and neighbours about vs round.
In our time giue thy peace O Lord,
to nations farre and nie:
And teach them all thy holy word,
that we may sing to thee.

All glory to the Trinitie
that is of mighties most:
The liuing Father and the Sonne,
and eke the holy Ghost.
As it hath bene in all the tyme
that hath bene heretofore.
As it is now, and so shall be henceforth for euermore.

Da pacem Domine.

Give peace in these our dayes, O Lord
Great dangers are now at hand:
Thine enemies with one accord,
Christs name in euery land,
Seeke to deface,
Root out and race,
Thy true right worship indeed.
Be thou the stay,
Lord we thee pray,
Thou helpst alone in all need.

Giue vs that peace which we do lacke,
Through misbeleefe and ill life:
Thy word to offer y^e doest not slacke
Which we vnkindly gainestruie,
With fire and sword,
This healthfull word
Some persecute and oppresse:
Some with the mouth,
Confesse the truth
Without sincere godlinesse.

Giue peace, and vs thy Spirit down send,
With griefe and repentance true: (mend
Do pierce our hearts, our liues to mend
And by faith in Christ renne.
That feare and dread,
Warre and bloodshed,
Through thy sweete mercie and grace,
May from vs slide:
Thy truth may bide,
And shine in euery place.

The Lamentation.

O Lord in thee is all my trust,
giue eare vnto my wofull crie:
Refuse me not that am vniust,
but bowing downe thy heauenly eye:

Behold how I do still lament,
my sinnes wherein I do offend:
O Lord for them (shall I be bent, sith thee to please I do intend)

No, no, not so, thy will is bent,
to deale with sinners in thine ire:
But when in heart they shall repent,
thou grantst with speed their iust de-
To thee therefore still shall I crie, (Grie,
to wash away my sinfull crime:
Thy blood O Lord is not yet drie,
but that it may helpe me in tyme.

Haste thee O Lord, haste thee I say,
to powre on me thy gifts of grace:
That when this life shall sit away,
in heauen with thee I may haue place:
Where thou dost reigne eternally,
with God which once did downe thee Where Angels sing continually: (send,
to thee be praise world without end.

A Thanksgiuing after the recei- uing of the Lords Supper.

The Lord be thanked for his gifts,
and mercies euermore:
That he doth shew vnto his Saints,
to him be laud therefore.
Our tongues cannot so praise the Lord,
as he doth right deserue:
Our hearts cannot of him so thinke,
as he doth vs preferue.

His benefites they be so great,
to vs that be but sinne:
That at our hands for recompence,
there is no hope to winne.
O sinfull flesh that thou shouldst haue
such mercies of the Lord:
Thou doest deserue more worthily
of him to be abhord.

Nought else but sin and wretchednesse,
doth rest within our hearts:
And stubbornly against the Lord,
we daily play our parts.
The Sunne aboue in firmament,
that is to vs a light:
Doth shew it selfe more cleane and pure,
then we be in his sight.

The heauens aboue, and all therein,
more holy are then we:
They serue the Lord in their estate,
each one in his degree.
They do not strue for masteryship,
nor slacke their office set:
But serue the Lord, and do his will,
hate is to them no let.

Also the earth, and all therein,
of God it is in awe,

25622

It doth obserue the Formers will,
by skilfull natures law.
The sea and all that is therein,
doth bend when God doth becke:
The spirits beneath do tremble all,
and feare his wrathfull cheeke,

But we alas, for whom all these
were made them for to rule,
Do not so know or loue the Lord,
as doth the Oxe or Mule.
A law he gaue for vs to know,
what was his holy will:
He would vs good, but we would not
auoid the thing is ill.

Not one of vs that seeketh out
the Lord of life to please:
Nor do the thing that might vs leade
to Christ and quiet ease.
Thus are we all his enemies,
we can it not deny:
And he againe of his good will
would not that we should die.

Therefore when remedie was none,
to bring vs vnto life:
The Sonne of God our flesh he tooke,
to end our mortall strife.
And all the law of God the Lord,
he did it full obey:
And for our sinnes vpon the crosse,
his bloud our debts did pay.

And that we should not yet forget
what good he to vs wrought:
A signe he left our eyes to tell,
that he our bodies bought:
In bread and wine here visible,
vnto thine eyes and tast:
His mercies great thou maist record,
if that his Spirit thou hast.

As once the corne did liue and grow,
and was cut downe with sithe:
And threshed out with many stripes,
out from his huske to drine:
And as the mill with violence,
did teare it out so small:
And made it like to earthly dust,
not sparing it at all:

And as the oven with fire hote,
did close it vp with heate:
And all this done that I haue said,
that it should be our meate:
So was the Lord in his ripe age,
cut downe by cruell death:
His soule he gaue in torments great,
and yeldded vp his breath.

Because that he to vs might be an euerlasting bread:
With much reproch and torments great,
on earth his life he led.
And as the grapes in pleasant time,
are pressed very fore,
And plucked downe when they be ripe,
and let to grow no more:

Because the iuice that in them is,
as comfortable drinke,
We might receiue, and ioyfull be,
when ferrowes make vs shrink:
So Christs bloud out pressed was,
with nailes and eke with speare:
The iuice whereof doth saue all those,
that rightly do him feare.

And as the cornes by vnitie,
into one loafe are knit:
So is the Lord and his whole Church,
though he in heauen sit.
As many grapes make but one wine,
so should we be but one:
In faith and loue in Christ about,
and vnto Christ alone.

Leading a life without all strife,
in quiet rest and peace:
From enuie and from malice both,
our hearts and tongues to cease.
Which if we do, then shall we show,
that we his chosen be:
By faith in him to leade a life,
as alwayes willed he.

And that we may so do indeed,
God send vs all his grace:
Then after death we shall be sure,
with him to haue a place.

R. W.

PReserue vs Lord, by thy deare word,
From Turke and Pope defend vs Lord
which both would thrust out of his throne
Our Lord Iesus Christ thy deare Sonne.

Lord Iesus Christ, shew forth thy might
That thou art Lord of Lords by right:
Thy poore afflicted flocke defend,
That we may praise thee without end.

God holy Ghost our comforter,
Be our patron, helpe and succour:
Giue vs one mind, and perfect peace,
All gifts of grace in vs increase.

Thou liuing God in persons three,
Thy Name be praised in vnitie:
In all our need so vs defend,
That we may praise thee without end.
